Oriana Fallaci The Rhetoric Of Freedom:

Oriana Fallaci John Gatt-Rutter,1996-10 Oriana Fallaci b 1930 is an awkward presence on Italian bookshelves in world journalism and among feminists This book the first literary study of Fallaci examines the implications of the storms and silences that she keeps rousing A fully emancipated and successful woman in the man s world of political journalism she has antagonised many feminists by her championship of motherhood and her idolization of heroic manhood In journalism her critics have felt that she has outraged the conventions of interviewing and reporting As a novelist she shatters the invisible diaphragm of literariness and is accused of betraying or simply failing literature This book focuses on Fallaci s direct engagement as a writer with major political and social issues such as women s liberation Vietnam Islamic fundamentalism and the space programme A distinctive and controversial feature of her writing is the way in which she blurs the interface between reportage and fiction in an attempt to obliterate the gap that separates the word from the world Oriana Fallaci Cristina De Stefano,2017-10-17 A landmark biography of the most famous Italian journalist of the twentieth century an inspiring and often controversial woman who defied the codes of reportage and established the La Fallaci style of interview Oriana Fallaci is known for her uncompromising vision To retrace Fallaci s life means to retrace the course of history from World War II to 9 11 As a child Fallaci enlisted herself in the Italian Resistance alongside her father Her hatred of fascism and authoritarian regimes would accompany her throughout her life Covering the entertainment industry early on in her career she created an original abrasive interview style focusing on her subject s emotions contradictions and facial expressions more than their words When she grew bored of interviewing movie stars and directors she turned her attention to the greatest international figures of the time Khomeini Gaddafi Indira Gandhi and Kissinger placing herself front and center in the story Reporting from the front lines of the world s greatest conflicts she provoked her own controversies wherever she was stationed leaving behind epic collateral damage in her wake Thanks to unprecedented access to personal records Cristina De Stefano brings back to life a remarkable woman whose groundbreaking work and torrid love affairs will not soon be forgotten Oriana Fallaci allows a new generation to discover her story and witness the passionate persistent journalism that we urgently need in these times of upheaval and uncertainty Oriana: A Novel Anastasia Rubis,2024-03-19 When a Hollywood producer comes to Oriana at the end of her life to propose a movie the story unfolds of her gutsy career rise as a journalist her tragic love and her greatest regret Oriana Fallaci was born a rebel She fought beside her father at age fourteen in Italy s Resistance against the Nazis and overcame poverty the lack of a university education and relentless sexism in the newsroom By 1973 when she moved to New York Oriana Fallaci was hailed by Newsweek as the greatest interviewer of her day She became famous for her courageous and hard hitting interviews with Kissinger Arafat Meir Khomeini and other world leaders not to mention the most prominent celebrities and artists of her day That same year 1973 she did what no journalist is supposed to do she fell in love with one of her subjects Alexander Panagoulis the Greek poet and hero She was

44 he was 34 they lived in different countries It didn't matter Oriana had finally found what she longed for a full life But can a woman ever have it all or does life always exact a price Oriana is the first novel about the glamorous and fearless Italian journalist whom Christiane Amanpour has called her role model for asking tough questions and who holds a place beside Mike Wallace and Barbara Walters when naming world class interviewers This biographical novel tells the story of one of the first women to break through the glass ceiling of journalism a woman who wasn't afraid to speak truth to power and who revolutionized her field all while trying to balance her career with love and happiness For readers who loved Hidden Figures and stories about women who succeed as women in realms traditionally reserved for men Italian Women's

Autobiographical Writings in the Twentieth Century Ursula Fanning, 2017-09-07 This book highlights the centrality of the autobiographical enterprise to Italian women's writing through the twentieth century a century that has frequently been referred to as the century of the self Ursula Fanning addresses the thorny issue of essentialism potentially involved in underlining links between women's writing and autobiographical modes and ultimately rejects it in favor of an argument based on the cultural linguistic and literary marginalization of women writers within the Italian context It is concerned with Italian women writers various ways of grappling with constructions of subjectivity throughout the century and sets out to explore them Fanning reads autobiographical writing as subject to many of the same constraints as fiction and in doing so draws attention to the significance of the recurring use of the terms pure and impure in many critical and theoretical discussions of the autobiographical where pure is used to suggest a truthful representation of a life while impure suggests the messy undertaking of mixing lived experience with fiction Recurring patterns and paradigms are found in the works of the various writers considered eighteen in all and these paradigms are analyzed through close readings of their works These close readings offer insights into approaches to the constructions of subjectivity in the narratives and are informed by feminist theories The chapters focus on selves in relationship taking their lead from the patterns unfolding in the writers work hence the subjects are constructed as daughters with different views of the self in relation to fathers and mothers within the confines of the romantic relationship which involves reconsiderations and rewritings of the romance plot as maternal subjects and as writers with an eye on their relationship to the literary canon as well as to the relationship with readers This book argues that there is such a thing as gendered subjectivity and that its constructions may be traced through the texts analyzed Great Women Travel Writers Alba Amoia, Bettina Knapp, 2006-06-02 Includes ten contributor's writings on 250 years of women travel writers Travel is a quest an escape a passion Women explorers and travellers are a special breed This book covers 22 courageous women who encircled the globe and boldly crossed international barriers often to encounter the most patriarchal cultures of their time Encyclopedia of Contemporary Italian Culture Gino Moliterno, 2023-06-14 This rigorously compiled A-Z volume offers rich readable coverage of the diverse forms of post 1945 Italian culture With over 900 entries by international contributors this volume is genuinely interdisciplinary in character treating traditional political economic and legal concerns with a particular emphasis on neglected areas of popular culture Entries range from short definitions histories or biographies to longer overviews covering themes movements institutions and personalities from advertising to fascism and Pirelli to Zeffirelli The Encyclopedia aims to inform and inspire both teachers and students in the following fields Italian language and literature Arts Humanities and Social Sciences European Studies Media and Cultural Studies Business and Management Art and Design It is extensively cross referenced has a thematic contents list and suggestions for further reading

Biographies and Autobiographies in Modern Italy Peter Hainsworth, Martin L. McLaughlin, 2007 Critical interest in biography and autobiography has never been higher However while life writing flourishes in the UK in Italy it is a less prominent genre The twelve essays collected here are written against this backdrop and address issues in biographical and autobiographical writing in Italy from the later nineteenth century to the present with a particular emphasis on the interplay between individual lives and life writing and the wider social and political history of Italy The majority of essays focus on well known writers D Annunzio Svevo Bontempelli Montale Levi Calvino Eco and Fallaci and their varying anxieties about autobiographical writing in their work This picture is rounded out by a series of studies of similar themes in lesser known figures the critic Enrico Nencioni the Welsh Italian painter Llewellyn Lloyd and Italian writers and journalists covering the Spanish Civil War The contributors all specialists in their fields are Antonella Braidia Charles Burdett Jane Everson John Gatt Rutter Robert Gordon Gwyn Griffith Peter Hainsworth Martin McLaughlin Gianni Oliva Giuliana Pieri and Jon Usher The volume is dedicated to John Woodhouse on his seventieth birthday and concludes with a bibliography of his writings      A History of Women's Writing in Italy Letizia Panizza, Sharon Wood, 2000 This volume offers a comprehensive account of writing by women in Italy

9/11 in European Literature Svenja Frank, 2017-11-28 This volume looks at the representation of 9 11 and the resulting wars in European literature In the face of inner European divisions the texts under consideration take the terror attacks as a starting point to negotiate European as well as national identity While the volume shows that these identity formations are frequently based on the construction of two Others the US nation and a cultural ethnic idea of Muslim communities it also analyses examples which undermine such constructions This much more self critical strand in European literature unveils the Eurocentrism of a supposedly general humanistic value system through the use of complex aesthetic strategies These strategies are in itself characteristic of the European reception as the Anglo Irish British Dutch Flemish French German Italian and Polish perspectives collected in this volume perceive of the terror attacks through the lens of continental media and semiotic theory

Addressing the Letter Laura Anne Salsini, 2010-01-01 Women writers of nineteenth and twentieth century Italy reinvigorated the modern epistolary novel through their re fashioning of the genre as a tool for examining women s roles and experiences Addressing the Letter argues that many epistolary novels purposely tie narrative structure to thematic content creating in the process powerful texts that reflect and challenge literary and socio cultural norms Through the lens of the genre Laura A Salsini considers how the works of authors including the Marchesa Colombi Sibilla Aleramo Gianna Manzini Natalia Ginzburg and Oriana Fallaci highlight such issues as love the loss of ideals lack of communication and connection and feminist ideology She also analyses what may be the first woman authored Italian example of epistolary fiction Orintia Romagnuoli Sacratì s Lettere di Giulia Willet 1818 In their reworking of the epistolary narrative form Italian women writers challenged dominant assumptions about female behaviours roles relationships and sexuality in modern Italy

The Tigress in the Snow Laura Benedetti, 2007-01-01 The Tigress in the Snow explores how literature reacted to influenced and shaped the evolving notion of motherhood in twentieth century Italy From the late nineteenth century rhetorical celebration of the mother as Madonna to the Fascist regime s demographic campaign and feminist revisions of the maternal role Laura Benedetti shows how the mother s social status was a site of constant negotiation in Italy during the last century and how this negotiation came to be represented in literature To illustrate her theme she stresses both similarities and differences among four generations of women writers as well as their complex interaction with their male counterparts and their reactions to changes in Italian society The Tigress in the Snow highlights literature s role in the formation of cultural discourses right up to the dawn of the twenty first century An intriguing look at the changing nature of motherhood in a country that has always valued the maternal institution this volume goes further to show how literature investigates shapes and envisions social models for the present and future

The Rhetoric of Sincerity Ernst van Alphen, Mieke Bal, Carel E. Smith, 2009 The essays in this volume demonstrate how the performance of sincerity is culturally specific and is enacted in different ways in different media and disciplines including law and the arts      BLASPHEMY WITHIN THE EUROPEAN UNION? ADEL SMITH VERSUS ORIANA FALLACI Fazila Derya Agis, 2015-10-07 This study discusses how and why public and elite opinion moved towards the requirement of the abolishment of the European blasphemy laws analyzing the case Adel Smith opened against Oriana Fallaci as an example Consequently non governmental organizations initiated mediation programs between Eastern and Western cultures Such programs should lead to the abolition of the blasphemy law in Europe as a democratic continent      Translating Travel Loredana Polezzi, 2017-03-02 Translating Travel examines the relationship between travel writing and translation asking what happens when books travel beyond the narrow confines of one genre one literary system and one culture The volume takes as its starting point the marginal position of contemporary Italian travel writing in the Italian literary system and proposes a comparative reading of originals and translations designed to highlight the varying reception of texts in different cultures Two main themes in the book are the affinity between the representations produced by travel and the practices of translation and the complex links between travel writing and genres such as ethnography journalism autobiography and fiction Individual chapters are devoted to Italian travellers accounts of Tibet and their English translations the hybridization of journalism and travel writing in the works of Oriana Fallaci Italo Calvino s sublimation of travel writing in the stylized fiction of Le città invisibili and the complex network of literary references which marked the reception of Claudio Magris s Danubio in different cultures      La Mamma Penelope Morris, Perry Willson, 2018-06-07 The idea of the mamma italiana is one of the most widespread and recognizable stereotypes in perceptions of Italian national character both within and beyond Italy This figure makes frequent appearances in jokes and other forms of popular culture but it has also been seen as shaping the lived experience of modern day Italians of both sexes as well as influencing perceptions of Italy in the wider world This interdisciplinary collection examines the invented tradition of mammismo but also contextualizes it by discussing other often contrasting ways in which the role of mothers and the mother son relationship have been understood and represented in culture and society over the last century and a half both in Italy and in its diaspora      Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present Marie Diamond, 2020-07-01 In recent years schools have started introducing more inclusive syllabi emphasizing the works and ideas of previously overlooked or underrepresented writers Readers of all ages can now explore the rich contributions of writers from around the world These writers have various backgrounds and unlike most writers from the U S or the United Kingdom information on them in English can be difficult to find Encyclopedia of World Writers 1800 to the Present covers the most important writers outside of the U S Britain and Ireland since 1800 More than 330 insightful A to Z entries profile novelists poets dramatists and short story writers whose works are anthologized in textbooks or assigned in high school English classes Entries range in length from 200 to 1 000 words each and include a biographical sketch synopses of major works and a brief bibliography Dozens of entries are new to this edition and many existing entries have been updated and significantly expanded with new Critical Analysis sections Coverage includes Chinua Achebe Margaret Atwood
