Migration, Mobility and Human Rights at the Eastern Border of the European Union Grigore Silași, 2008      Romania & Moldova Nicola Williams, 1998 This comprehensive guide to the least explored corner of Europe provides a candid historical political and cultural background of Romania and Moldova offers a rundown of outdoor activities available including trekking routes and the best skiing plus extensive information on getting around and finding places to stay and eat for any budget of color photos 100 maps      The States of Eastern Europe Francis W. Carter, David Turnock, 1999 The rapidly changing political situation in Eastern Europe has created the need for a survey of the political map This two volume work is compiled of essays on each country with consideration of the background to their existence as unitary states based on a sense of nationhood The aim is to profile each of the nations of Eastern Europe excluding the former German Democratic Republic and former Soviet Union successor states since the complexity of these two areas calls for a separate volume Volume I deals with the states of North Eastern Europe and Volume II deals with South Eastern Europe The essays offer a concise evaluation of the territorial base and the critical events which have been significant for the development of the national identity and the creation of the state      Bibliographic Guide to Maps and Atlases Gale Group, 2001-07      Recent Demographic Developments in Europe 2005 Council of Europe, 2006-01-01 Recent demographic developments in Europe is an annual Council of Europe publication presenting the latest available information on population developments in 47 European states the size of the population and its rate of increase rates of migration marriage and divorce fertility and mortality and the size of the foreign population It is prepared by the European Population Committee which is the Council of Europe's intergovernmental body responsible for demographic information and analysis in co operation with national statistics offices The report contains an introduction with an executive summary and a Europe wide comparative review The accompanying interactive CD ROM provides a short national report for each country with tables presenting the latest developments in the main demographic indicators and a pyramid describing the age structure of the population in each of the 47 European countries covered      Cave and Karst Systems of Romania Gheorghe M. L. Ponta, Bogdan P. Onac, 2018-07-04 This book focuses on Romania's more than 12 000 caves which developed in limestone including thermal water caves salt gypsum and occasionally in sandstone It examines these caves and related topics in a format suitable for cavers while also addressing a broad range of aspects useful for students and researchers Since the Institute of Speleology was first established by Emil Racovita in 1920 a great deal of research has been conducted on all cave and karst types As such the book examines a variety of scientific fields including karst geology hydrogeology biospeleology paleoclimatology mineralogy and archaeology      Eastern Europe, 2007      3rd Conference of Prosecutors General of Europe Council of Europe, 2002-01-01 This publication presents the proceedings of the third conference of Prosecutors General and other senior prosecutors throughout Europe which was held in Slovenia in May 2002 The conference discussed the role of public prosecution in the criminal justice system in the light of Recommendation Rec 2000 19 of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe In particular it examines the relations between public prosecutors and the judiciary as well as the issue of ethics of individual prosecutors

The Ottomans and Eastern Europe Michal Wasiucionek, 2019-06-27 In the seventeenth century previously peaceful relations between the Ottoman Empire and the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth deteriorated into a series of military confrontations over the principalities of Moldavia and Wallachia Although scholars have generally interpreted this rivalry in terms of conflicting geopolitical interests this state centred approach ignores one of the most important developments of the period the devolution of power away from rulers and formal institutions towards political factions Drawing on Ottoman Polish and Romanian sources The Ottomans and Eastern Europe explores the complex interplay between regional politics and the rise of factionalism focusing on cross border patronage between Ottoman Polish Lithuanian and Moldavian elites By approaching the history of the region from a factional rather than state centred perspective this book investigates an alternative geography of power defined by personal interactions that straddled religious political and social boundaries between the elites Wasiucionek reveals the way in which these interactions not only shaped the Ottoman Polish rivalry over Moldavia but also influenced political culture throughout the region Published in Association with the British Institute at Ankara
