

A painting of a tropical scene. In the foreground, there are large, dark green palm fronds. In the middle ground, a white building with a thatched roof is visible. In the background, there is a blue sky and a body of water. The text "ALL THAT HAS VALUE" is written in a serif font across the middle of the image.

Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century Joan Murray, 1999-11 Joan Murray discusses social and political events in combination with the movements ideas attitudes styles and important groups in Canadian art of this century

Contemporary Canadian Artists ,1997 Fuse Magazine ,1999 Canadian Periodical Index ,1996 Faking Death Penny Cousineau-Levine, 2003 In Faking Death Penny Cousineau Levine examines the work of over 120 Canadian photographers revealing important aspects of Canadian identity and imagination Contrasting Canadian photography with American and European traditions she shows that Canadian photographers are often preoccupied with a place that is elsewhere a doubling and duality that also occurs in Canadian literature film and political life Subverting the documentary tradition and other stylistic idioms for their own distinctive ends Canadian photographers exhibit an ambivalent preoccupation with death and dying bondage and entrapment Cousineau Levine argues that this is characteristically a faked death that expresses a collective Canadian wish for a symbolic passage to national maturity Faking Death includes 16 colour reproductions and 150 duotones by artists such as Raymonde April Jeff Wall Lynne Cohen Charles Gagnon Evergon Michel Lambeth Thaddeus Holownia Geoffrey James Genevi ve Cadieux Shelley Niro Diana Thorneycroft Jin me Yoon Ian Wallace and Ken Lum By bringing together this many Canadian works Faking Death provides a compelling visual introduction to one of Canada s most vibrant and internationally recognized artistic media It is an invaluable tool for curators artists teachers students and scholars in art history fine arts Canadian studies film communications literature and cultural studies

Non-affirmative Theory of Education and Bildung Michael Uljens, 2023-07-14 Interpreting the modern heritage of Bildung in connection to education theory this open access volume explores non affirmative theory of education and Bildung as a language of education for the 21st century In this Bildung centered view of education discerning thought on knowledge and values are critical objectives of education To promote these aims education practice must recognize but not affirm existing conditions or future ideals but instead pedagogically summon the student to self directed critical treatment of the contents Drawing on contemporary developments of modern education theory especially as developed by Dietrich Benner in Berlin the volume highlight how educative teaching aims at supporting the growth of the individual as a person and citizen The volume shows how it is possible to identify a position beyond education either as a mere transformative or a reproductive power Instead of such an instrumentalism education is seen as a critical societal practice necessary for reflexive action and democracy In different ways the chapters demonstrate how non affirmative theory offer an alternative to contemporary neo liberal and conservative policies The non affirmative approach offers a strong education theory relationally connecting the interactive level of teaching studying and learning with the societal level and educational governance Non affirmative theory on education and Bildung provides an elaborate point of departure for empirical research on teaching and educational leadership teacher education and policy making In five sections the volume highlights how non affirmative education theory relate to Didaktik educative teaching school didactics democratic education and social justice The approach is also analysed in relation to phenomenology sociology hermeneutics cultural historical activity theory discursive institutionalism empirical research educational leadership and governance and 21st century competencies Chapter On Affirmativity and Non affirmativity in the Context of Theories of Education and Bildung is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial NoDerivatives 4.0 International License via link springer.com The American Bookseller ,1884

Economy Ron Martin,2017-11-30 Economic geographers have always argued that space is key to understanding the economy that the processes of economic growth and development do not occur uniformly across geographic space but rather differ in degree and form as between different nations regions cities and localities with major implications for the geographies of wealth and welfare This was true in the industrial phase of global capitalism and is no less true in the contemporary era of post industrial knowledge driven global capitalism Indeed the marked changes occurring in the structure and operation of the economy in the sources of wealth creation in the organisation of the firm in the nature of work in the boundaries between market and state and in the regulation of the socio economy have stimulated an unprecedented wave of theoretical conceptual and empirical enquiry by economic geographers Even economists who traditionally have viewed the economy in non spatial terms as existing on the head of the proverbial pin are increasingly recognising the importance of space place and location to understanding economic growth technological innovation competitiveness and globalisation This collection of previously published work though containing but a fraction of the huge explosion in research and publication that has occurred over the past two decades seeks to convey a sense of this exciting phase in the intellectual development of the discipline and its importance in grasping the spatialities of contemporary economic life Congressional Record United States.
