commercial and colonial roles Islamic Law in Malaysia Adnan Trakic, Hanifah Haydar Ali Tajuddin, 2021-03-16 This book examines the challenges of the implementation of Islamic law in Malaysia Malaysia is a pertinent jurisdiction to explore such challenges given its global focus colonial history and institutions and the intersection of the Shari ah and secularism multiculturalism The resultant implementation challenges are underpinned by three factors that make Malaysia an important jurisdiction for those interested in understanding the place of Islamic law in the global context First Malaysia is often considered as a model Islamic country Islamic law is a source of law in Malaysia The Islamic law legal system in Malaysia operates in parallel with a common law legal system The two systems of law generally are in harmony with one another Nevertheless occasional cross jurisdictional issues do arise and when they do the Malaysian judiciary has been quite efficient in solving them The Malaysian experience in maintaining such harmony between the two legal systems provides lessons for a number of countries facing such challenges Second Malaysia has a developed Shari ah court system that interprets and applies Islamic law predominantly based on the Shafi i school of thought While for the most part the approach has been successful there have been times when the implementation of the law has raised concerns as to the compatibility of Islamic law with modern principles of human rights and common law based values Third there have been cases where Islamic law implementation in Malaysia has gained global attention due to the potential for wider international implications To do justice to this complex area the book calls on scholars and practitioners who have the necessary expertise in Islamic law and its implementation As such this book provides lessons and direction for other countries that operate a dual system of secular and Islamic laws Historical Imagination and Cultural Responses to Colonialism and Nationalism Azhar

Ibrahim, 2022-12-06 The basis of our historical imagination is the intellectual s or historian s critical thinking and their solidarity with the people with their destiny and predicament with the consistent aim of emancipating and liberating the subjugated the oppressed and the marginalised History conditions the way that society discusses its problems Treating history as a form of imagination Azhar Ibrahim invites readers to probe the colonialist and nationalist tampering suppression and distortion of narratives on the Malays In this thought provoking book the author encourages contemporary historians to move beyond the practice of Orientalist scholars collecting data and describing facts Instead he promotes an alternative reading of history one that departs from mainstream versions Reflecting a strong understanding of classical Malay texts the author also touches on broad themes such as psychological feudalism orientalism and the contestation of nationalist and colonialist perspectives on the community Azhar s book is a welcomed contribution and a must read for those interested in alternative discourses in Malay Studies International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research This handbook includes state of the art research on love in classical modern and postmodern perspectives It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural intercultural and transcultural approaches and across disciplines It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love agape and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation globalisation and the fourth industrial revolution The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love aging health special needs sexual preferences spiritual practice subcultures family and other relationships and so on The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also for example be referred to in postmodern workplaces This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers practitioners and students of the social sciences humanities and behavioural sciences In the 1970s through the 90s I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture This volume as risky and profound as the many adventures of love across our multiplying cultures are proves otherwise The authors revolutionary and courageous work will challenge our sensibilities and expand the boundaries of what we understand what love is But that's what love does It communicates what it offers what can be and pleads for what must be I know you'll enjoy this wonderful book as much as I do Jeffrey Ady Associate Professor retired Public Administration Program University of Hawaii at Manoa Founding Fellow International Academy for Intercultural Research The International Handbook of Love is far more than a traditional compendium It is a breath taking attempt to synthesize our anthropological and sociological knowledge on love It illuminates topics as diverse as Chinese love one night stands teen romance or love of leaders and many more This is a definitive reference in the field of love studies Eva Illouz author of The End of Love A sociology of Negative relationships Oxford University Press This is not a volume to be read in a single sitting though I almost did due to a protracted hospital stay nor is it romantic or inspirational reading though in some cases I had hoped for more narrative examples and case studies Rather it is a highly diverse scholarly effort a massive resource collection of research papers on love in a variety of contexts personal and professional settings and cultures The work is well referenced providing a large number of resources for deeper exploration We owe our thanks to the authors and editors of this handbook for work well done though that word in the title should not lead readers to suspect that enlightening as it is this book is a vade mecum or practical tour guide that provides ready solutions to the vicissitudes and challenges of our love lives Reviewed by Dr George F Simons on amazon.com Please see Claude H I ne Mayer's interview related to the handbook in LeanHealth Talks published by Bernadette Bruckner <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yVNXA9sWuWo> Please see Claude H I ne Mayer's interview related to the handbook published in Iran News Daily <https://newspaper.irandaily.ir/nid/6941/pid/6/type/0> Mahathir, the Secret of the Malaysian Success Hajrudin Somun, 2003 The Socio-cultural Change of Brunei Malays Ramlee Haji Tinkong (Haji.), 2009 Critical Perspectives on Muhammad Haji Salleh Zawiah Yahya, 2003 Pak Lah Ismail Noor, Elina Noor, 2003 Peradaban dan perkauman di Malaysia: hubungan etnik Melayu-Cina (Penerbit UM) Wan Norhasniah Wan
