Orient In A Mirror:

The Orient in a Mirror Roland Michaud, Sabrina Michaud, 2003 Central Asia is a vibrant mixture of civilizations and tongues united by Islam diversified by differing histories cultures and languages Iran Turkey and Afghanistan and their neighbours are famed for their literature and their multi hued arts and crafts but few realize how alive how close to the surface are their powerful and enduring traditions Sabrina Michaud with reproductions of 14th to 19th century central Asian miniatures The two art forms enhance one another providing a multifaceted insight into the glories of the region from glimpses of students and solemn mullahs to Afghan horsemen in a plethora of exotic beauty and colour print It is now republished in a revised and expanded form with twice as many images A Companion to Nineteenth-Century Europe, 1789 - 1914 Stefan Berger, 2008-04-15 This Companion provides an overview of European history during the long nineteenth century from 1789 to 1914 Consists of 32 chapters written by leading international scholars Balances coverage of political diplomatic and international history with discussion of economic social and cultural concerns Covers both Eastern and Western European states including Britain Pays considerable attention to smaller countries as well as to the great powers Compares particular phenomena and developments across Europe Marx and Weber on Oriental Societies Lutfi Sunar, 2016-05-06 The Orient was central to the work of Marx and Weber both figures building their theories around the question of why modernity appeared to emerge only in the West While Marx's account focused on the accumulation of capital in the West Weber's explanation for this phenomenon centred on Western rationalization Extending recent work comparing the social theories of Marx and Weber this book examines their approaches to Oriental societies showing how in spite of the differences in their respective theorizations of the historical and political development of the West their work on the form of modern society in the Orient converges each complementing the other Fully conversant with recent scholarly work on Marx and Weber this comprehensive re examination of the points of convergence and departure in their work requires us to re evaluate both their positions in the history of sociology and their relevance to contemporary social questions As such it will appeal to scholars of social and political theory and classical sociology John Fowles's Fiction and the Poetics of Postmodernism Mahmoud Salami, 1992 Salami presents for instance a critique of the self conscious narrative of the diary form in The Collector the intertextual relations of the multiplicity of voices the problems of subjectivity the reader's position the politics of seduction ideology and history in The Magus and The French Lieutenant's Woman The book also analyzes the ways in which Fowles uses and abuses the short story genre in which enigmas remain enigmatic and the author disappears to leave the characters free to construct their own texts Salami centers for example on A Maggot which embodies the postmodernist technique of dialogical narrative the problem of narrativization of history and the explicitly political critique of both past and present in terms of social and religious dissent These political questions are also echoed in Fowles's nonfictional book The Aristos in which he strongly rejects the totalization of narratives and the materialization of society

East-West Montage Sheng-mei Ma, 2007-11-06 East West Montage possesses a unique vision that promises to push discussions of globalization cultural production ethnic identity and bodily metaphors in powerful new directions Ma is to be praised for his sound scholarship and innovative interpretations Indeed where others specialize in either the collection of details or the unpacking of text Ma weaves a strong analytic exegesis rooted in thorough research Richard King Washington State University Approximately twelve hours difference lies between New York and Beijing The West and the East are literally night and day apart Yet East West Montage crosscuts the two in the manner of adjacent filmic shots to accentuate their montage like complementarity It examines the intersection between East and West the Asian diaspora or more specifically Asian bodies in diaspora and the cultural expressions by and about people of Asian descent on both sides of the Pacific Following the introduction Establishing Shots the book is divided into seven intercuts which in turn subdivide into dialectically paired chapters focusing on specific body parts or attributes The range of material examined is broad and rich the iconography of the opium den in film noir the writings of Asian American novelists the swordplay and kung fu film Japanese anime the Korean Wave including soap operas like Winter Sonata and the cult thriller Oldboy Rogers and Hammerstein's Orientalist musicals the comic Blackhawk the superstar status of the Dalai Lama and the demise of Hmong refugees and Chinese retirees in the U S Highly original and immensely readable East West Montage will appeal to many working in a range of disciplines including Asian studies Asian American studies cultural studies ethnic studies film studies popular culture and literary criticism

Poetics of the Literary Self-Portrait Michel Beaujour, 1992-10 Investigates the literary self portrait genre From St Augustine to Montaigne and from Nietzsche to Barthes individual self portraits are analyzed along with the cultural matrix from which self portrayal derives its non narrative structure and many of its recurrent topics

The Persian Mirror Susan Mokheri, 2019-10-21 The Persian Mirror explores France's preoccupation with Persia in the seventeenth century Long before Montesquieu's Persian Letters French intellectuals diplomats and even ordinary Parisians were fascinated by Persia and eagerly consumed travel accounts fairy tales and the spectacle of the Persian ambassador's visit to Paris and Versailles in 1715 Using diplomatic sources fiction and printed and painted images The Persian Mirror describes how the French came to see themselves in Safavid Persia In doing so it revises our notions of orientalism and the exotic and suggests that early modern Europeans had more nuanced responses to Asia than previously imagined

21 Introduction to Mold Design Index India Kamakshi Murti, 2000-11-30 Germans of various disciplines not only encouraged but actively framed a discourse that gendered India through voyeuristic descriptions of the male and female body This study challenges the German s claim to an encounter with India projected on a spiritual plane of communion between kindred spirits and shows that such supposedly apolitical encounters are really strategies of domination German participation in European Expansion can be perceived as collusion with the British imperialist administration inasmuch as it provided the latter with a justification for existing colonial rule and anticipated future colonial activity Despite the optimism placed in the post of post colonialism the continued presence of European Orientalism can be felt in the late 20th century hidden under the mantel of global capitalism Although Germany did not colonize India territorially Germans of various disciplines not only encouraged but actively framed a discourse that gendered India through voyeuristic descriptions of the male and female body German orientalist experiences of Hindu India have typically been excluded from post colonial debates concerning European expansion but this study challenges the German s claim to an encounter with India projected on a spiritual plane of communion between kindred spirits and shows that such supposedly apolitical encounters are really strategies of domination German participation can be perceived as collusion with the British imperialist administration inasmuch as it provided the latter with a justification for existing colonial rule and anticipated future colonial activity Murti sheds light on the role that missionaries and women two groups that have been ignored or glossed over until now played in authorizing and strengthening the colonial discourse The intertextual strategies adopted by the various partners in the colonialist dialog clearly show that German involvement in India was not a disinterested academic venture These writings also betray a bias against women that has not been regarded until now as a key issue in the literature discussing Orientalism Missionaries often actively fostered the British colonial agenda while women travelers even those who traveled as a means of escaping patriarchal structures at home invariably abetted the colonizer Despite the optimism placed in the post of post colonialism Murti concludes that the continued presence of European Orientalism can be felt in the late 20th century hidden under the mantel of global capitalism The Oriental Herald , 1826 Dis-Orienting Planets Isiah Lavender III, 2017-04-07 Contributions by Suparno Banerjee Cait Coker Jeshua Enriquez Joan Gordon Veronica Hollinger Malisa Kurtz Stephanie Li Bradford Lyau Uppinder Mehan Graham J Murphy Baryon Tensor Posadas Amy J Ransom Robin Anne Reid Haerin Shin Stephen Hong Sohn Takayuki Tatsumi and Timothy J Yamamura Isiah Lavender III s Dis Orienting Planets amplifies critical issues surrounding the racial and ethnic dimensions of science fiction This edited volume explores depictions of Asia and Asians in science fiction literature film and fandom with particular regard to China Japan India and Korea Dis Orienting Planets highlights so called yellow and brown peoples from the constellation of a historically white genre The collection launches into political representations of Asian identity in science fiction s imagination from fear of the Yellow Peril and its racist stereotypes to techno Orientalism and the remains of a postcolonial heritage Thus the essays by contributors such as

Takayuki Tatsumi Veronica Hollinger Uppinder Mehan and Stephen Hong Sohn reconfigure the very study of race in science fiction A follow up to Lavender s Black and Brown Planets this collection expands the racial politics governing the renewed visibility of Asia in science fiction One of the few on this subject the volume probes Gary Shteyngart s novel Super Sad True Love Story the acclaimed film Cloud Atlas and Guillermo del Toro s monster film Pacific Rim among others Dis Orienting Planets embarks on a wide ranging assessment of Asian representations in science fiction upon the determination that our visions of the future must include all people of color Oriental Herald and Colonial Review James Silk
