Man Buys Dog David Matthews,2006-04-13 David Matthews author of the critically acclaimed LOOKING FOR A FIGHT needed a fresh challenge after he had recovered from being a professional boxer Drawn to the slightly shady appeal of greyhound racing and not averse to making some easy money he decided to learn the tricks of the trade from the inside and buy a greyhound Unfortunately Zussies Boy aka Kevin turned out to be something of a dud and

Matthews soon found out the hard way that in the world of greyhound racing there is only one winner the hare THE MAN WHO KNEW EDGAR WALLACE,1918 The Man You'll Marry Debbie Macomber,2010-01-01 The wedding dress was made many years ago and it came with a promise The First Man You Meet Shelly Hansen was horrified when her great aunt s wedding dress arrived because according to family legend she was destined to marry the next man she met So when she tripped on an escalator and fell into Mark Brady s arms she told him and herself that she wasn t interested in marriage But then she started seeing him everywhere Coincidence is The Man You ll Marry After her own wedding Shelly sends her best friend Jill Morrison the dress which is delivered to Jill s hotel in Hawaii But at least the man she sat beside on the plane gorgeous grouch Jordan Wilcox can t be the man in question can he She met him before she got the dress A Lucky Man Jamel Brinkley,2018-05-01 FINALIST FOR THE NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FOR FICTION In the nine expansive searching stories of A Lucky Man fathers and sons attempt to salvage relationships with friends and family members and confront mistakes made in the past An imaginative young boy from the Bronx goes swimming with his group from day camp at a backyard pool in the suburbs and faces the effects of power and privilege in ways he can barely grasp A teen intent on proving himself a man through the all night revel of J Ouvert can t help but look out for his impressionable younger brother A pair of college boys on the prowl follow two girls home from a party and have to own the uncomfortable truth of their desires And at a capoeira conference two brothers grapple with how to tell the story of their family caught in the dance of their painful fractured history Jamel Brinkley s stories in a debut that announces the arrival of a significant new voice reflect the tenderness and vulnerability of black men and boys whose hopes sometimes betray them especially in a world shaped by race gender and class where luck may be the greatest fiction of all The Washing Machine Man's Travels Andrew Lindsay,2005 Young Thoughts of a Man John Clegg,2025-01-16 The book opens with early 1950 s life as viewed through the eyes of a child up until the age of seven when out flow the memories of growing up in Ludlow South Shropshire in the late1950 s early 1960 s capturing a mode of existence now lost in the mists of time In the two main streets featured only one house had a phone prior to the late 50 s only one had a TV set laundry was done in sink or boiler before being wrung through a mangle most family vegetables were grown in the back garden there was no central heating the only take away was the downtown chip shop over half a mile away the nearest thing to an off licence was a service hatch at the local there were two main grocery stores but no supermarkets no domestic refrigerators plastic in the shape of buckets bowls and bags had yet to make an impact most mothers wore corsets and most men didn t use deodorant The small market town of approximately 6 000 souls boasted twenty eight pubs but Chinese and Indian restaurants were as yet unheard of There were two cinemas seven butchers four bakeries and two newsagents but no hint of titillation along the top shelves for shudder the thought even the sexual mysteries of life were rarely explained Compared to today things were certainly Spartan but underlying all was a sense of immense fun as the locals forged a fresh start emerging victorious from the Second World War

The food had far more flavour beer was the equivalent of less than half the price of a pint today the Sunday joint was succulent and would last well into the following week there was no real need to lock house doors children invented their own games roaming far and wide without their parents fretting the family doctor would visit for something serious but for the usual round of colds flu mumps measles or chicken pox mothers took care of things Play clothes were often hand me downs courtesy of family and friends and if a neighbour needed help it was soon forthcoming Very few owned cars making the family bike essential and with money being tight holidays were often taken by staying with relatives Amongst all this was a small gang of lads playing out the parts of their sporting and movie heroes inventing games of dare exploring as far as their legs would take them building camps in trees and hedgerows and often puzzling over the mysteries of a sexual nature Much of the humour is contained in the fact they considered themselves far more grown up and in control than they actually were leading to many glorious failures This book is a tribute to those I shared those escapades with for we literally had the time of our lives and yes I've published other works but It has taken years to come up with a style that hopefully captures the fun and innocence of those days Basically this is the book I've always wanted to write
