

The image is a composite. The top half shows a city skyline, likely New York City, with various skyscrapers silhouetted against a dramatic, orange and yellow sunset sky. The bottom half shows a large crowd of people walking away from the viewer on a wooden pier or boardwalk that extends into a body of water. The overall mood is contemplative and urban.

A matter of judgment is one with some uncertainty about the answer and where we allow for the possibility that reasonable and competent people might disagree.

Kant and the Capacity to Judge Béatrice Longuenesse,1998 The result is a systematic persuasive new interpretation of the Critique of Pure Reason Kant and the Philosophy of Mind Anil Gomes,Andrew Stephenson,2017-06-30 The essays in this volume explore those aspects of Kant's writings which concern issues in the philosophy of mind These issues are central to any understanding of Kant's critical philosophy and they bear upon contemporary discussions in the philosophy of mind Fourteen specially written essays address such questions as What role does mental processing play in Kant's account of intuition What kinds of empirical models can be given of these operations In what sense and in what ways are intuitions object dependent How should we understand the nature of the imagination What is inner sense and what does it mean to say that time is the form of inner sense Can we cognize ourselves through inner sense How do we self ascribe our beliefs and what role does self consciousness play in our judgments Is the will involved in judging What kind of knowledge can we have of the self And what kind of knowledge of the self does Kant proscribe These essays showcase the depth of Kant's writings in the philosophy of mind and the centrality of those writings to his wider philosophical project Moreover they show the continued relevance of Kant's writings to contemporary debates about the nature of mind and self Hidden In Plain Sight: A Study of the Revelation to John Uchenna Mezue,2015-10-03 The Revelation to John has been with us for about 2000 years and has been the subject of diverse attempts at interpretation The Revelation as given is a vision of the end time work of the Son of Man and the sole purpose is to prepare humanity for that mission and offer them the chance to recognise the last Envoy of God when He does come It is only with this understanding in view that the Revelation can be appreciated All the promised messages for the end time are now available to us and I believe we are in a better position to understand the message of The Revelation Indeed I believe that we urgently need to understand its message The urge and pressure amongst all striving human spirits to unravel the mysteries of The Revelation represents this need This study is not a substitute for The Revelation but may be regarded as a call for a deeper study and hopefully an awakening to the need to experience the times in a more alert manner The work is offered in the recognition that the Revelation is being fulfilled in this epoch and as such is a must read for all striving human spirits Inquiry Into the Matter of Billy Carter and Libya United States.

Consciousness and Matter Kirill Kopeikin,Alexei V. Nesteruk,2024-03-21 This volume represents a collective effort to advance research on the perennial problem of matter and consciousness body and mind It contains contributions from the fields of philosophy psychology physiology cosmology and physics However its distinctive emphasis is on the key role of theology The modern natural sciences historically arose as an attempt to read the second book of God that is the book of Nature The contributors to this volume maintain that this orientation of early modern science was correct and that our contemporary understanding of matter and its link with the psychic world can only be plausibly advanced through an appeal to theology Attempts to resolve the problem of consciousness without theological insights yield problematic reductions of mind to matter or vice versa The authors maintain that a Christian theological understanding of creation and of humanity provides a framework for a more fruitful way forward in our interdisciplinary attempts to engage the issue

Problems of Mind and Matter John Wisdom,1970 Professor Wisdom gives an elementary introduction to the applications in philosophy of the analytical method He believes that the aim of analysis is clarity whereas the aim of speculative philosophy is truth After a brief introduction on what analysis is he discusses the relation of body and mind and seeks for causal relations between mental and material events He concludes this section with a chapter on Free will before turning to perception and the external world

A Matter of Dispute Christopher J. Peters,2011-01-19 Law often purports to require people including government officials to act in ways they think are morally wrong or harmful What is it about law that can justify such a claim In A Matter of Dispute Morality Democracy and Law Christopher J Peters offers an answer to this question one that illuminates the unique appeal of democratic government the peculiar structure of adversary adjudication and the contested legitimacy of constitutional judicial review Peters contends that law should be viewed primarily as a device for avoiding or resolving disputes a function that implies certain core properties of authoritative legal procedures Those properties competence and impartiality give democracy its advantage over other forms of government They also underwrite the adversary nature of common law adjudication and the duties and constraints of democratic judges And they ground a defense of constitutionalism and judicial review against persistent objections that those practices are counter majoritarian and thus nondemocratic This work canvasses fundamental problems within the diverse disciplines of legal philosophy democratic theory philosophy of adjudication and public law theory and suggests a unified approach to unraveling them It also addresses practical questions of law and government in a way that should appeal to anyone interested in the complex and often troubled relationship among morality democracy and the rule of law Written for specialists and non specialists alike A Matter of Dispute explains why each of us individually and all of us collectively have reason to obey the law why democracy truly is a system of government under law

Participation in Crime Falling within the Subject-Matter Jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court Aleksandra Nieprzecka, 2024-06-18 This book centres on the forms of participation in crime set out in the Rome Statute but it is definitely not a simple repetition or summary of the views expressed in the ICC case law Instead the work critically elaborates on the ICC practice and presents a theoretical and dogmatic description of modes of criminal responsibility that might be found in the Statute The element of novelty is however brought about by the methodology which encompasses a normative analysis based on the distinction between the categories of sanctioned and sanctioning norms initially introduced by K Binding in the German doctrine but for the purposes of this book adjusted to the structure of international core crimes and reconciling them with the grounds for criminal responsibility as such Moreover the work does not avoid bold assertions concerning the norms of participation in crime concerning inter alia the concept of spectator or public approval and or direct incitement to genocide This approach should be of particular interest to those who are under the impression that international criminal law is entangled in a multiplicity of labels and the judicial practice sometimes adopts the same requirements without any further thought or analysis The book aims to trigger a broader debate on the merits and rationale of participation in crime and encourages readers to rethink some of the concepts developed within judicial practice The work also takes into consideration the ICC case law in particular some tendencies that might be inferred from the separate and concurring opinions in the Ntaganda case All in all it endeavours to reflect on the content of Article 25 3 and 28 of the Rome Statute and provide an answer on how ICC practice might and perhaps should evolve further Aleksandra Nieprzecka Ph D is a member of the Polish Bar Association in Krak w and worked as a principal researcher in the project concerning the model of participation in crime adopted in the Rome Statute carried out at the Jagiellonian University in Krak w where she finished her doctoral studies according to the co tutelle agreement between the Jagiellonian University in Krak w and the University of Hamburg
