Romanian Studies At The Turn Of The Century:

Romanian Studies at the Turn of the Century Kurt W. Treptow, 2022-06      Romanian Studies at the Turn of the Century Kurt W. Treptow, 2000 As the twentieth century has come to a close it is an important moment to reflect on the current status of Romanian studies and future directions that research in the various fields of Romanian studies should take at the beginning of the new millennium This volume is a collection of studies presented by Romanian British and American scholars at the Fifth International Conference of the Center for Romanian Studies held in Iasi Romania from 28 June to 1 July 1999 Articles included Alan Ogden English Travellers to Romania in the Early Twentieth Century Alice Forbess Tradition versus Transformation Theoretical Understandings of Post Socialist Change in Romania and Eastern Europe Liviu Groza Continuitate in cultura romaneasca postbelica Diana Fotescu Evolutia conceptelor si principiilor constitutionale in centrul si sud estul Europei 1919 1938 Cornelia Bodea Memoriei profesorului George G Ursul Marin Marian Balasa Romanian Folkloristics Abroad Sorina Bolovan Ioan Bolovan Cercetarile romanesti de demografie istorica la sfarsit de mileniu Ileana Orlich The Role of Romanian and Central East European Studies in American Universities at the Dawn of the New Millenium Paul Quinlan Moldova under Lucinschi The First Two Years Dumitru Sandru Istoriografia problemei agrare n Romania perioada comunista Sabina Crisen National Identity and Cultural Self Definition Modern and Post Modern Romanian Artistic Expression and many others      Modernism in Settings Ramona Simuț, 2024-11-26 This book is analytical and often critical about the subject it investigates including literary and cultural aesthetics social and political literatures national identity speeches and the psychoanalytic theory of language Modernism in Settings attempts to reevaluate some important debates in those fields either from the 19th 20th centuries or otherwise Debates at that at the time often failed to take into consideration their full philosophical social theological or political implications The book is primarily aimed at teachers and researchers interested in issues related to modernism within humanities and cultural studies It discusses works by writers including James Joyce and Edgar Allan Poe and philosophers and critics including Julia Kristeva and Wolf Lepenies and covers issues including feminism technology and psychoanalysis      Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom Raluca Goleșteanu-Jacobs, 2023-12-01 This comparative attempt intended for postgraduates and scholars of Eastern Central Europe investigates the political economic and cultural landscape of Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom in the second half of the 19th century Often in historiography and in the public sphere alike the two cases under study have been separately regarded as contexts that provided atypical answers to modernity and parts of a region that has been regarded as atypical in itself Recently efforts have been made to integrate each of the cases in a post imperial paradigm identifying the complex interactions between their socio political modernisation and historical memory This book continues this trend by investigating for the first time the two cases together as parts of a space of alterity as labs of shifting ideologies and labels The public figures and the institutions depicted in the book are physically located in Central and in Eastern Europe but by sometimes competing experiences they are illustrative for several identities and historical realms local regional and continental Secondly the current work addresses dilemmas related to Nationalism and nation building for the sake of separating those discourses which reflected on civic nationalism from those which directed the public mind to the values of ethnic nationalism

Handbook of Research on Translating Myth and Reality in Women Imagery Across Disciplines Ciolăneanu, Roxana, Marinescu, Roxana-Elisabeta, 2020-11-13 Women have been represented in art literature music and more for decades with the image of the woman changing through time and across cultures However rarely has a multidisciplinary approach been taken to examine this imagery and challenge and possibly reinterpret old women related myths and other taken for granted aspects e g grammatically inclusive gender Moreover this approach can better place the ideologies as myth creators and propagators identify and deconstruct stereotypes and prejudices and compare them across cultures with the view to spot universal vs culturally specific approaches as far as women s studies and interpretations are concerned It is important to gather these perspectives to translate and unveil new interpretations to old ideas about women and the feminine that are universally accepted as absolute impossible to challenge and invalidated truths The Handbook of Research on Translating Myth and Reality in Women Imagery Across Disciplines is a comprehensive reference book that provides an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspective on the perception and reception of women across time and space It tackles various perspectives gender studies linguistic studies literature and cultural studies discourse analysis philosophy anthropology sociology etc Its main objective is to present new approaches and propose new answers to old questions related to gender inequalities stereotypes and prejudices about women and their place in the world Covering significant themes that include the ethics of embodiment myth of motherhood at the crossroad of ideologies translation of women s experiences and ideas across cultures and discourses on women s rehabilitation and dignification across centuries this book is critical for linguists professionals researchers academicians and students working in the fields of women s studies gender studies cultural studies and literature as well as other related categories such as political studies education studies philosophy and the social sciences

Romania ,1973      Studies on the Romanian Political Elite from Transylvania and Hungary (1861-1918) Popovici Vlad, 2012-01-01 The present work contains a number of prosopographic and statistical studies regarding the elite of the Romanian national movement in Transylvania between 1861 and 1918 chronologically ordered in the form of chapters and accompanied by a high number of tables and graphs The interested reader should find the entire composition of the Romanian national movement s leadership minimal biographical data about the members of the elite year of birth denomination place of residence profession and so on as well as the analysis of some statistical indicators meant to illustrate its evolution This book was not intended to be a history of the Romanian political elite in Transylvania and Hungary nor a substitute for the lack of such a history Its content is rather technical being conceived firstly for historians mainly for those outside Romania whose access to the multitude of local biographical sources is limited It can be viewed as a commented catalogue of part of the elite

Boyash Studies: Researching "Our People" Annemarie Sorescu-Marinković, Thede Kahl, Biljana Sikimić, 2021-01-22 The Boyash also known as Rudari Lingurari or inclusively as oamenii no tri our people are an ethnic group living today in scattered communities in the Balkans Central and Eastern Europe but also in the Americas What brings the disperse communities of Boyash together is their Romanian mother tongue memory of traditional occupation common historical origin and the fact that the majority population considers them Gypsies Roma A marginal topic until now at the crossroads between Romani and Romanian studies the Boyash studies are today an interdisciplinary field dealing with the experiences of the Boyash over time in Romania and all the places where they have settled The editors of this volume intend to mark two centuries of scholarly interest in the Boyash by bringing together researchers from different fields summing up existing literature and bringing new research to the forefront

Manual of Standardization in the Romance Languages Franz Lebsanft, Felix Tacke, 2020-01-20 Language standardization is an ongoing process based on the notions of linguistic correctness and models This manual contains thirty six chapters that deal with the theories of linguistic norms and give a comprehensive up to date description and analysis of the standardization processes in the Romance languages The first section presents the essential approaches to the concept of linguistic norm ranging from antiquity to the present and includes individual chapters on the notion of linguistic norms and correctness in classical grammar and rhetoric in the Prague School in the linguistic theory of Eugenio Coseriu in sociolinguistics as well as in pragmatics cognitive and discourse linguistics The second section focuses on the application of these notions with respect to the Romance languages It examines in detail the normative grammar and the normative dictionary as the reference tools for language codification and modernization of those languages that have a long and well established written tradition i e Romanian Italian French Catalan Spanish and Portuguese Furthermore the volume offers a discussion of the key issues regarding the standardization of the minor Romance languages as well as Creoles Physicians and Their Literary Work Mirela Radu,2025-02-25 Our monograph is an attempt to connect the study of world and Romanian literature with medicine completing the research up to now with a new perspective on the way in which the medical studies of the analyzed authors influenced their literary creation This research brings into discussion important and pressing aspects of medicine and literature and shows how in the modern world the two can intertwine We set out to analyze the literature produced by professionals of medicine By way of multidisciplinary approach the author has analyzed the way the doctors were able to build a system of thought and creation with its own identity in the horizon of literature Transforming into missionaries of culture and by combining custom and the most recent scientific conquest doctors best respond to the desire of complete intellectuals The proposed work is addressed both to professionals in the field of philology and to doctors who want to understand how artistic creativity can change their way of perceiving the human being Hidden Multilingualism in 19th-Century European Literature Jana-Katharina Mende,2023-08-21 The disparagement of multilingualism is a European development of the 18th and 19th centuries in which one national language and national literature were advocated established and institutionalised Multilingual writers made use of the creative potential of several languages even then However they often adapted to an increasingly monolingual book market which made their individual multilingualism invisible This is evident in literary historiography which established a monolingual national canon Researching hidden multilingualism is often difficult since multilingual texts by multilingual writers were often not published or were published in a monolingual version sources are scarce Literary histories of the time often do not mention multilingualism Furthermore many multilingual writers were members of minority groups women Jewish Non European and thus often neglected The volume offers methods and theories to systematically approach this hidden material as well as case studies on authors and national literatures in a multilingual context It thus contributes to the restructuring of a multilingual transnational literary history that is applicable to different philologies University Writing: Selves and Texts in Academic Societies Montserrat Castelló,Christiane Donahue,2012-02-03 University Writing Selves and Texts in Academic Societies examines new trends in the different theoretical perspectives cognitive social and cultural and derived practices in the activity of writing in higher education These perspectives are analyzed on the basis of their conceptualization of the object academic and scientific writing of the writers their identities attitudes and perspectives be it students teachers or researchers and of the derived instructional practices the ways in which the teaching learning situations may be organized The volume samples writing research traditions and perspectives both in Europe and the United States working on their situated nature and avoiding easy or superficial comparisons in order to enlarge our understanding of common problems and some emerging possibilities

The Routledge Handbook of the Crimean War Candan Badem, 2021-09-15 The Routledge Handbook of the Crimean War is an edited collection of articles on the various aspects of the Crimean War written by distinguished historians from various countries Part I focuses on diplomatic military and regional perspectives Part II includes contributions on social cultural and international issues around the war All contributions are based upon findings of the latest research While not pretending to be an exhaustive encyclopaedia of this first modern war the present volume captures the most important topics and the least researched areas in the historiography of the war The book incorporates new approaches in national historiographies to the war and is intended to be the most up to date reference book on the subject Chapters are devoted to each of the belligerent powers and to other peripheral states that were involved in one way or another in the war The volume also gives more attention to the Ottoman Empire which is generally neglected in European books on the war Both the general public and students of history will find the book useful balanced and up to date

Re-Configuring Romanian Culture on its Way Towards Modernity Alexandra Chiriac, 2022-09-26 As a direct result of an international conference organized in the year 2021 the volume tries to shed light on the way in which the translation activity contributed to the Romanian culture and language drawing from different traditions and cultures it came in contact with directly or indirectly and thus mingling the own Slavonic church tradition with the new and revolutionary ideas of the Western world and using this mix to modernise the society language and the politics in this region Furthermore this eclectic collection of articles highlights the fact that it was neither the exclusive merit of the Transylvanian scholars nor of the Moldavian or Wallachian ones to have contributed decisively to the formation of the national consciousness and to the standardisation of the language but it was rather the collaboration the circulation of people and ideas that furthered the modernity in all three Romanian Principalities Without disregarding the regional specificity of the Romanian Enlightenment the volume focuses on the interconnections of the agents involved in the cultural transfer on the networks they created for the dissemination of knowledge and political thought and on the common effort to render the new ideas and concepts of the foreign cultures in a national language that could be accessible to the Romanians

Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes      Leisure and Elite Formation Peter Heyrman, Jan de Maeyer, Martin

Kohlrausch, 2020-05-05 This volume investigates places where old and new elites came together where these groups met and interacted but also where the rules and conventions for new elites were forged The book focusses arenas of encounter and self representation belonging to the world of leisure and embraces also the organizations and associations which established and ran these spaces and events      World War I and the Birth of a New World Order Ioan Bolovan, Oana Mihaela

Tămaş, 2020-02-26 This volume will serve to enrich the reader's understanding of the impact of World War I on Eastern Europe by bringing together authors from all over Europe specialising in the history of this area It presents a retrospective approach and a re evaluation of this event the lasting effects of which still make themselves felt in some regions today Case studies memoirs journals and the printed press of the time are all examined in order to paint a vivid picture of the Great War in Eastern Europe and particularly in Romania The chapters offer fresh perspectives on topics connected to the war including the contribution of women and the emancipation opportunities for them the social changes that occurred and the propaganda in Romanian territory They also review the League of Nations and the protection of international minorities particularly in those regions where new boundaries were created and where the application of national self determination still left substantial communities outside the frontiers of the respective states      Cross-Disciplinary Approaches to the English

Language Crina Herteg, Rodica Pioariu, Teodora Popescu, 2011-09-22 Cross Disciplinary Approaches to the English Language Theory and Practice provides an overview of a less tackled field of research namely the main issues at stake when teaching English Language and Culture in Romania The approach is an interdisciplinary and cross cultural one as the authors investigate problems offering and probing solutions from a cross curricular perspective The book is a collection of 10 contributions by teachers and researchers from Romania which draw on theoretical and applied methodological explorations into the challenges posed by teaching learning English in a globalised context Organised into three main chapters the volume addresses the multifacetedness of language education as a cross discipline The complexity and universality of the research enquiries and practical insights make the topics addressed valid across the contemporary globalising educational context Cross Disciplinary Approaches to the English Language Theory and Practice will be a useful tool to specialists and practitioners from ESP and CLIL domains alike as well as graduate and postgraduate students in foreign language teaching
