Origins Of The Middle Ages Pirennes Challenge To Gibbon:

The Origins of the Middle Ages Bryce Dale Lyon, 1972      The Circle of War in the Middle Ages Donald J. Kagay, L. J. Andrew Villalon, 1999 Medieval warfare on both land and sea examined by leading scholars in the field Different aspects of medieval warfare form the focus for this collection of essays by both established and new scholars They range from a reconsideration of several problems of military historiography to explorations of the medieval view of divine influence on the battlefield and the emergence of complex strategic and tactical norms of naval warfare in the medieval Mediterranean Other topics examined include the role of mercenaries crusader warfare and Anglo Norman women at war Contributors BERNARD S BACHRACH THERESA M VANN PAUL E CHEVEDDEN STEPHEN MORILLO EDWARD G SCHOENFELD KENT G HARE KELLY DEVRIES STEVEN ISAAC JEAN A TRUAX STEVEN G LANE DOUGLAS C HALDANE LAWRENCE V MOTT      The Uses of the Middle Ages in Modern European States R. Evans, G. Marchal, 2010-12-20 An assessment of the role of the Middle Ages in national historiography and in modern conceptions of national identity looking at relatively young nations and regions which claim national traditions but were slow to achieve or regain separate statehood Examples range from Ireland and Iceland through Austria and Italy to Finland and Greece      The Evolution of the Medieval World David M Nicholas, 2014-07-16 This ambitious and wide ranging study of the European Middle Ages respects the complexity and richness of its subject always accessible it is never merely superficial or over simplistic Stressing the long term factors of continuity evolution and change throughout David Nicholas discusses the social and economic aspects of medieval civilization and examines their links with political institutional and cultural development Designed for students and non specialists his book triumphantly meets the need for a comprehensive survey of the medieval world within the covers of a single authoritative volume      After Rome's Fall Walter Goffart, Walter A. Goffart, 1998-01-01 This collection of essays deals with a broad range of issues within the study past and present of the early Middle Ages Subjects include war power ethnicity gender Charlemagne and Carolingian history The book is largely concerned with reading the sources both medieval and modern and interpreting their narrators      History and Nature in the Enlightenment Nathaniel Wolloch, 2016-04-22 The mastery of nature was viewed by eighteenth century historians as an important measure of the progress of civilization Modern scholarship has hitherto taken insufficient notice of this important idea This book discusses the topic in connection with the mainstream religious political and philosophical elements of Enlightenment culture It considers works by Edward Gibbon Voltaire Herder Vico Raynal Hume Adam Smith William Robertson and a wide range of lesser and better known figures It also discusses many classical medieval and early modern sources which influenced Enlightenment historiography as well as eighteenth century attitudes toward nature in general      From the Later Roman Empire to Late Antiquity and Beyond Averil Cameron, 2023-05-23 Averil Cameron is one of the leading historians of late antiquity and Byzantium This collection Cameron s third in the Variorum series discusses the changing approach among historians of the later Roman empire from the 1960s to the present and the articles reproduced have been chosen to reflect both these wider changes in treatments of the subject as well as Cameron's own development as a historian over many decades. It provides a revealing and important survey of some profound historiographical changes. Her volume contains fundamental papers and reviews that tell a story in which she has played a leading part. They move from her early days as an ancient historian to her important contribution in the establishment of the field of late antiquity and point to her later work as a Byzantinist, a trajectory rivalled by few other scholars. The book will be important for scholars and students of the later Roman empire and late antiquity and for anyone interested in the inheritance of Edward Gibbon, the perennial questions about the end of the Roman empire and its supposed decline or the emergence of Islam in the early seventh century and its relation to the late antique world. Encyclopedia of Early Christianity Everett Ferguson, 2013-10-08 First published in 1997. What's new in the Second Edition? Some 250 new entries, twenty-five percent more than in the first edition, plus twenty-five new expert contributors. Bibliographies are greatly expanded and updated throughout. More focus on biblical books and philosophical schools, their influence on early Christianity and their use by patristic writers. More information about the Jewish and pagan environment of early Christianity. Greatly enlarged coverage of the eastern expansion of the faith throughout Asia, including persons and literature. More extensive treatment of saints, monasticism, worship practices, and modern scholars. Greater emphasis on social history and more theme articles. More illustrations, maps, and plans. Additional articles on geographical regions. Expanded chronological table. Also includes maps. The Cambridge History of Philosophy in Late Antiquity Lloyd P.

Gerson, 2015-12-10. The Cambridge History of Philosophy in Late Antiquity comprises over forty specially commissioned essays by experts on the philosophy of the period 200-800 CE. Designed as a successor to The Cambridge History of Later Greek and Early Medieval Philosophy edited by A. H. Armstrong, it takes into account some forty years of scholarship since the publication of that volume. The contributors examine philosophy as it entered literature, science, and religion and offer new and extensive assessments of philosophers who until recently have been mostly ignored. The volume also includes a complete digest of all philosophical works known to have been written during this period. It will be an invaluable resource for all those interested in this rich and still emerging field. The 20th Century O-Z Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13. Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history. This is not a 'who's who'. Instead, each entry provides an in-depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned. Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements. The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context, and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history. All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography. Law, History, the Low Countries and Europe R. C. Caenegem, 1994-07-01. R. C. Van Caenegem is the successor of Henri Pirenne and of F. L. Ganshof at the University of Ghent. These essays reflect Van Caenegem's main interests over his career the Common Law in England and Customary Law in the Low Countries the differences between institutional development in England and in the rest of Europe and the forces making for autocratic as opposed to representative government A number of pieces discuss the nature of history itself how it compares with the sciences and what it can teach us Two essays commemorate the lives and work of Pirenne and Ganshof Routledge Handbook of the Global History of Warfare Kaushik Roy, Michael W. Charney, 2024-01-23 This handbook examines key aspects of the development of the global history of warfare and the changing patterns of warfare over time Although scholarship has long eschewed a chronological narrative of the evolution of warfare that privileges the Western experience global histories of warfare have had difficulty avoiding an overemphasis on the West The present volume is a collection of themes rather than a history per se it provides important perspectives on the emergence of warfare as a global historical experience from the ancient past to the present day Drawing together numerous experts it tells a broader more inclusive story of the global human experience with wars and warfare The 35 chapters are organised in eight thematic parts Part I Origins of Warfare Part II Politics and Armed Forces in the Pre Modern Era Part III Steppe Nomads of Eurasia Part IV Naval Warfare and Piracy in the Pre Industrial World Part V The Impact of Gunpowder Part VI Transition from Industrial to Total War Part VII Wars of Decolonisation and Cold War Part VIII Postmodern New Wars These Parts offer an overview of the global experience of warfare to help readers understand how the wars and the militaries we see today have been shaped by historical developments across the globe This handbook will be of great interest to students of military history naval history strategic studies and world history in general An Historical Introduction to Western Constitutional Law R. C. van Caenegem, 1995-03-23 Professor van Caenegem's new book addresses fundamental questions of constitutional organization democracy versus autocracy unitary versus federal organization pluralism versus intolerance by analyzing different models of constitutional government through a historical perspective The approach is chronological constitutionalism is explained as the result of many centuries of trial and error through a narrative that begins in the early Middle Ages and concludes with contemporary debates focusing on Europe the United States and the Soviet Union Medieval Scholarship Helen Damico, Joseph B. Zavadil, 2014-06-23 Surveying the development of medieval scholarship through biography this volume contains 23 original essays on scholars whose work shaped medieval historiography for the past 300 years Their subject was Europe between 500 and 1500 and they labored to define that protean and multinational culture Each of them pioneered or revolutionized traditional views on fields such as diplomatics Mabillon economic social and constitutional history Power Pirenne Bloch Stubbs Waitz Whitelock Maitland manuscript and archival studies Delisle Muratori Jewish history and the history of Islam and Byzantium von Grunebaum Ostrogorsky symbology and intellectual history Kantorowicz Schramm Smalley general and cultural history Gibbon Adams Haskins Sanchez Albornoz and ecclesiastical history Bolland Lea and the history of magic and science Thorndike Some of the scholars pioneered comparative and interdisciplinary studies all published work that is still essential to our understanding of the past and more important the present      Guide to the Collections National Library of Australia,1910      Mediterranean Identities in the Premodern Era John Watkins,Kathryn L. Reyerson,2016-04-22 The first full length volume to approach the premodern Mediterranean from a fully interdisciplinary perspective this collection defines the Mediterranean as a coherent region with distinct patterns of social political and cultural exchange The essays explore the production modification and circulation of identities based on religion ethnicity profession gender and status as free or slave within three distinctive Mediterranean geographies islands entrep ts and empires Individual essays explore such topics as interreligious conflict and accommodation immigration and diaspora polylingualism classical imitation and canon formation traffic in sacred objects Mediterranean slavery and the dream of a reintegrated Roman empire Integrating environmental social political religious literary artistic and linguistic concerns this collection offers a new model for approaching a distinct geographical region as a unique site of cultural and social exchange

Dictionary of World Biography: The 20th century, O-Z Frank Northen Magill,Christina J. Moose,Alison Aves,1999-11 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who s who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual s place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography      The Sixth Century Hodges,Bowden,2024-03-25 This collection of essays examines the sixth century A D from a new perspective Being a result of the European Science Foundation s programme devoted to the transformation of the Roman World the authors examine the economic and social conditions of a century which has often been overlooked The book takes a European overview and includes studies by archaeologists and historians whom in the course of the ESF project have developed a lively dialogue focussing upon the issue of demand in the sixth century An archaeologist poses many of theleading arguments in the first chapter and an historian draws these themes together in the final one The book includes a major review of the historiography of Henri Pirenne s celebrated thesis devoted to the decline of the Roman empire and the beginnings of the Middle Ages The majority of the essays however are regional studies approaching the subject with a new wide angled European vision      An Introduction to Middle Dutch Colette M. van Kerckvoorde,2019-07-08 No detailed description available for An Introduction to Middle Dutch      Doing What Historians Do: Reading, Researching, and Writing History John Marshall Carter,2009-06-06 This book is for teachers of history and social studies in grades 6 12 It would also be useful on a college or university reading list for social studies methods
