cultural 3 Head coverings cannot be taught by pure nature and have no intrinsic value for worshipping God 4 Paul only uses the language of dishonor becometh glory and custom about head coverings which are all things of social decency but do not reflect inherent sins As with head coverings Paul uses imperatives in 1 Cor 7 about things not intrinsically sinful 5 Some apostolic ordinances were circumstantially conditioned and mutable 6 Universal moral reasons given for a practice such as head coverings not eating creeping things Lev 11 41 44 the holy kiss foot washing etc does not necessarily make it perpetual A context is assumed and generals can only bind generally 7 There is nothing in 1 Cor 11 necessitating head coverings to have a different meaning or use in worship than in society 8 There is no necessary warrant Corinthian head coverings were geographically or temporally universal in the apostolic churches but if they were this does not itself make an ordinance to be of positive religion especially as the Greco Roman culture which head coverings were appropriate to was vast 9 Part I s survey of all the relevant Scriptural head covering data consider it for yourself shows there is no express or good and necessary consequence from these texts that Corinthian head coverings were a positive perpetual rite of religion WCF 21 1 beyond circumstances common to human society ordered by nature s light Christian prudence and the Word s general principles WCF 1 6 which things may be culturally relative 10 These things being the case Paul s statement that improper head covering dishonoreth her head v 5 must be not prescriptive but descriptive as the case was in that society which it was Hence Paul s natural and spiritual arguments are contingent on this de facto premise A change of the premise in a different culture where not covering is not dishonoring changes the conclusion Looking at the Overlooked Norman
