Roger White, Mike Hodder

Roman Sculpture From The North West Midlands Cheshire Shropshire And Staffordshire:

Roman Sculpture from the North West Midlands Martin Henig, Graham Webster, 2004-08-12 This is the first comprehensive catalogue of the sculpture from this region of Roman Britain including the first proper record of the sculpture from Wroxeter The sculptures all in local sandstone were carved locally and provide an index of Romanisation in the far north west of the Roman Empire at the Fortress of Legio II Adivtrix and then Legio XX Valeria Victrix at Devra Chester and at the Fortress and subsequently the civil town of the Cornovii at Viroconium Wroxeter The sculpture from Letcetum Wall Staffs is also considered The works range in quality from highly accomplished and decorative altars and tombstones to rather ham fisted efforts which hint that it was not always possible to attract sculptors to these relatively remote places Such factors are discussed in an extended introduction

Clash of Cultures? Roger White, Mike Hodder, 2018-02-21 The general perception of the west midlands region in the Roman period is that it was a backwater compared to the militarized frontier zone of the north or the south of Britain where Roman culture took root early in cities like Colchester London and St Albans and lingered late at cities like Cirencester and Bath with their rich late Roman villa culture The west midlands region captures the transition between these two areas of the military north and civilized south Where it differed and why are important questions in understanding the regional diversity of Roman Britain They are addressed by this volume which details the archaeology of the Roman period for each of the modern counties of the region written by local experts who are or have been responsible for the management and exploration of their respective counties These are placed alongside more thematic takes on elements of Roman culture including the Roman Army pottery coins and religion Lastly an overview is taken of the important transitional period of the fifth and sixth centuries Each paper provides both a developed review of the existing state of knowledge and understanding of the key characteristics of the subject area and details a set of research objectives for the future immediate and long term that will contribute to our evolving understanding of Roman Britain This is the third volume in a series The Making of the West Midlands that explores the archaeology of the English west midlands region from the Lower Palaeolithic onwards

Wroxeter, the Cornovii, and the Urban Process Roger H. White, Lynne Bevan, 2007 The final report on the Wroxeter Hinterland Project sponsored by English Heritage with chapters on Approaches to urbanization and Romanization Previous archaeological work within Wroxeter and its hinterland The base data and methodology the Fieldwork Cultural material metalwork pottery glass coins metal and stone finds building materials Integrating the evidence and the conclusion Imagine a city Wroxeter and its hinterland British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90

000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting English Parish Churches and Chapels Matthew Byrne,2017-07-13 There are over 40 000 churches and chapels in the United Kingdom The earliest were built by the first Anglo Saxon Christians and about 10 000 were built before the Reformation in the sixteenth century This beautifully illustrated book features photographic portraits and descriptions of 26 English churches and chapels ancient and modern large and small urban and rural It reveals the beauty of this group of buildings the history and significance of which are unmatched anywhere in the world This book is published in association with The National Churches Trust a national independent charity dedicated to supporting church buildings across the UK The Survey Gazetteer of the British Isles, Topographical, Statistical, and Commercial John George Bartholomew,1904 Offa's Dyke Keith Ray,Ian Bapty,2014-03-31 The massive ancient earthwork that provides the sole commemoration of an extraordinary Anglo Saxon king and that gives its name to one of our most popular contemporary national walking trails remains an enigma Despite over a century of study we still do not fully understand how or why Britain s largest linear monument was built and in recent years the views of those who have studied the Dyke have diverged even as to such basic questions as its physical extent and date of construction This book provides a fresh perspective on the creation of Offa s Dyke arising from over a decade of study and of conservation practice by its two authors It also provides a new appreciation of the specifically Mercian and English political context of its construction The authors first summarise what is known about the Dyke from archaeology and history and review the debates surrounding its form and purpose They then set out a systematic approach to understanding the design and construction of the massive linear bank and ditch that has come to stand proxy for the Anglo Welsh border What can currently be deduced about the build qualities of the Dyke are then summarised from the authors recent and newly intricate study of details of its localised form and construction and its landscape setting The authors meanwhile also explain Offa s Dyke as an instrument of late 8th century Mercian statecraft and the imperial ambitions of Offa himself Adult Continuing Education Year Book ,1992 The Coach Operators Handbook ,2010 Historic Houses, Castles & Gardens ,2000 Arts Review ,1996 Hudson's Historic Houses & Gardens 2010 Heritage House Group,Hudson's,2009 The definitive guide to Britain s historic houses gardens castles and heritage sites Palmers' Index to the Times Newspaper ,1909 The Annual Index to the Times ,1909 Church Fonts Matthew Byrne,2020-02-20 The font is perhaps the most important part of any church For centuries no infant in the parish was thought to be saved from damnation until christened and fonts as the vessels for this crucial rite of passage were a pre eminent tool in the Church s fight against the Devil Standing within the public space of the church as with pews rood screens and chantry chapels fonts would have been paid for by the parishioners and so the richness of their decoration was determined by the funds available and the prevailing architectural fashions of the time Some of the more extravagant have elaborate multi tiered covers raised for use via ropes or chains and pulleys In this fascinating introduction Matthew Byrne explores the history of fonts in churches all over the nation highlighting some of the most notable examples and explaining their evolution across the centuries The world travel guide ,2001 World Travel Guide ,2001 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003
