countries face In this penetrating study Lavinia Stan and Lucian Turcescu investigate the interaction of religion and politics in one such country Romania Facing internal challenges and external competitions from other religions old and new the Orthodox Church in Romania has sought to consolidate its position and ensure Romania's version of democracy recognizes its privileged position of national Church enforcing the Church's stances on issues such as homosexuality and abortion The post communist state and political elite in turn rely on the Church for compliance with educational and cultural policies and to quell the insistent demands of the Hungarian minority for autonomy Stan and Turcescu examine the complex relationship between church and state in this new Romania providing analysis in key areas church collaboration with communist authorities post communist electoral politics nationalism and ethno politics restitution of Greek Catholic property religious education and sexual behavior and reproduction As the first scholars to be given access to confidential materials from the archives of the communist political police the notorious Securitate Stan and Turcescu also examine church archives legislation news reports and interviews with politicians and church leaders This study will move the debate from common analyses of nationalism in isolation to more comprehensive investigations which consider the impact of religious actors on a multitude of other issues relevant to the political and social life of the country Routledge Library Editions: Historiography

Various,2021-06-23 The greatest problem in historical scholarship theoretically and practically is the relation between historians and their subject matter The past is gone and historians can only study its remnants On what basis do scholars select certain facts from the mass of data left from the past How do they explain the interrelationship of the facts they select What criteria do they use to evaluate their subject The 35 volumes in this set originally published between 1926 and 1990 discuss and answer these essential questions faced by historians The development of historical understanding during the 18th and 19th centuries was one of the most striking features of Western culture Both historiography and historical thinking advanced as never before The historical movement of the 19th century was perhaps second only to the scientific revolution of the seventeenth century in transforming Western thought One consequence was extensive organisation and professionalization of research which the volumes in this set reflect A History of Romanian Oil Vol I Gh. The City and the Railway in the World from the Nineteenth Century to the Present Ralf Roth,Paul Van Heesvelde,2022-07-18 This volume explores the relationship between cities and railways over three centuries Despite their nearly 200 year existence The City and the Railway in the World shows that urban railways are still politically and historically important to the modern world Since its inception cities have played a significant role in the railway system cities were among the main reasons for building such efficient but lavish and costly modes of transport for persons goods and information They also influenced the technological appearance of railways as these have had to meet particular demands for transport in urban areas In 25 essays this volume demonstrates that the relationship between the city and the railway is one of the most publicly debated themes in the context of daily lives in growing urban settings as well as in the second urbanisation of the global South with migration from rural to urban landscapes The volume s broad geographical range includes discussions of railway networks railway stations and urban rails in countries such as India Japan England Belgium Romania Nigeria the USA and Mexico The City and the Railway in the World will be a useful tool for scholars interested in the history of transport travel and urban change

Handbook of Religious Culture in Nineteenth-Century Europe
 Anthony Steinhoff, Jeffrey Zalar, 2024-12-30 This handbook offers a guide to research on religious culture during Europe s long nineteenth century 1800 1914 Grounded in the latest theoretical approaches and in line with trends that have produced a religious turn in the study of modern Europe the volume assesses the state of the field while making provocative recommendations for its enlargement Unique and ambitious in its thematic breadth it addresses the histories of all five of Europe s main religious traditions Eastern Orthodox Christianity Judaism Islam Protestantism and Roman Catholicism and brings these histories into comparative analysis This analysis extends to a wide range of subjects from popular belief and practice education and modern knowledge formation and the arts to the intersections between religion and urbanization civil society and politics and missions and imperialism It also evaluates recent developments in work on religion vis vis both gender and nationalism while calling attention to newer research that proposes secularism as a form of belief in its own right Presenting the scholarship of eighteen leaders in their respective fields the volume explains why religion as a topic of research has moved from the periphery to the center of modern European historiography

Jews, Liberalism, Antisemitism Abigail Green, Simon Levis Sullam, 2020-12-05 This is a timely contribution to some of the most pressing debates facing scholars of Jewish Studies today It forces us to re think standard approaches to both antisemitism and liberalism Its geographic scope offers a model for how scholars can provincialize Europe and engage in a transnational approach to Jewish history The book crackles with intellectual energy it is truly a pleasure to read Jessica M Marglin University of Southern California USA Green and Levis Sullam have assembled a collection of original and provocative essays that in illuminating the historic relationship between Jews and liberalism transform our understanding of liberalism itself Derek Penslar Harvard University USA This book offers a strikingly new account of Liberalism s relationship to Jews Previous scholarship stressed that Liberalism had to overcome its abivalence in order to achieve a principled stand on granting Jews rights and equality This volume asserts through multiple examples that Liberalism excluded many groups including Jews so that the exclusion of Jews was indeed integral to Liberalism and constitutive for it This is an important volume with a challenging argument for the present moment David Sorkin Yale University USA The emancipatory promise of liberalism and its exclusionary qualities shaped the fate of Jews in many parts of the world during the age of empire Yet historians have mostly understood the relationship between Jews liberalism and antisemitism as a European story defined by the collapse of liberalism and the Holocaust This volume challenges that perspective by taking a global approach It takes account of recent historical work that explores issues of race discrimination and hybrid identities in colonial and postcolonial settings but which has done so without taking much account of Jews Individual essays explore how liberalism citizenship nationality gender religion race functioned differently in European Jewish heartlands in the Mediterranean peripheries of Spain and the Ottoman empire and in the North American Atlantic world      Development of Class Structure in Eastern Europe Aleksander

Gella,1989-01-01 Emphasizing the development of class structure this book is the first in English to describe the historical and social development of Poland Czechoslovakia Hungary and Romania from medieval feudalism to modern capitalism Historically these countries have maintained mostly peaceful relations among themselves in the past and now share the common characteristic of being Soviet satellites The author has devoted particular attention to Poland because of its unique political system as well as its greater size population and cultural influence The book is divided into three sections part one reviews the early history and social structure of each country part two provides a sociological analysis of social classes and their evolution over centuries and part three examines the effect that World War II has had on these social classes      A Circle of Friends Angela Jianu,2011-03-24 A study of Romanian revolutionaries exiled after the European insurrections of 1848 Drawing on their memoirs and private correspondence it reveals the transnational links they established with French republicans English radicals and Italian freedom fighters in their attempts to build the modern Romanian nation

Liberalism, Constitutional Nationalism, and Minorities Constantin Iordachi,2019-06-17 Winner of the 2019 CEU Award for Outstanding Research This book documents the making of Romanian citizenship from 1750 to 1918 as a series of acts of national self determination by the Romanians as well as the emancipation of subordinated gender social and ethno religious groups It focuses on the progression of a sum of transnational questions that were at the heart of North Atlantic European and local politics during the long nineteenth century concerning the status of peasants women Greeks Jews Roma Armenians Muslims and Dobrudjans The analysis emphasizes the fusion between nationalism and liberalism and the emancipatory impact national liberalism had on the transition from the Old Regime to the modern order of the nation state While emphasizing liberalism s many achievements the study critically scrutinizes the liberal doctrine of legal political capacity and the dark side of nationalism marked by tendencies toward exclusion It highlights the challenges nascent liberal democracies face in the process of consolidation and the enduring appeal of illiberalism in periods of upheaval represented mainly by nativism The book s innovative interdisciplinary approach to citizenship in the Ottoman and post Ottoman Balkans and the richness of the sources employed appeal to a diverse readership      Arabic Printing for the Christians in Ottoman

Lands Ioana Feodorov,2023-10-04 Arabic printing began in Eastern Europe and the Ottoman Levant through the association of the scholar and printer Antim the Iberian later a metropolitan of Wallachia and Athanasios III Dabb s twice patriarch of Antioch when the latter as metropolitan of Aleppo was sojourning in Bucharest This partnership resulted in the first Greek and Arabic editions of the Book of the Divine Liturgies Snagov 1701 and the Horologion Bucharest 1702 With the tools and expertise that he acquired in Wallachia Dabb s established in Aleppo in 1705 the first Arabic type press in the Ottoman Empire After the Church of Antioch divided into separate Greek Orthodox and Greek Catholic Patriarchates in 1724 a new press was opened for Arabic speaking Greek Catholics by Abdall h Z ir in in ra r al uwayr Lebanon Likewise in 1752 1753 a press active at the Church of Saint George in Beirut printed Orthodox books that preserved elements of the Aleppo editions and were reprinted for decades This book tells the story of the first Arabic type presses in the Ottoman Empire which provided church books to the Arabic speaking Christians irrespective of their confession through the efforts of ecclesiastical leaders such as the patriarchs Silvester of Antioch and Sofronios II of Constantinople and financial support from East European rulers like prince Constantin Br ncoveanu and hetman Ivan Mazepa Ana Pauker Robert Levy,2001-03-22 In her own day Ana Pauker was named The Most Powerful Woman in the World by Time magazine Today when she is remembered at all she is thought of as the puppet of Soviet communism in Romania blindly enforcing the most brutal and repressive Stalinist regime Robert Levy s new biography changes the picture dramatically revealing a woman of remarkable strength dominated by conflict and contradiction far more than by dogmatism Telling the story of Pauker s youth in an increasingly anti Semitic environment her commitment to a revolutionary career and her rise in the Romanian Communist movement Levy makes no attempt to whitewash Pauker s life and actions but rather explores every contour of the complicated persona he found expressed in masses of newly accessible archival documents Helfer der Armen - Hüter der Öffentlichkeit / Guardians of the Poor - Custodians of the Public Sabine Hering,Berteke Waaldijk,2006-03-27 The bi lingual book describes the results of case studies about the history of social work in Eastern Europe between 1900 and 1960 in eight countries Bulgaria Croatia Hungary Latvia Poland Romania Russia and Slovenia In diesem zweisprachigen Buch geht es um die Zusammenfassung der Ergebnisse eines Forschungsprojekts ber die Geschichte der Sozialen Arbeit in Osteuropa in den Jahren zwischen 1900 und 1960 an dem acht L nder beteiligt waren Bulgarien Kroatien Lettland Polen Rum nien Russland Slowenien und Ungarn
