Matt Bugs Me:

Matt Bugs Me Douglas DeVries, 2005-06-01 Tuck Tuck Tuck Matt Court yelled at me as I plummeted out of control down the hill Watch out I screamed Matt sidestepped out of the way and I rocketed past him I piled up in a jumbled mess of snow skis and me The trails and hills of Echo Hollow had never seemed so steep when they weren't snow covered Reggie I thought you told me you knew how to ski Matt said as he helped me to my feet and brushed the snow off my back Skiing I know I replied angrily I thought you were my friend I thought I could trust you Instead you lead me over a cliff Those words are the beginning of one Matt and Reggie story All 18 stories include Matt and Reggie as main characters The stories were first published in Crusader magazine since renamed Cadet Quest in the late 1990's All the stories were written to themes to help boys in church Cadet Clubs grow in their Christian lives The stories are in three sets of six with each set following a sequence of related activities Matt Bugs Me told from Reggie's viewpoint relates how he became a Christian Kiwi Pen Pal from Matt's viewpoint tells of his witness to his New Zealand friend Brother Ervin tells how Reggie's family adopts a foster child

Clinical Practice with Families Michael Rothery, George Enns, 2014-01-21 Encourage creative change in troubled families Clinical Practice with Families Supporting Creativity and Competence presents the most important and useful contemporary ideas in family therapy from many diverse traditions By organizing eclectic concepts within one basic powerful framework it makes these ideas more accessible and effective in practice Instead of exploring these ideas in the abstract Clinical Practice with Families illustrates them with in depth case examples that include detailed studies of the client family's history and traditions extensive analyses of the family system and actual dialogue from sessions along with the therapist's comments on shifting alliances and other unspoken occurrences No other technique could better demonstrate the practical integration of therapeutic skills and concepts to meet the client's needs Clinical Practice with Families offers insight and ideas for practicing family therapists in such essential areas as negotiating flexible appropriate boundaries between family members and between yourself and your clients constructing ecomaps of a client's support systems and stressors identifying four kinds of supports helping the client reinterpret family traditions enabling clients to break the pattern of old narratives encouraging clients to set realistic achievable goals Clinical Practice with Families offers a powerful set of techniques and ideas in a clear understandable framework Illustrated with helpful charts and figures it offers senior students and practicing family therapists an opportunity to take a structured approach to contemporary theory and understand its implications for practice

Lightning Bug Summer Tammy Tucker, 2025-04-24 Eleven year old Floral Battle always looks forward to the family's annual summer vacation to visit her mom's parents in Marietta Georgia It's usually two weeks in length but this year it's only one and Floral knows it's just not enough She can't imagine how she'll spend the summer and doesn't see camp as an option She wants an epic summer Her mom often says Use your critical thinking skills That's exactly what Floral does She concocts a strategy to convince her parents to let her spend the summer alone with her grandparents If she's successful her summer might be filled with evenings sitting inside her grandparents screened back porch watching the lightening bugs flicker while hearing the cicadas sing But the likelihood of a normal summer is slim her grandparents diner has a history of being linked to unusual events It's Mayhem N.
