Perspecta 47 James Andrachuk, Christos C. Bolos, Avi Forman, Marcus A. Hooks, 2014-08-22 Investigating money's ambiguous position in architecture with reflections on topics that range from the aesthetics of austerity to the underwriting of large scale art projects

Timing the Future Metropolis Peter

Ekman, 2024-11-15 Timing the Future Metropolis an intellectual history of planning urbanism design and social science explores the network of postwar institutions formed amid specters of urban crisis and renewal that set out to envision the future of the American city Peter Ekman focuses on one decisive node in the network the Joint Center for Urban Studies founded in 1959 by scholars at Harvard and MIT Through its sprawling programs of organized research its manifold connections to universities foundations publishers and policymakers and its years of consultation on the planning of a new city in Venezuela Ciudad Guayana the Joint Center became preoccupied with the question of how to conceptualize the urban future as an object of knowledge Timing the Future Metropolis ultimately compels a broader reflection on temporality in urban planning rethinking how we might imagine cities yet to come and the consequences of deciding not to The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume I Nikolina Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2022-10-28 For architecture and urban space to have relevance in the 21st Century we cannot merely reignite the approaches of thought and design that were operative in the last century This is despite or because of the nexus between politics and space often being theorized as a representation or by product of politics As a symbol or an effect the spatial dimension is depoliticized Consequently architecture and the urban are halted from fostering any systematic change as they are secondary to the event and therefore incapable of performing any political role This handbook explores how architecture and urban space can unsettle the unquestioned construct of the spatial politics of governing Considering both ongoing and unprecedented global problems from violence and urban warfare the refugee crisis borderization detention camps terrorist attacks to capitalist urbanization inequity social unrest and climate change this handbook provides a comprehensive and multidisciplinary research focused on the complex nexus of politics architecture and urban space Volume I starts by pointing out the need to explore the politics of spatialization to make sense of the operational nature of spatial oppression in contemporary times The operative and active political reading of space is disseminated through five thematics Violence and War Machines Security and Borders Race Identity and Ideology Spectacle and the Screen and Mapping Landscapes and Big Data This first volume of the handbook frames cutting edge contemporary debates and presents studies of actual theories and projects that address spatial politics This Handbook will be of interest to anyone seeking to meaningfully disrupt the reduction of space to an oppressive or neutral backdrop of political realities Chapters 1 and 23 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license Network Practices Anthony Burke, Therese Tierney, 2012-03-20 The twin revolutions of the global economy and omnipresent Internet connectivity have had a profound impact on architectural design Geographical gaps and in many cases architecture's tie to the built world itself have evaporated in the face of our new networked society Form is now conceptualized by architects engineers and artists as reflexive contingent and distributed The collected essays in Network Practices capture this unique moment in the evolution of design where crossing disciplines spatial interactions and design practices are all poised to be

reimagined With contributions by architects artists computer programmers and theorists and texts by Reinhold Martin Dagmar Richter Michael Speaks and others Network Practices offers an interdisciplinary analysis of how art science and architecture are responding to rapidly changing mobile wireless and information embedded environments Architecture and Capitalism Peggy Deamer, 2013-07-18 Architecture and Capitalism tells a story of the relationship between the economy and architectural design Eleven historians each discuss in brand new essays the time period they know best looking at cultural and economic issues which in light of current economic crises you will find have dealt with diverse but surprisingly familiar economic issues Told through case studies the narrative begins in the mid nineteenth century and ends with 2011 with introductions by Editor Peggy Deamer to pull the main themes together so that you can see how other architects in different times and in different countries have dealt with similar economic conditions By focussing on what previous architects experienced you have the opportunity to avoid repeating the past With new essays by Pier Vittorio Aureli Ellen Dunham Jones Keller Easterling Lauren Kogod Robert Hewison Joanna Merwood Salisbury Robin Schuldenfrei Deborah Gans Simon Sadler Nathan Rich and Micahel Sorkin The Greening of America's Building Codes Aleksandra Jaeschke, 2022-12-20 Environmental disasters and severe weather due to climate change both triggered by human actions have had an increasingly direct impact on our homes But the way in which America builds its homes is part of the problem This deeply researched history of sustainable design standards in building codes explores how public policy standard setting trade associations and financial incentives influence the ways in which the construction of our homes impacts the environment The Greening of America's Building Codes investigates the regulations and economic incentives meant to control the environmental impact of contemporary construction practices as it analyzes the history of residential building codes The book exposes how the socioeconomic and political forces that influenced early building code development continue to define the character of current building codes and by extension determine how we regulate environmental impact and define sustainability today More relevant than ever The Greening of America's Building Codes is a valuable tool for architects architecture students builders real estate developers and homeowners who want to understand how public policy and their own day to day decisions impact the environment Enduring Innocence Keller Easterling, 2007-09-28 How outlaw spatial products resorts information technology campuses retail chains golf courses and ports act as cunning pawns in global politics In Enduring Innocence Keller Easterling tells the stories of outlaw spatial products resorts information technology campuses retail chains golf courses ports and other hybrid spaces that exist outside normal constituencies and jurisdictions in difficult political situations around the world These spaces familiar commercial formulas of retail business and trade aspire to be worlds unto themselves self reflexive and innocent of politics But as Easterling shows in reality these enclaves can become political pawns and objects of contention Jurisdictionally ambiguous they are imbued with myths desires and symbolic capital Their hilarious and dangerous masquerades often mix quite easily with the cunning of political platforms Easterling argues that the study of such real estate cocktails provides vivid evidence of the market's weakness, resilience or violence. Enduring Innocence collects six stories of spatial products and their political predicaments: cruise ship tourism in North Korea, high tech agricultural formations in Spain which have reignited labor wars and piracy in the Mediterranean, hyperbolic forms of sovereignty in commercial and spiritual organizations shared by gurus and golf celebrities, automated global ports, microwave urbanism in South Asian IT enclaves and a global industry of building demolition that suggests urban warfare. These regimes of nonnational sovereignty writes Easterling move around the world like weather fronts; she focuses not on their blending, their global connectivity but on their segregation and the cultural collisions that ensue. Enduring Innocence resists the dream of one globally legible world found in many architectural discourses on globalization. Instead, Easterling's consideration of these segregated worlds provides new tools for practitioners sensitive to the political composition of urban landscapes.

After the World Trade Center Michael Sorkin, Sharon Zukin, 2013-09-05 The terrorist attacks of September 11 have created an unprecedented public discussion about the uses and meanings of the central area of lower Manhattan that was once the World Trade Center. While the city sifts through the debris, contrary forces shaping its future are at work. Developers jockey to control the right to rebuild ground zero. Financial firms line up for sweetheart deals while proposals for memorials are gaining in appeal. In After the World Trade Center, eminent social critics Sharon Zukin and Michael Sorkin call on New York's most acclaimed urbanists to consider the impact of the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center and what it bodes for the future of New York. Contributors take a close look at the reaction to the attack from a variety of New York communities and discuss possible effects on public life in the city. The Landscape Urbanism Reader Charles Waldheim, 2012-03-20 In The Landscape Urbanism Reader, Charles Waldheim, who is at the forefront of this new movement, has assembled the definitive collection of essays by many of the field's top practitioners. Fourteen essays written by leading figures across a range of disciplines and from around the world, including James Corner, Linda Pollak, Alan Berger, Pierre Bolanger, Julia Czerniak and more, capture the origins, the contemporary milieu and the aspirations of this relatively new field. The Landscape Urbanism Reader is an inspiring signal to the future of city making as well as an indispensable reference for students, teachers, architects and urban planners. Sensing the 21st-century City, 2005 Uncorporate Identity Daniel van der Velden, Marina Vishmidt, Metahaven, 2010 This book takes an imaginative approach to visual identity. Perspecta, 2003

Layered Urbanisms Gregg Pasquarelli, 2008 Layered Urbanisms presents critical discussions and illustrations of urban research and design analysis as carried out in advanced studios with young architects investigating ways to design new urban spaces for New York. Their Borders, Our World Mahdi Sabbagh, 2024-06-06 From the organizers of the Palestine Festival of Literature, this anthology of essays connects Palestinian resistance with global freedom struggles against settler colonialism and calls on us to think more concretely about the practice of solidarity. The Palestine Festival of Literature or PalFest was created in 2008 as a cultural initiative committed to the creation of language and ideas for combating colonialism in the 21st century The annual festival brings authors from around the world to convene with readers artists writers and activists in cities across Palestine for cross pollination of radical art ideas and literature These efforts resulted in Beyond Frontiers an anthology thoughtfully arranged and introduced by PalFest cocurator Mahdi Sabbagh Contributors include writers and scholars such as Tareq Baconi and Dina Omar architect Mabel O Wilson and filmmaker Omar Robert Hamilton among others each bringing their diverse intellectual and geographic backgrounds to the forefront Each piece grapples with the questions How do we confront the need to take inevitable and often difficult political stances How do we make sense of the destruction uprooting and pain that we witness And given our seemingly impossible reality how is mutuality constructed

The Landscape of Reform Ben A. Minter, 2006 In The Landscape of Reform Ben Minter offers a fresh and provocative reading of the intellectual foundations of American environmentalism focusing on the work and legacy of four important conservation and planning thinkers in the first half of the twentieth century Liberty Hyde Bailey a forgotten figure in the Progressive conservation movement urban and regional planning theorist Lewis Mumford Benton MacKaye the forester and conservationist who proposed the Appalachian Trail in the 1920s and Aldo Leopold author of the environmentalist classic A Sand County Almanac Minter argues that these writers blazed a significant third way in environmental ethics and practice a more pragmatic approach that offers a counterpoint to the anthropocentrism versus ecocentrism use versus preservation narrative that has long dominated discussions of the development of American environmental thought Minter shows that the environmentalism of Bailey Mumford MacKaye and Leopold was also part of a larger moral and political program one that included efforts to revitalize democratic citizenship conserve regional culture and community identity and reclaim a broader understanding of the public interest that went beyond economics and materialism Their environmental thought was an attempt to critique and at the same time reform American society and political culture Minter explores the work of these four environmental reformers and considers two present day manifestations of an environmental third way Natural Systems Agriculture an alternative to chemical and energy intensive industrial agriculture and New Urbanism an attempt to combat the negative effects of suburban sprawl By rediscovering the pragmatic roots of American environmentalism writes Minter we can help bring about a new civic minded environmentalism today

Urban Future Manifestos Peter Noever, Kimberli Meyer, 2010 Calls upon leading creative thinkers to address urgent questions about the future of the contemporary city Contributing architects artists designers and urban scholars from around the globe consider the city from a variety of positions and posit their unique and inspiring visions Page 4 of cover

The SAGE Handbook of the 21st Century City Suzanne Hall, Ricky Burdett, 2017-10-16 The SAGE Handbook of the 21st Century City focuses on the dynamics and disruptions of the contemporary city in relation to capricious processes of global urbanisation mutation and resistance An international range of scholars engage with emerging urban conditions and inequalities in experimental ways speaking to new ideas of what constitutes the urban highlighting empirical explorations and expanding on contributions to policy and design The handbook is organised around nine key themes through which familiar analytic categories of race gender and class as well as binaries such as the urban rural are readdressed These thematic sections together capture the volatile processes and intricacies of urbanisation that reveal the turbulent nature of our early twenty first century Hierarchy Elites and Evictions Productivity Over investment and Abandonment Authority Governance and Mobilisations Volatility Disruption and Adaptation Conflict Vulnerability and Insurgency Provisionality Infrastructure and Incrementalism Mobility Re bordering and De bordering Civility Contestation and Encounter Design Speculation and Imagination This is a provocative inter disciplinary handbook for all academics and researchers interested in contemporary urban studies

The Green Braid Kim Tanzer, Rafael Longoria, 2007-04-11 This volume presents the discipline s best thinking on sustainability in written drawn and built form drawing on over fifteen years of peer reviewed essays and national design awards published by the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture ACSA Providing a primer on sustainability useful to teachers and students alike the selected essays address a broad range of issues Combined with design projects that highlight issues holistically they promote an understanding of the principles of sustainability and further the integration of sustainable methods into architectural projects Using essays that alternately revise and clarify twentieth century architectural thinking The Green Braid places sustainability at the centre of excellent architectural design No other volume addresses sustainability within the context of architectural history theory pedagogy and design making this book an ideal source for architects in framing their practices and therefore their architectural production in a sustainable manner
