Aging in East and West Dr. Vern L. Bengtson, PhD, Kyong-Dong Kim, PhD, George Myers, PhD, Ki-Soo Eun, PhD, 2000-09-20 Widely recognized experts present the first comparative analysis of recent developments among six Eastern and Western nations concerning population aging and its consequences Chapters focus on demographic trends sociocultural contexts and policy implications Nations selected as case studies include the People's Republic of China the Republic of Korea Japan Germany the United Kingdom and the United States The editors and contributors call attention to the varied trajectories and effects of population aging in culturally diverse societies that are often at different stages or on different paths of economic development Such analyses bring into sharper focus those conditions that are unique or similar and emphasize the ways in which cultural stereotypes of aging and the elderly complicate our understanding of the effects of world wide population aging

Karl Pearson Theodore M. Porter, 2004 Theodore Porter's portrait of Pearson extends from religious crisis and sexual tensions to metaphysical and even mathematical anxieties Pearson sought to reconcile reason with enthusiasm and to achieve the impersonal perspective of science without sacrificing complex individuality Even as he longed to experience nature directly and intimately he identified science with renunciation and positivistic detachment Porter finds a turning point in Pearson's career where his humanistic interests gave way to statistical ones in his Grammar of Science 1892 in which he attempted to establish scientific method as the moral educational basis for a refashioned culture BOOK JACKET

The Ober-Ammergau passion play Malcolm MacColl,1880

The Trove of the Passion Room Marcia Lynn McClure,2011-08 Sharlamagne Dickens cherished her family was intrigued by the past adored antiques and enjoyed working at the antique store owned by her parents Her life like most had been touched by tragedy and loss yet she was happy Though her life was not void of romance it was void of a certain emotional passion Still she was young and assumed that one day some man might manage to sweep her off her feet Sharlamagne did not expect to be entirely bowled over however And the day she first set eyes on

Maxim Tanner she was Elisaveta Tanner's grandson Maxim was the dreamiest most attractive archetypal male Sharlamagne and her sister Gwen had ever seen Tall dark and illegally handsome Maxim Tanner possessed not only fabulous looks money and the sweetest grandmother in the world but also a fair amount of local fame He was gorgeous clever and pathetically out of reach for any average girl And so Sharlamagne went about her life happy and satisfied for she had no idea what sort of emotional intensity the right man could inflame in her She had no conception of how an age old mystery and one man could converge to unleash a passion so powerful that it would be either the greatest gift she had ever known or her final undoing

Pondering the Passion Philip A. Cunningham,2004-10-22 This collection is must reading for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of Christ's Passion

Policy and Passion Rosa Praed,2021-11-09 In Policy and Passion Rosa Praed intricately weaves a narrative that explores the intermingling of personal desires and the constraints of social duty Set against the backdrop of late 19th century Australia the novel navigates the complexities of love ambition and societal expectation through its richly drawn characters Praed's literary style melds vivid descriptions with a keen psychological insight presenting emotional depth and an acute awareness of the societal norms that shape the inner lives of her protagonists With a focus on themes of gender and class the work enhances the understanding of the period's cultural dynamics making it a significant contribution to the realm of feminist literature and colonial narratives Rosa Praed 1851-1935 a prominent novelist and socialite had first hand experience with the cultural shifts of her time having lived between Australia and England Her diverse background and her position within influential social circles undoubtedly informed the themes and characters of Policy and Passion Praed's exploration of the constraints placed on women mirrors her own life experiences providing a lens through which readers can empathize with her characters' struggles against societal limitations For readers interested in the intersection of personal agency and social obligations Policy and Passion is a compelling exploration of the human condition Praed's adept storytelling invites readers into a world where passion clashes with policy offering not only a historical perspective but also timeless insights into the human experience This novel is essential for anyone seeking to understand the nuances of love and duty within the context of societal expectations

Portraits of Passion Praveen Kumar,2017-01-28 What the poet sings here is true of his life He is open for the temptations of both the passion and the reason When they act together we find the person at his best in life with the strengths of purpose and will we find the poet at his best in poetry with sweet ironies spliced with the power of language when The wind of passion and the barriers of reason pull apart from sides Thus the author gained from both his strength and weakness Poetry to this poet is an integrated expression of personality His conception of poetry is beautifully expressed in the following stanza in the poem Poetry You the gentle queen on inspiration's throne In splendours of words rhythms colours Musics and passions in unending layers Come sit on heart build bridges to the mind Bring light to the eyes to choose a carriage To carry your muse to gentle souls It is significant of this poet that the utility of poetry for him lies in carrying her muse to gentle souls He is deeply subjective and inward looking in nature This subjective and inward looking tendency makes him a proud and self assured individual Read following lines in the poem The Path of Life Whatever may come whatever may go Whatever on the path is in store as fate I must walk as always I am Proud of self and diligent of walk I tread the path that comes in front Whatever at back bears my print Whatever in front conforms to inner strength The poet has tried to portray the widening gulf betwixt rich and poor in the poem Humanity wherein an image of poverty is laid in following lines A hapless mother Offers her to greed To save her child from the hunger s death No roof to hide no cloth to cover No fire in heart to save honour Dirt and filth sickness everywhere Dirt and filth sickness everywhere The sufferings of the people touch the poet while writing about Bangladesh cyclone in the poem Bangladesh Cyclone he describes how a famished man appears after the devastation God forsaken man sits in the middle And knows not whether he is dead or alive Portraits of Passion is primarily a portrait of passion passion in its varied and verdant forms and hues passion for life passion of love and passion to know the world around The collection has a few love portraits in both meeting and parting frames of mind Read following lines of the poem That Day She held the portrait close to her heart And drank his form to the brim of eyes What a gentle shine what contentment Her eyes spread in expression of her heart What depth it had what immortal warmth That he felt at loss to pierce far enow Parting is the more intense form of love The foretaste of the impending separation how withers souls and brings them closer in the milieu of climacteric gloom and silence is portrayed in the poem Gulf of Life and Death Face to face they sat in silence No word to speak no shine in eyes Both blankly stared beyond each other No world to smile no light or sunshine They sought each other for hope and comfort In the eye of high tide of the time s drift There are a few poems on the nature in this fascicle Following three lines describe the full moon in motion in her full glory through the demi jour of the heaven in a mise en scene The golden queen in the stride of royal grace Ascended heaven with gold dusts splayed On the fading silk carpet of the thin sunshine The aureate beauty of the full moon day is painted in following lines The night is full with beauty s sweet contrasts Of peace and passions stillness and motion With shades and twilight fits of sensuous quietude A conflict of life and death and desperate waiting for something eerie and lovefull are lurking in many of the poet s writings and give his poems an arcane touch

Good Words ,1871 Walking with the Great Apes Sy Montgomery,2009-08-25 From the personal to the primate Sy Montgomery acclaimed author of The Soul of an Octopus and The Good Good Pig explores the science wisdom and living experience of three of the greatest scientists of the twentieth century Three astounding women scientists have in recent years penetrated the jungles of Africa and Borneo to observe nurture and defend humanity s closest cousins Jane Goodall has worked with the chimpanzees of Gombe for nearly 50 years Diane Fossey died in 1985 defending the mountain gorillas of Rwanda and Birut Galdikas lives in intimate proximity to the orangutans of Borneo All three began their work as protégés of the great Anglo African archeologist Louis Leakey and each spent years in the field allowing the apes to become their familiars and ultimately waging battles to save them from extinction in the wild Their combined accomplishments have been

mind blowing as Goodall Fossey and Galdikas forever changed how we think of our closest evolutionary relatives of ourselves and of how to conduct good science A Night at the Opera Sir Denis Forman, 2011-10-05 Delightful and anti reverential Sunday Times London With an encyclopedic knowledge of opera and a delightful dash of irreverence Sir Denis Forman throws open the world of opera its structure composers conductors and artists in this hugely informative guide A Night at the Opera dissects the eighty three most popular operas recorded on compact disc from Cilea s Adriana Lecouvreur to Mozart s Die Zauberflöte For each opera Sir Denis details the plot and cast of characters awarding stars to parts that are worth looking out for really good or occasionally stunning He goes on to tell the history of each opera and its early reception Finally each work is graded from alpha to gamma although the Ring cycle gets an X and Sir Denis has no qualms about voicing his opinion the first act of Fidelio is a bit of a mess while the last scene of Don Giovanni towers above the comic finales of Figaro and Cos and whether or not it is Mozart s greatest opera it is certainly his most powerful finale The guide also presents brief biographies of the great composers conductors and singers A glossary of musical terms is included as well as Operatica or the essential elements of opera from the proper place and style of the audience s applause and boos to the use of subtitles A Night at the Opera is for connoisseurs and neophytes alike It will entertain and inform delight and perhaps infuriate providing a subject for lively debate and ready reference for years to come
