History May Hawas, 2018-04-19 The Routledge Companion to World Literature and World History is a comprehensive and engaging volume combining essays from historians and literary academics to create a space for productive cross cultural encounters between the two fields In addition to the 27 essays the Companion includes general introductions from two of the leading scholars of history and literature David Damrosch and Patrick Manning as well as personal testimonies from artists working in the area and editorials asking provocative questions The volume includes sections on People with essays looking at World Literature Intellectual Commerce Religion language and war and Indigenous ethnography Networks and methods examining maps geography morality and the crises of world literature Transformations including essays on race colonialism and the non human Interdisciplinary and groundbreaking this volume brings to light various ways in which scholars of literature and history analyse assimilate or reveal the intellectual heritage of the past at the same moment as they try consciously to deal with an unending amount of new information and an awareness of global connections and discrepancies Including work from leading academics in the field as well as newer voices the Companion is ideal for students and scholars alike

Salonnières, Furies, and Fairies, revised edition Anne E. Duggan, 2021-08-27 The original edition of Salonnières Furies and Fairies published in 2005 was a pathbreaking work of early modern literary history exploring women's role in the rise of the fairy tale and their use of this new genre to carve out roles as major contributors to the literature of their time This new edition with a new introduction and a forward by acclaimed scholar Allison Stedman emphasizes the scholarly legacy of Anne Duggan's original work and its continuing field changing implications The book studies the works of two of the most prolific seventeenth century women writers Madeleine de Scudéry and Marie Catherine d'Aulnoy Analyzing their use of the novel the chronicle and the fairy tale Duggan examines how Scudéry and d'Aulnoy responded to and participated in the changes of their society but from different generational and ideological positions This study also takes into account the history of the salon an unofficial institution that served as a locus for elite women's participation in the cultural and literary production of their society In order to highlight the debates that emerged with the increased participation of aristocratic women within the public sphere the book also explores the responses of two academicians Nicolas Boileau and Charles Perrault
