Romancing Vietnam Inside The Boat Country:

Romancing Vietnam Justin Wintle, 2006 When the Vietnam War finally ended in April 1975 with the communist capture of Saigon Vietnam itself became a closed country out of bounds to western travellers and journalists By 1989 however such was Vietnam's economic plight that the government decided the time had come to open its doors again albeit most gingerly By a stroke of good fortune Justin Wintle became the first writer from the West to be allowed to journey around the whole of Vietnam This is Justin Wintle's classic account of what he found in postwar Vietnam and how for three months he played cat and mouse with those charged with keeping him in line while developing a profound love for more ordinary Vietnamese and the astonishing landscapes they inhabit

The My Lai Massacre in American History and Memory Kendrick Oliver, 2006 This book examines the response of American society to the My Lai massacre and its ambiguous place in American national memory The author argues that the massacre revelations left many Americans untroubled It was only when the soldiers most immediately responsible came to be tried that opposition to the conflict grew for these prosecutions were regarded by supporters of the war as evidence that the national leaders no longer had the will to do what was necessary to win

On War and Leadership Michael Owen Connolly, 2009-01-10 What can we learn about leadership and the experience of war from the best combat leaders the world has ever known This book takes us behind the scenes and to the front lines of the major wars of the past 250 years through the words of twenty combat commanders What they have to say which is remarkably similar across generational national and ideological divides is a fascinating take on military history by those who lived it It is also worthwhile reading for anyone from any walk of life who makes executive decisions The leaders showcased here range from Frederick the Great to Norman Schwarzkopf They include such diverse figures as Napoleon Bonaparte commanders on both sides of the Civil War William Tecumseh Sherman and Stonewall Jackson German and American World War II generals Rommel and Patton a veteran of the Arab Israeli wars Moshe Dayan and leaders from both sides of the Vietnam War Vo Nguyen Giap and Harold Moore What they have had in common is an unrivaled understanding of the art of command and a willingness to lead from the front All earned the respect and loyalty of those they led and moved them to risk death The practices of these commanders apply to any leadership situation whether military business political athletic or other Their words reveal techniques for anticipating the competition leading through example taking care of the troops staying informed turning bad luck to advantage improvising and making bold decisions Leader after leader emphasizes the importance of up front muddy boots leadership and reveals what it takes to persevere and win Identifying a pattern of proven leadership this book will benefit anyone who aspires to lead a country a squadron a company or a basketball team It is a unique distillation of two and a half centuries of military wisdom

Rethinking the Vietnam War John Dumbrell, 2012-07-19 The Vietnam War is one of the defining conflicts of the twentieth century not only did it divide American society at every level the conflict also represented a key shift in Asian anti colonialism and shaped the course of the Cold War Despite its political and social importance popular memory of the war is dominated by myths and stereotypes In this incisive new text John Dumbrell debunks popular assumptions about the war and reassesses the key political military and historical controversies associated with one of the most contentious and divisive wars of recent times Drawing upon an extensive range of newly accessible sources Rethinking the Vietnam War assesses all aspects of the conflict ranging across domestic electoral politics in the USA to the divided communist leadership in Hanoi and grassroots antiwar movements around the world The book charts the full course of the war from the origins of American involvement the growing internationalization of the conflict and the swing year of 1968 to bitter twists in Sino Soviet rivalry and the eventual withdrawal of American forces Situating the conflict within an international context John Dumbrell also considers competing interpretations of the war and points the way to the resolution of debates which have divided international opinion for decades

The West and the Rest Ross, Ian, 2025-09-22 We tend to view the world beyond these shores on the basis of what the media make of it whether the media of words or of images and long considered or instant Ian Ross offers a welcome change of perspective He spent his career as a senior executive in two controversial industrial sectors tobacco and oil and necessarily sees the world through the lens of business The West and the Rest examines what he gained that we can learn from

Empires at War Francis Pike, 2011-02-28 Asia with four billion people almost two thirds of the world's population a huge landmass and the fastest growing economies has in the past decade transformed the geopolitical global balance Empires at War gives a dramatic narrative account of how this Modern Asia came into being Taking the bombing of Hiroshima on 6th August 1945 as its starting point Francis Pike chronicles the modern fortunes of fourteen Asian countries The iconic figures of post World War II Asia Mao Gandhi Nehru Ho Chi Minh Kim Il Sung General MacArthur and Lord Mountbatten figure prominently but so also do a great many lesser known but pivotal figures Francis Pike weaves the dramatic events and episodes of the region the great battles between American and Soviet backed forces in Korea and Vietnam but also episodes such as Indian Partition Japan's Lost Decade Indonesia's Year of Living Dangerously and Cambodia's Killing Fields into a coherent whole which forms the essential guide to the history of modern Asia

Vietnam Byron E. Holley, 2001 Byron Holley spent the longest year of his young life in Vietnam as surgeon of the 4th Battalion 39th Regiment 9th Infantry Division He lived like a swamp rat in the boonies of the Mekong Delta and his actions were sometimes all that made the difference between life and death Holley never got used to death to seeing men he knew go home in body bags Serving under Col David H Hackworth Holley saw the outfit begin to act more like an elite bunch of Rangers than the rag tag half drunk group it had been He watched Hackworth turn the 4 39 into the fighting and feared Hardcore Recon battalion Now twenty six years later Doc Holley returns to the land of so much pain and suffering his trip a mission to visit the exact location where one of his special friends died in one of the fiercest battles fought in the Mekong Delta What he found will surprise even the most cynical skeptic forgiveness warmth and hospitality from the very people who took his friend
