of its raw austerity can keep me loyal and accountable to God's gift of amazing grace in his only begotten Son Jesus Christ. His cross is my cross and it is your cross. Only the preaching of the cross of Jesus Christ can keep the miracle of redemption alive. Our identity with the death, burial, and resurrection of the LORD Jesus Christ is what makes us different. We are the continuity of the love of God in Christ extended to the worst of humanity, truly a love not of the world. A Christian is one who lives to perpetuate this love of God in the earth. Conversely, what this book calls mainstream Christianity in America fundamentally lives for themselves. Someone must say so. Someone must tell contemporary worldly, conciliatory, and carnally compromised Christianity that God is a Holy Spirit whom the LORD Jesus Christ emphatically said the world cannot receive, see John 14:17. In this age of all permissive grace, a Christian is identified by their living according to the truth of God's comprehensive Word and by a marked separation from this world system. If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him, see 1 John 2:15. Indeed, and as this book without apology declares, the love of the Father is Christ.
