Matisse on Art, Revised Edition Henri Matisse, 1995-07-24 Ed Brooklyn College and City University of New York
Revised edition Includes new texts introduction biography overview Matisse Jack Flam, 1986 Matisse, the Man and His Art, 1869-1918 Jack D. Flam, 1986 Weaves together interpretations of Matisse's art with the events of the artist's life tracing the development of the great painter's style and explaining how many masterpieces were created Matisse Jack D. Flam, Henri Matisse, 1986 Alfred H. Barr, Jr. and the Intellectual Origins of the Museum of Modern Art Sybil Kantor, 2003-08-29 An intellectual biography of Alfred H. Barr Jr. founding director of the Museum of Modern Art Growing up with the twentieth century Alfred Barr 1902-1981 founding director of the Museum of Modern Art harnessed the cataclysm that was modernism In this book part intellectual biography part institutional history Sybil Gordon Kantor tells the story of the rise of modern art in America and of the man responsible for its triumph Following the trajectory of Barr's career from the 1920s through the 1940s Kantor penetrates the myths both positive and negative that surround Barr and his achievements Barr fervently believed in an aesthetic based on the intrinsic traits of a work of art and the materials and techniques involved in its creation Kantor shows how this formalist approach was expressed in the organizational structure of the multidepartmental museum itself whose collections exhibitions and publications all expressed Barr's vision At the same time she shows how Barr's ability to reconcile classical objectivity and mythic irrationality allowed him to perceive modernism as an open ended phenomenon that expanded beyond purist abstract modernism to include surrealist nationalist realist and expressionist art Drawing on interviews with Barr's contemporaries as well as on Barr's extensive correspondence Kantor also paints vivid portraits of among others Jere Abbott Katherine Dreier Henry Russell Hitchcock Philip Johnson Lincoln Kirstein Agnes Mongan J. B. Neumann and Paul Sachs Hilary Spurling, 2001 From his beginnings as the son of shopkeepers in Flanders through his impoverished days as a student Spurling traces Matisse's life through his 30s in this thorough and riveting biography 35 color 152 b/w illustrations Matisse's Poets Kathryn Brown, 2017-09-21 Throughout his career Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse's position in the literary cross currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist's work in a range of media This study argues that the livre d'artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter print maker and reader in the field of book production this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art's capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse's self placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath Through a combination of archival resources art history and literary criticism this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse's artist's books and will be of interest to art historians literary scholars and researchers in book history and modernism Feminism and Contemporary Art Jo Anna Isaak, 2002-09-11 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

The Nabis and Intimate Modernism Katherine M. Kuenzli, 2017-07-05 Providing a fresh perspective on an important but underappreciated group of late nineteenth century French painters this is the first book to provide an in depth account of the Nabis practice of the decorative and its significance for twentieth century modernism Over the course of the ten years that define the Nabi movement 1890 1900 its principal artists included Edouard Vuillard Pierre Bonnard Maurice Denis Paul Signac and Paul Ranson The author reconstructs the Nabis relationship to Impressionism mass culture literary Symbolism Art Nouveau Wagnerianism and a revolutionary artistic tradition in order to show how their painterly practice emerges out of the pressing questions defining modernism around 1900 She shows that the Nabis were engaged nonetheless with issues that are always at stake in accounts of nineteenth century modernist painting issues such as the relationship of high and low art of individual sensibility and collective identity of the public and private spheres The Nabis and Intimate Modernism is a rigorous study of the intellectual and artistic endeavors that inform the Nabis decorative domestic paintings in the 1890s and argues for their centrality to painterly modernism The book ends up not only re positioning the Nabis to occupy a crucial place in modernism s development from 1860 to 1914 but also challenges that narrative to place more emphasis on notions of decoration totality and interiority The Sunflowers are Mine Martin Bailey,2024-10-17 This is the story of one of the world s most iconic images Martin Bailey explains why Van Gogh painted a series of sunflower still lifes in Provence He then explores the subsequent adventures of the seven pictures and their influence on modern art Through the Sunflowers we gain fresh insights into Van Gogh s life and his path to fame Based on original research the book is packed with discoveries throwing new light on the legendary artist

The Books that Shaped Art History: From Gombrich and Greenberg to Alpers and Krauss Richard Shone,John-Paul Stonard,2013-04-05 An exemplary survey that reassesses the impact of the most important books to have shaped art history through the twentieth century Written by some of today s leading art historians and curators this new collection provides an invaluable road map of the field by comparing and reexamining canonical works of art history From mile M le s magisterial study of thirteenth century French art first published in 1898 to Hans Belting s provocative Likeness and Presence A History of the Image before the Era of Art the book provides a concise and insightful overview of the history of art told through its most enduring literature Each of the essays looks at the impact of a single major book of art history mapping the intellectual development of the writer under review setting out the premises and argument of the book considering its position within the broader field of art history and analyzing its significance in the context of both its initial reception and its afterlife An introduction by John Paul Stonard explores how art history has been forged by outstanding contributions to scholarship and by the dialogues and ruptures between them

Visions of the Modern John Golding,1994-01-01 John Golding brings to his writing the sure eye and profound sensitivity of a practicing artist Perhaps best known for his seminal history of Cubism Golding has long been regarded as one of the most outstanding art historians and critics of our time This volume brings together many of his most important essays and its publication will be celebrated not only by his admirers but by lovers of art and language everywhere Visions of The Modern covers a vast range of twentieth century art from Matisse and Cubism Dada and Surrealism to aspects of postwar American art Some essays have been out of print while others have appeared in periodicals not easily accessible to the average reader Taken together they establish a sustained deeply informed account of many of the grandest moments in the art of this century A much admired painter Golding s unique balance of eye and mind infuses his exceedingly literate criticism Combining a meticulousness in matters of fact with a capacity to write in a lucid jargon free manner he addresses equally the sophisticated art historian the cultural historian and the general reader An appendix to the volume is in the form of a dialogue between Golding and the philosopher Richard Wollheim It provides additional insights into the origins and aims of abstract art as well as revealing the mind of an invigorating artist at work      Matisse Portraits John Klein, Henri Matisse, 2001-01-01 An account of Henri Matisse's activity as a maker of portraits and self portraits The author considers the transaction that produces a portrait a transaction between the artist and the sitter that is social as much as artistic and investigates the social contexts of Matisse's sitters
