Juki Girls, Good Girls Caitrin Lynch, 2016-11-15 When a government program brought garment factories to rural Sri Lanka women workers found themselves caught between the pressures of a globalizing economy and societal expectations that villages are sanctuaries of tradition These women learned quickly to resist the characterization of Juki girls female garment workers already established in the urban sector as vulgar and deracinated instead asserting that they were good girls who could embody the nation's highest ideals of femininity Caitrin Lynch shows how contemporary Sri Lankan women navigate a complex web of political cultural and socioeconomic forces Drawing on extensive ethnographic research conducted inside export oriented garment factories and a close examination of national policies intended to ease the way for globalization Lynch details precisely how gender nationalism and globalization influence everyday life in Sri Lanka This book includes autobiographical essays by garment workers about their efforts to attain the benefits of being seen as good while simultaneously expanding the definition of what sort of behavior constitutes appropriate conduct These village garment workers struggled to reconcile the role thrust upon them as symbols of national progress with the negative public perception of factory workers Lynch provides the context needed to appreciate the paradoxes that globalization creates while painting a sympathetic portrait of the individuals whose life stories appear in this book

Love's Rite R. Vanita, 2005-10-20 This is the first book to examine the same sex weddings and same sex couple suicides reported in India over the last two decades Ruth Vanita examines these cases in the context of a wide variety of same sex unions from Fourteenth century narratives about co wives who miraculously produce a child together to Nineteenth century depictions of ritualized unions between women to marriages between gay men and lesbians arranged over the internet Examining the changing legal literary religious and social Indian and Euro American traditions within which same sex unions are embedded she brings a fresh perspective to the gay marriage debate suggesting that same sex marriage dwells not at the margins but at the heart of culture

Love's Rites by Ruth Vanita is a finalist for a Lambda Literary Award

Manual of Romance Sociolinguistics Wendy Ayres-Bennett, Janice Carruthers, 2018-06-11 The Romance languages offer a particularly fertile ground for the exploration of the relationship between language and society in different social contexts and communities Focusing on a wide range of Romance languages from national languages to minoritised varieties this volume explores questions concerning linguistic diversity and multilingualism language contact medium and genre variation and change It will interest researchers and policy makers alike

Journeys on the Silk Road Through Ages—Romance, Legend, Reality Avijeet Bhattacharya, 2017-10-11 Journeys on the Silk Road Through Ages Romance Legend Reality is a compelling narrative about the legendary Silk Road down the ages It takes us back to the nearly forgotten times when the dusty long road was discovered by herders and nomads in search of pastures and oases It was a long trek into the unknown This gradually turned into the fabled Silk Road spanning from China and across Central Asia with its numerous trade routes staging posts caravanserais on the one hand and the rugged landscape through steppes across mountains deserts and nations on the other The Silk Road stood out like a great artery that sustained for centuries The Road with its routes conveyed not only commerce but also ideas and philosophy of the far east China to the far flung Roman Empire in the west drawing from and contributing to other regions and countries that fell along the way Turkestan Afghanistan India Persia Mesopotamia Palestine Phoenicia and Anatolia thus linking the ancient and the medieval worlds It was an enterprise of gigantic proportions the great highway witnessed trade in almost all products with silk precious stones porcelain metals and horses as chief commodities Of these silk was the foremost merchandise that merchants transported on camel caravans and upon mules from the Land of Serica Slaves too were traded Monks and warriors also walked along the trodden path Merchants exchanged goods which made trade possible bringing in a flow of wealth while monks and warriors exchanged philosophy ideas and statecraft despite conflicts and wars The narrative travels back to the times when the road started making history by joining imperial Xi an with imperial Rome a distance of more than 8 000kms during the period of China's Han Dynasty sometime around 200 BC This strangely endured till the present days of Communist China and OBOR deliberating the Chinese Puzzle The book is an adventurous amalgamation of history travel and the unanticipated and not merely a clichéd travel account. It presents a fascinating story of realms, rulers, travellers and merchants both ancient and modern with a captivating collection of anecdotes, lore and current realities from far and wide. Its brilliant web makes the book immensely readable. Marriage, Love, Caste and Kinship Support Shalini Grover, 2017-07-06

This book makes use of interesting case studies and photographs to describe everyday life in a squatter settlement in Delhi. The book helps to understand the marital experiences of these people, most of whom belong to the Scheduled Caste and live in one identified geographical space. The author describes the shifts within their marriages, remarriages and other kinds of unions and their striking diversities which have been described with care. Shalini Grover also examines the close ties of married women with their mothers and natal families. An important contribution of the book lies in the unfolding of the role of women-led informal courts, Mahila Panchayats and their influence in conflict resolution. This takes place in a distinctly different mode of community-based arbitration against the backdrop of mainstream legal structures and male-dominated caste associations. The book will be of interest to students of sociology and social anthropology, gender studies, development studies, law and psychology. Activists and family counsellors will also find the book useful. Journal of the Kerala University Oriental Research Institute & Manuscripts Library, 1902

The Globally Familiar Ethiraj Gabriel Dattatreyan, 2020-09-14

In The Globally Familiar Ethiraj Gabriel Dattatreyan traces how the rapid development of information and communication technologies in India has created opportunities for young people to creatively explore their gendered, classed and racialized subjectivities in and through transnational media worlds. His ethnography focuses on a group of diverse young working-class men in Delhi as they take up the African diasporic aesthetics and creative practices of hip hop. Dattatreyan shows how these aspiring b-boys, MCs and graffiti writers fashion themselves and their city through their online and offline experimentations with hip hop, thereby accessing new social, economic and political opportunities while acting as consumers, producers and influencers in global circuits of capitalism. In so doing, Dattatreyan outlines how the hopeful, creative and vitally embodied practices of hip hop offer an alternative narrative of urban place-making in digital India.

Youth, Class and Education in Urban India David Sancho, 2015-12-22

Urban India is undergoing a rapid transformation which also encompasses the educational sector. Since 1991, this important new market in private English-medium schools along with an explosion of private coaching centres has transformed the lives of children and their families as the attainment of the best education nurtures the aspirations of a growing number of Indian citizens. Set in urban Kerala, the book discusses changing educational landscapes in the South Indian city of Kochi, a local hub for trade, tourism and cosmopolitan middle-class lifestyles. Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork, the author examines the way education features as a major way the transformation of the city and India in general are experienced and envisaged by upwardly mobile residents. Schooling is shown to play a major role in urban lifestyles with increased privatisation representing a response to the educational strategies of a growing and heterogeneous middle class whose educational choices reflect broader projects of class formation within the context of religious and caste diversity particular to the region

This path breaking new study of a changing Indian middle class and new relationships with educational institutions contributes to the growing body of work on the experiences and meanings of schooling for youths their parents and the wider community and thereby adds a unique anthropologically informed perspective to South Asian studies urban studies and the study of education
