Edward Mendelson, 2008-11-26 She felt rather inclined just for a moment to stand still after all that chatter and pick out one particular thing the thing that mattered Virginia Woolf To The Lighthouse An illuminating exploration of how seven of the greatest English novels of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Frankenstein Wuthering Heights Jane Eyre Middlemarch Mrs Dalloway To the Lighthouse and Between the Acts portray the essential experiences of life Edward Mendelson a professor of English at Columbia University illustrates how each novel is a living portrait of the human condition while expressing its author's complex individuality and intentions and emerging from the author's life and times He explores Frankenstein as a searing representation of child neglect and abandonment and Mrs Dalloway as a portrait of an ideal but almost impossible adult love and leads us to a fresh and fascinating new understanding of each of the seven novels reminding us in the most captivating way why they matter Mama, You Still Matter Laura Heflin, 2021-04-27 Motherhood the hardest most rewarding job on the planet that grows us teaches us stretches us and fills our heart with more love than we could ever imagine But what happens when we burn out What happens when we lose our steam and feel as we have lost the woman we once were What do we do when we feel as if we have nothing left to give The answer is simple We must stop putting ourselves last We must remember that in order to love others and be the best mama we can possibly be we must first nurture our mind body and soul and let go of the guilt that surrounds us We must confidently look in the mirror daily and remind In the Matter of Representative John W.
