Disappearing Architecture Georg Flachbart, Peter Weibel, 2005-09-09 The creation of new environments through the use of developments in Information Technology is significantly altering not only architecture itself but also the roles and tasks of the architects Architecture can no longer be described in the terms we are familiar with since it no longer corresponds to the form of architecture as we know it an inclusive and exclusive structure clearly defined with a single interior and a single exterior For architects the challenge of the future will increasingly lie in creatively coming to terms with hybrid environments understanding and exploiting the design potential of digital spaces within the physical world and redefining the role of architecture within a visually dominated culture This volume presents a valuable and attractive contribution to the contemporary discussion on this subject

The Architecture of Intelligence Derrick De Kerckhove, 2001 A refreshingly unconventional look at architecture and the World Wide Web Using Vitruvius classical text De Architectura as a starting point De Kerckhove begins a journey into the exciting world of the Internet On the one hand he explores the architecture of this revolutionary medium on the other he considers the wide ranging opportunities which the IT world offers for architectonic design revealing how this new medium for communication is as much based on tradition as on innovation Derrick de Kerckhove is the Director of the McLuhan Institute and Professor at the University of Toronto His research into the effects of innovative technology on human communication of new media on traditional culture have gained worldwide recognition

Le livre et l'architecte Jean-Philippe Garric, Emilie d'Orgeix, Estelle Thibault, 2011 D di aux relations complexes et fructueuses entre l'architecture et l'imprimé Le livre et l'architecte s'interroge sur les rapports entre cet art utile et les ouvrages tant pratiques que artistiques et somptueux qu'il produit ou qu'il utilise De l'architecte auteur l'architecte collectionneur du livre comme architecte la bibliothèque comme autoportrait de l'ouvrage document l'architecture comme fiction les pratiques qu'il claire renvoient au conflit fondateur et latent d'une discipline imparfaite partagée d's son origine entre un désir de théorie et une défiance envers toute explicitation P 4 of cover
