Günter Grass and His Critics Siegfried Mews, 2008 A comprehensive narrative overview and analysis of the criticism of the controversial German author s works When the Swedish Academy announced that Günter Grass had been awarded the 1999 Nobel Prize for Literature it singled out his first novel The Tin Drum 1959 English translation 1963 as a seminal work that had signaled the postwar rebirth of German letters auguring a new beginning after decades of linguistic and moral destruction Nearly fifty years after its publication the novel s significance has been generally acknowledged it is the uncontested favorite among Grass s works of fiction on the part of reading public and critics alike yet its canonical status tends to obscure the decidedly mixed and even hostile reactions it initially elicited Along with The Tin Drum Grass s impressive body of literary work since the 1950s has spawned a cottage industry of Grass criticism making a reliable guide through the thicket of sometimes contradictory readings a definite desideratum Siegfried Mews fills this lacuna in Grass scholarship by way of a detailed but succinct descriptive as well as analytical and evaluative overview of the scholarship from 1959 to 2005 Grass s politically motivated interventions in public discourse have kept him highly visible blurring the boundaries between politics and aesthetics Mews therefore examines not only academic criticism but also the daily and weekly press and other news media providing additional insight into the reception of Grass s works Siegfried Mews is Professor of German at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Literature in Upheaval Richard Hinton Thomas, Keith Bullivant, 1974

Grass Noel Thomas, 1982-01-01 This study provides a critical analysis of the narrative works of Günter Grass under which Die Blechtrommel Katz und Mann Hundejahre und Der Butt It is of interest to everyone who wants to get a better understanding of the novels of this famous German writer Günter Grass's "Danzig-Quintet" Katharina Hall, 2007 This study extends the long established notion of Grass's Danzig Trilogy to that of the Danzig Quintet a literary project of epic proportions which explores the evolution of Germany's relationship to its Nazi past over a period of forty years The interlocking stories of Die Blechtrommel 1959 Katz und Maus 1961 Hundejahre 1963 rtlich bet ubt 1969 and Im Krebsgang 2002 are mediated by the memory and language of seven first person narrators Using the dual conceptualisation of memory developed by Freud and Lacan reliving versus recollecting the past the author shows how these narrators accounts assert the reality of the Holocaust as well as German wartime suffering while highlighting the reluctance of ordinary Germans to admit their involvement in the Nazi regime This delineation of the complex relationship of three generations to their history is deepened by the intertextual nature of the quintet Using the theory of Peter Brooks Umberto Eco Shoshana Felman and Hayden White the study explores how Grass's textual strategies encourage the reader to view all five works as one overarching narrative while simultaneously avoiding any literary or historical closure In the process the study places each book in the context of its moment of production and also considers the implications of Grass's belated admission in August 2006 that he served with the Waffen SS during the final months of World War Two Günter Grass Handbuch Christoph Jürgensen, Michael

Jahrhundert verfolgen vielleicht sogar

Distorted Reflections Stuart Taberner,2023-11-27 This volume presents a new approach to the political engagement of three major West German authors Uwe Johnson Günter Grass and Martin Walser Whereas analysis of intellectuals participation in the political upheaval of the late 1960s has tended to focus on speeches written in response to contemporary events this book examines works of fiction for the way in which authors reflected upon their engagement in a more contemplative medium Examination of these literary reflections reveals a mismatch between writers confidence as public intellectuals and their private anxiety Beginning with a survey of intellectual engagement until the late 1960s the present volume moves onto a theoretical discussion of the legitimacy of authors public interventions Three chapters are devoted to the fiction of Uwe Johnson Günter Grass and Martin Walser Uwe Johnson's fiction embodies retreat an acknowledgment of political impotence Günter Grass's novels present the failings of the engaged intellectual as exemplary to an audience which is expected to learn from this inadequacy Finally Martin Walser's intellectual characters stylise private weakness to appeal to a middle brow audience titillated by the public figure's confession of impotence In Walser's work political engagement degenerates into pure form into a Camp gesture of authors obsession with their private selves The Life and Work of
