(Classic Reprint) Maurice Pellisson,2017-12-19 Excerpt from Roman Life in Pliny s Time The story of growth from a group of unconnected hill top settlements upon the Tiber to a political organ ization with world wide dominion Seems hardly to belong to sober history Great national development has mostly come from the union of nations already existing or from the powerful impetus contributed by parent nations to colonial stocks But the Roman Empire was unique in this It sprung from a Single city which though it extended its sway over the whole known world never ceased to be not alone the seat of government but the government itself Rome was the nation From her forum radiated to every land those military roads the highways of commerce and dominion that made her rule a vital thing wherever her conquering legions found their way This masterful city not only absorbed all real power but gathered up all the learning the art the customs and religions of the nations and made them her own until to be a Roman came to mean to be a citizen of the world and Roman citizen ship was a coveted prize to be attained at any cost of blood or treasure About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
