Orphism And The Initiatory Tradition:

Orphism and the Initiatory Tradition Raphael Āśram Vidyā Order, 2021-07-19 In this book Raphael shows that Orphism represents the fountain head of all Western speculative thought With its establishment people began to speak of something divine that was present in human beings and consequently there took root in Europe and therefore in the West the metaphysical vision of Being Raphael offers us an authentic traditional setting of Orphism by indicating the initiatory aspect to be found in the two myths or symbols linked to the figure of Orpheus his death and his descent to the underworld both of which being cathartic portray a true experience The Mysteries established by the divine Orpheus represent various states of being and neophytes should ensure that they are in the right psychological condition Readers who are lovers of Wisdom will be able to fully comprehend the highly cathartic function and relevance of the Orphic message and benefit from drinking at the inexhaustible Fountain offered by the timeless Tradition Raphael is a Master in the Western Metaphysical Tradition He has written several books on the pathway of Non duality Advaita He has also translated a number of key Vedānta texts from the Sanskrit and provided his own commentaries Raphael interprets spiritual practice as a Pathway of Fire which disciples follow in all branches of the Tradition it is the Way of Return All disciples follow their own Path of Fire in accordance with that branch of the Tradition to which they belong According to Raphael what is important is to express through living and being the truth that one has been able to contemplate Thus for all beings their expression of thought and action must be coherent and in agreement with their own specific dharma After more than 60 years of Teaching in both oral and written format Raphael withdrew into mah sam dhi May Raphael's Consciousness an expression of the Unity of Tradition guide and illumine along this Opus all those who donate their mens informis a formal mind to the attainment of the highest known Realisation

Orphism and the Initiatory Tradition Raphael, 2003 The topic of this book traces back in time and beyond time this realization human beings as such need to acknowledge in themselves a double element the one titanic to use Orphic terms and the other divine It is up to one's own consciousness to determine whether one wants to be a single whole with the divine element or with the titanic one

Initiation Into the Philosophy of Plato Raphael, 1999 The philosophy associated with the name of Plato has had an immense influence on European thought and civilization but as the author of this work points out it is a mistake to think of it as Plato's philosophy He was one of the greatest exponents of an ancient philosophical tradition stretching back into the mists of time Raphael draws a brief comparison between him and Shankara the great exponent of Advaita Vedānta in India To Plato philosophy was not simply an academic study it was a life transforming discipline a way of life leading to the realization of man's full potential

Initiation into the Mysteries of the Ancient World Jan N. Bremmer, 2014-07-28 The ancient Mysteries have long attracted the interest of scholars an interest that goes back at least to the time of the Reformation After a period of interest around the turn of the twentieth century recent decades have seen an important study of Walter Burkert 1987 Yet his thematic approach makes it hard to see how the actual initiation into the Mysteries took place To do precisely that is the aim of this book It gives a thick description of the major Mysteries not only of the famous Eleusinian Mysteries but also those located at the interface of Greece and Anatolia the Mysteries of Samothrace Imbros and Lemnos as well as those of the Corybants It then proceeds to look at the Orphic Bacchic Mysteries which have become increasingly better understood due to the many discoveries of new texts in the recent times Having looked at classical Greece we move on to the Roman Empire where we study not only the lesser Mysteries which we know especially from Pausanias but also the new ones of Isis and Mithras We conclude our book with a discussion of the possible influence of the Mysteries on emerging Christianity Its detailed references and up to date bibliography will make this book indispensable for any scholar interested in the Mysteries and ancient religion but also for those scholars who work on initiation or esoteric rituals which were often inspired by the ancient Mysteries Greek Philosophy and Mystery Cults María José García Blanco, María José Martín-Velasco, 2016-02-29 The contributions to this book offer a broad vision of the relationships that were established between Greek Philosophy and the Mystery Cults The authors centre their attention on such thinkers as Plato Aristotle and the Stoic and the Neoplatonist philosophers who used and in some cases criticised doctrinal elements from Mystery Cults adapting them to their own thinking Thus the volume provides a new approach to some of the most renowned Greek philosophers highlighting the influence that Mystery Cults such as Orphism Dionysianism or the Eleusinian rites had on the formation of fundamental aspects of their thinking Given its interdisciplinary character this book will appeal to a broad academic readership interested in the origin of Hellenic thinking and culture It will be especially useful for those eager for a deeper approach to two fundamental domains that attract the attention of many Antiquity scholars Greek philosophy and religion Poetry and Poetics in the Presocratic Philosophers Tom Mackenzie, 2021-04-15 The first book length literary critical study of the Presocratic philosopher poets Xenophanes Parmenides and Empedocles Sheds new light on these authors philosophical projects and enriches our appreciation of their works as literary artefacts also arguing that they played an important role in the development of Greek poetics Plato Prehistorian Mary Settegast, 2022-10-04 In his Timaeus and Critias dialogues Plato wrote of two ancient civilizations that flourished more than 9 000 years before his time Socrates accepted the account as true and modern archaeological techniques may yet prove him right In Plato Prehistorian Mary Settegast takes us from the cave paintings of Lascaux to the shrines of atalhyk demonstrating correspondences both to Plato's tale and to the mystery religions of antiquity She then traces the mid seventh millennium impulse that revitalized the spiritual life of atalhyk and spread agriculture from Iran to the Greek Peninsula at precisely the time given by Aristotle for the legendary Persian prophet Zarathustra for whom the cultivation of the earth was a religious imperative This new edition of Mary Settegast's ground breaking synthesis of classical and archaeological scholarship features an appendix by Alistair Coombs on the recent excavations at Gbekli Tepe in southeastern Turkey which have upended the conventional view of the rise of civilization The Red Book of C.G. Jung

Walter Boechat, 2018-05-08 This book focuses on some of the main aspects and importance of The Red Book for the understanding of the work of C G Jung It sheds light on the great mysteries of human nature and the new dimension uncovered by Jung and Freud the universe of the unconscious and the possible ways to approach it Religious and Philosophical Conversion in the Ancient Mediterranean Traditions, 2022-03-07 The interest in interdisciplinary research on the experience of religious conversion or spiritual transformation grows progressively In light of this burgeoning area of study this volume explores conversion or converting experience in the ancient Mediterranean with attention to early Judaism early Christianity and philosophy in the Roman empire The contributions include both historical and philological reconstructions relying on source material and utilizing interdisciplinary approaches Similarly the authors analyze the literary use of the motif of conversion the topic of philosophical conversion as well as ritual social and embodied aspects of spiritual transformation Baptism and Resurrection Alexander J. M. Wedderburn, 2011-01-01 The assumption that Romans 6 and 1 Corinthians 15 reflects a borrowing of ideas from Graeco Roman mystery initiations is not the likeliest explanation of these texts nor does justice either to recent studies of the mysteries nor to the difficulty in reinterpreting resurrection to refer to a spiritual state which the baptized enjoyed in the present Spiritual phenomena may have shown early Christians in the Graeco Roman world that they had life but not resurrection Dying with Christ has other roots than the mysteries and the latter should not be interpreted in the light of Paul but dying and coming to life again is a theme common to a great many rites of passage Traditional Forms and Cosmic Cycles René Guénon, 2003 Ren Gu non 1886 1951 is undoubtedly one of the luminaries of the twentieth century whose critique of the modern world has stood fast against the shifting sands of recent philosophies His oeuvre of 26 volumes is providential for the modern seeker pointing ceaselessly to the perennial wisdom found in past cultures ranging from the Shamanistic to the Indian and Chinese the Hellenic and Judaic the Christian and Islamic and including also Alchemy Hermeticism and other esoteric currents at the same time it directs the reader to the deepest level of religious praxis emphasizing the need for affiliation with a revealed tradition even while acknowledging the final identity of all spiritual paths as they approach the summit of spiritual realization Traditional Forms and Cosmic Cycles is a wide ranging collection of articles that could just as well have been called Fragments of an Unknown History Although they must remain fragments as Gu non did not return to many of these themes again it would have been regrettable to leave such fascinating articles buried in old journals and so this posthumous collection is now offered to Anglophone readers for the first time The book opens with the key article The Doctrine of Cosmic Cycles followed by two pieces on Atlantis and Hyperborea Two sections follow concerned respectively with the Hebrew Tradition and the Egyptian Tradition The former comprises five articles concerned primarily with the Kabbalah and the Science of Numbers and the latter includes three articles on Hermes and the Hermetic Tradition Book reviews are inserted at relevant points To lend the collection coherence no other spiritual Traditions are here represented A list of the Collected Writings of Ren Gu non has been provided for those who wish to investigate Gu non s metaphysical expositions on such topics as Christianity Islam the Greco Latin Traditions Celtism etc

Pauline Baptism among the Mysteries Donghyun Jeong,2023-07-04 This monograph provides an alternative model for looking at the old question about Paul and the mysteries in a new light Specifically this study compares rituals baptism in the Pauline communities and the initiation rituals of the mysteries through the lens of cultural anthropology and the sociology of religion Three research questions lead the project What benefits does each initiation ritual promise its participants What are the underlying messages or structures that guarantee the efficacy of those rituals How and to what extent is the initiation ritual connected to the participants cognition and ethics beyond initiation itself Taking those questions as the analytical framework this study substantiates two points first in terms of ritual messages baptism in the Pauline communities is a ritual analogous to mystery initiation and second Paul is an innovative interpreter of ritual who recalibrates the messages of preexisting rituals for his theological and ethical program seeking to radically extend the implications of initiation to the embodied life of every Christ believer Students and scholars of New Testament early Christianity classics and ritual studies will benefit from engaging this volume
