Mothers In Art:

Cassatt Judith A. Barter, Sue Roe, 2019-10-01 This monograph of American artist Mary Cassatt's work celebrates fifty stunning portraits of mothers with their children in everyday life. Mary Cassatt's tender and profound paintings redefined portraiture and broke down barriers for women in art both as artists and as subjects. This collection focuses on Cassatt's insightful portrayal of women and children living their everyday lives. Fifty magnificent images cover the scope of Cassatt's work from her early interest in Japanese woodblocks all the way to her exploration of Modernist techniques. Two essays contextualize her as a pioneering female artist and as the American face of Impressionist painting. Captures the love between mothers and children. A luminous, robust and timely celebration of an artist with a unique legacy. Fans of The Private Lives of the Impressionists in Montmartre and Mary Cassatt: An American Impressionist in Paris will love this book. Mothers in Art Jude Welton, Julia Brown, 1994-01-01 Reconciling Art and Mothering Rachel Epp Buller, 2017-07-05 Reconciling Art and Mothering contributes a chorus of new voices to the burgeoning body of scholarship on art and the maternal and for the first time focuses exclusively on maternal representations and experiences within visual art throughout the world. This innovative essay collection joins the voices of practicing artists with those of art historians acknowledging the fluidity of those categories. The twenty-five essays of Reconciling Art and Mothering are grouped into two sections: the first written by art historians and the second by artists. Art historians reflect on the work of artists addressing motherhood including Marguerite G. Chana Orloff and Ren Cox from the early nineteenth century to the present day. Contributions by contemporary artist mothers such as Gail Rebhan, Denise Ferris and Myrel Chernick point to the influence of past generations of artist mothers to the inspiration found in the work of maternally minded literary and cultural theorists and to attempts to broaden definitions of maternity. Working against a hegemonic construction of motherhood, the contributors discuss complex and diverse feminist mothering experiences from maternal ambivalence to queer mothering to quests for self-fulfillment. The essays address mothering experiences around the globe with contributors hailing from North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia. The Art of Motherhood Marta Alvarez González, 2010 Presents a collection of over two hundred artworks from the ancient world up to the present which are paired with quotations from a diversity of writers celebrating mothers and motherhood. The Motherhood of Art Marissa Huber, Heather Kirtland, 2020-04-28 Like brunch with girlfriends provides encouragement and tips for balancing family life and your creative work. Features 30 artistic mothers in varied circumstances who share creative ways of balancing family life.
