Organizing Against Crime Redeveloping The Neighborhood:

Organizing Against Crime Anthony Sorrentino, 1977 An account of the author's Chicago boyhood in the 1920s accompanies a description of his subsequent work in community organization to prevent juvenile delinquency

Neighborhood Planning Primer Urban Systems Research & Engineering, 1980 Crossing Borders Tapan Basu, Tasneem Shahnaaz, 2017-05-04 Crossing Borders is a gathering of twenty original interdisciplinary essays on the paradigm of borders in African American literature multi ethnic U S studies and South Asian studies These essays by established and mid career scholars from around the globe employ a variety of approaches to the idea of border crossings and represent important contributions to the discourses on modernity diasporic mobility populism migration exile sub nation trans nation as well as the formation of nationalities communities and identities Borders in these contexts signify social and national inequities and hierarchies and also the ways to challenge and transgress entrenched barriers sanctioned by habit custom and law The volume also honors and celebrates the life and work of Amritjit Singh as a teacher mentor author scholar and editor over half a century Social Change and Politics Morris Janowitz, Earlier ed published as The last half century societal change and politics in America Children Of The City David Nasaw, 2012-05-16 The turn of the twentieth century was a time of explosive growth for American cities a time of nascent hopes and apparently limitless possibilities In Children of the City David Nasaw re creates this period in our social history from the vantage point of the children who grew up then Drawing on hundreds of memoirs autobiographies oral histories and unpublished and until now unexamined primary source materials from cities across the country he provides us with a warm and eloquent portrait of these children their families their daily lives their fears and their dreams Illustrated with 68 photographs from the period many never before published Children of the City offers a vibrant portrait of a time when our cities and our grandparents were young Juvenile Delinquency: Arnold Binder, Gilbert Geis, Dickson D Bruce Jr., 2001-01-01 Juvenile Delinquency Juvenile Justice Preston Elrod, R. Scott Ryder, 2013-07 The juvenile justice system is a multifaceted entity that continually changes under the influence of decisions policies and laws The all new Fourth Edition of Juvenile Justice A Social Historical and Legal Perspective offers readers a clear and comprehensive look at exactly what it is and how it works Reader friendly and up to date this text unravels the complexities of the juvenile justice system by exploring the history theory and components of the juvenile justice process and how they relate Organized Crime in Chicago Robert M. Lombardo, 2012-12-30 This book provides a comprehensive sociological explanation for the emergence and continuation of organized crime in Chicago Tracing the roots of political corruption that afforded protection to gambling prostitution and other vice activity in Chicago and other large American cities Robert M Lombardo challenges the dominant belief that organized crime in America descended directly from the Sicilian Mafia According to this widespread alien conspiracy theory organized crime evolved in a linear fashion beginning with the Mafia in Sicily emerging in the form of the Black Hand in America's immigrant colonies and culminating in the development of the Cosa Nostra in America's urban centers Looking beyond this Mafia paradigm this volume argues that the development of organized crime in Chicago and other large American cities was rooted in the social structure of American society Specifically Lombardo ties organized crime to the emergence of machine politics in America's urban centers From nineteenth century vice syndicates to the modern day Outfit Chicago's criminal underworld could not have existed without the blessing of those who controlled municipal county and state government These practices were not imported from Sicily Lombardo contends but were bred in the socially disorganized slums of America where elected officials routinely franchised vice and crime in exchange for money and votes This book also traces the history of the African American community's participation in traditional organized crime in Chicago and offers new perspectives on the organizational structure of the Chicago Outfit the traditional organized crime group in Chicago

Crime and Its Victims Daniel W. Van Ness, 1986-03-21 Daniel W. Van Ness analyzes the problems that make our criminal justice system ineffective expensive and unjust And he offers a concrete proposal for reform to benefit both offenders and victims Foreword by Chuck Colson Juvenile Justice: A Social, Historical and Legal Perspective Preston Elrod, R. Scott Ryder, 2009-12-09 Pluralism and Progressives Rivka Shpak Lissak, 1989-11-09 The settlement house movement launched at the end of the nineteenth century by men and women of the upper middle class began as an attempt to understand and improve the social conditions of the working class It gradually came to focus on the new immigrants mainly Italians Slavs Greeks and Jews who figured so prominently in this changing working class Hull House one of the first and best known settlement houses in the United States was founded in September 1889 on Chicago's West Side by Jane Addams and Ellen G. Starr In a major new study of this famous institution and its place in the movement Rivka Shpak Lissak reassesses the impact of Hull House on the nationwide debate over the place of immigrants in American society

The Ecology of Prevention Robert E. Hess, 2014-06-03 This provocative volume offers an enlightening look at mental health consultation as a preventive service To enhance the prospects of consultation being preventive consultation is defined as an ecological enterprise Although attention is given to outcomes process is the key in this book This beneficial volume presents ten valuable principles to guide the work of a consultant plus case studies representing different topics self-esteem of high school students in rural Oregon child abuse prevention in a rural and urban setting in Iowa a junior high school consolidation in Maryland and preventive services for Lutheran congregations in Minnesota Each of the authors of the four case examples in their actual consultation and in their descriptions of their consultation have extended and elaborated what it means to think ecologically Following an unusual format the comments from the recipients of the interventions described in the case studies have been included as a reminder that prevention in its truest spirit involves partnerships that subjects or consultees have feelings and opinions about their participation and that subjective data are as important as objective data
