Orientations Islamic Thought In A World Civilisation:

Orientations James Winston Morris, 2001 Orientations James Winston Morris, 2004 Behind today's media stereotypes of an apocalyptic clash of civilisations could we be witnessing the epochal birth of new spiritual ethical and cultural forms of communion of a nascent global civilisation Orientations begins with those intimately familiar situations of disorientation painful conflict and confusion almost inescapable in the contemporary world whose most dramatic expressions are daily so visible in emblematic images from each Jerusalem or Sarajevo It presents three Muslim thinkers from the metaphysics of Ibn Arabi to notions of the virtuous city of al Farabi to the contemporary thinker Ostad Elahi whose seminal works together provide the inspiration for positive realistic and constructive responses to those challenges The purpose of this study is to turn our attention toward those universal elements of Islamic thought and spirituality which are explicitly grounded in the deepest common dimensions of human experience dimensions that can alone provide us with the indispensable foundations for true communication for genuine moral and spiritual communities rooted in our shared responsibilities of spiritual insight creativity and the uniquely human processes of realisation and transformation Knowing the Spirit Ostad Elahi, 2012-02-01 Ostad Elahi's Knowing the Spirit provides a concise and remarkably illuminating philosophic account of our unique place in the universe of the creative expressions of the divine Spirit throughout nature and of the process of the soul's deepening perfection through all the challenges and lessons of our existence in this world and beyond This revealing book draws together in a single vision those symbolic teachings and spiritual insights familiar to many Western readers today through the classical mystical poetry of Rumi Hafez and Attar The historical context and language of this study are marked by the confluence of classical Islamic philosophy and spirituality including Sufi thought and their scriptural sources But Elahi's thought integrates those influences and marks them with the magisterial imprint of his own profound spiritual experience and characteristic simplicity openness and directness of expression This volume offers a singular masterpiece of recent spiritual thought opening up fundamental human perspectives and possibilities too often clouded by the distractions of current events The emphatic universality of both the subject and presentation of Knowing the Spirit points the way to unsuspected bridges between different civilizations and religious traditions indeed to the prospect of an inclusive science of spirituality based on the common ground of each person's spiritual life and experience Anatheism Richard Kearney, 2010 Has the death of God paved the way for a new kind of religious project a more responsible way to seek sound and love the things we call divine This book explores this question and argues how by accepting that we know nothing about God we can rediscover an absent holiness in our lives and reclaim an everyday divinity Sufi Narratives of Intimacy Sa'diyya Shaikh, 2012 Sufi Narratives of Intimacy Voices of Islam Virginia G. Blakemore-Henry, Vincent J. Cornell, Omid Safi, 2006-12-30 Despite frequent and extensive publications on Islam very few Americans indeed very few non Muslims truly understand the faith or the more than one billion adherents who live it This set presents the diversity and richness of Islam filling in the blanks and expanding our knowledge and understanding Portraying Muslims in all their humanity and diversity balances the images that have bombarded society and presents the reader with a fuller and more accurate picture of the Islamic faith and what it means to live as a Muslim in Muslim communities and as part of a broader tapestry of pluralism in the nations of the world What does it mean to share Muslim concerns To experience Muslim spirituality What is the difference between Sunni and Shiite sects Why do Muslims pray so frequently What is the reality of Muslim marriage and gender relations What is the meaning of jihad and martyrdom to a practicing Muslim What role do the arts and humanities play in modern Muslim life How are Islamic children raised These questions and others are answered in these volumes which bring together Muslim voices from around the world including men and women scholars and laypersons fundamentalists and progressives and others from various cultural political and Islamic backgrounds Personal experiences and poetry are included to illustrate the many different expressions of Islam Tales of God's Friends John Renard, 2009-05-13 The works of Islamic mysticism are a crucial genre of Islamic piety and the lives of the awliya friends of God have been and continue to be a crucial way in which the theoretical insights of Sufism are embodied and communicated to a wider audience Traditionally these genres would be deciphered by a living Sufi master Here John Renard acts as our Sufi guide transporting us to the marvelous world of Islamic piety Omid Safi Professor of Islamic Studies University of Northern Carolina

Interreligious Dialogue and Cultural Change Catherine Cornille, Stephanie Corigliano, 2012-08-17 The challenges and changes that take place when religions move from one cultural context to another present unique opportunities for interreligious dialogue In new cultural environments religions are not only propelled to enter into dialogue with the traditional or dominant religion of a particular culture religions are also invited to enter into dialogue with one another about cultural changes In this volume scholars from different religious traditions discuss the various types of dialogue that have emerged from the process of acculturation While the phenomenon of religious acculturation has generally focused on Western religions in non Western contexts this volume deals predominantly with the acculturation in the United States It thus offers a fresh look at the phenomenon of acculturation while also lifting up an often implicit or ignored dimension of interreligious dialogue Sufism and Jewish-Muslim Relations Yafia Katherine Randall, 2016-03-31 In Israel there are Jews and Muslims who practice Sufism together The Sufi activities that they take part in together create pathways of engagement between two faith traditions in a geographical area beset by conflict Sufism and Jewish Muslim Relations investigates this practice of Sufism among Jews and Muslims in Israel and examines their potential to contribute to peace in the area It is an original approach to the study of reconciliation situating the activities of groups that are not explicitly acting for peace within the wider context of grass roots peace initiatives The author conducted in depth interviews with those practicing Sufism in Israel and these are both collected in an appendix and used throughout the work to analyse the approaches of individuals to Sufism and the challenges they face It finds that participants understand encounters between Muslim and Jewish mystics in the medieval Middle East as a common heritage to Jews and Muslims practising Sufism together today and it explores how those of different faiths see no dissonance in the adoption of Sufi practices to pursue a path of spiritual progression The first examination of the Derekh Avraham Jewish S f Order this is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Sufi studies as well as those interested in Jewish Muslim relations Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho,2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People s Republic of China and is home to around 250 000 Muslims practicing Islam However existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong Islam and China s Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state s triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government s concern of external extremism Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong s growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state s aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies Islamic studies Asian studies and ethnicity studies THE GARDEN OF KNOWLEDGE AND VIRTUE: IIUM Alumni and Reflections (IIUM Press) AZAM

Crisis of Islamic Civilization Ali A. Allawi, 2009-04-28 Islam as a religion is central to the lives of over a billion people but its outer expression as a distinctive civilization has been undergoing a monumental crisis Buffeted by powerful adverse currents Islamic civilization today is a shadow of its former self The most disturbing and possibly fatal of these currents the imperial expansion of the West into Muslim lands and the blast of modernity that accompanied it are now compounded by a third giant wave globalization These forces have increasingly tested Islam and Islamic civilization for validity adaptability and the ability to hold on to the loyalty of Muslims says Ali A Allawi in his provocative new book While the faith has proved resilient in the face of these challenges other aspects of Islamic civilization have atrophied or died Allawi contends and Islamic civilization is now undergoing its last crisis The book explores how Islamic civilization began to unravel under colonial rule as its institutions laws and economies were often replaced by inadequate modern equivalents Allawi also examines the backlash expressed through the increasing religiosity of Muslim societies and the spectacular rise of political Islam and its terrorist offshoots Assessing the status of each of the building blocks of Islamic civilization the author concludes that Islamic civilization cannot survive without the vital spirituality that underpinned it in the past He identifies a key set of principles for moving forward principles that will surprise some and anger others yet clearly must be considered
