Behold! A Royal Army R. Dean Lang,2023-07-24 The war in heaven is not over it has only changed venues In the preexistence we each and everyone of us exercised our faith in the future sacrifice of Jesus Christ Satan and his followers were cast out Those who exercised their agency and chose to follow Jesus beginning with Adam and Eve have been given the wonderful privilege of coming here to mortality to receive physical bodies to rediscover our faith in Jesus Christ and to grow in righteousness through the exercise of our agency as we choose to follow His commandments These are exciting times These are the last days and the spiritual battle for the souls of the sons and daughters of God rages on around us If we are to be successful in preserving not only ourselves but our families amidst these tumultuous times then we must be informed We must be vigilant and above all we must be prepared The teachings of both ancient and latter day prophets have been preserved to that end to help us be prepared and to enable us to be victorious in our battles

Arthur in Early Welsh Poetry Nerys Ann Jones,2019-07-12 For over a thousand years Arthur has had widespread appeal and influence like no other literary character or historical figure Yet despite the efforts of modern scholars the earliest references to Arthurian characters are still shrouded in uncertainty They are mostly found in poetic texts scattered throughout the four great compilations of early and medieval Welsh literature produced between 1250 and 1350 Whilst some are thought to predate their manuscript sources by several centuries many of these poems are notoriously difficult to date None of them are narrative in nature and very few focus solely on Arthurian material but they are characterised by an allusiveness which would have been appreciated by their intended audiences in the courts of princes and noblemen the length and breadth of Wales They portray Arthur in a variety of roles as a great leader of armies a warrior with extraordinary powers slayer of magical creatures rescuer of prisoners from the Otherworld a poet and the subject of prophecy They also testify to the possibility of lost tales about him his father Uthr his son Llachau his wife Gwenhwyfar and one of his companions Cai and associate him with a wide array of both legendary and historical figures Arthur in Early Welsh Poetry the fourth volume in the MHRA Library of Medieval Welsh Literature series provides discussion of each of the references to Arthurian characters in early Welsh poetic sources together with an image from the earliest manuscript a transliteration a comprehensive edition a translation where possible and a word list The nine most significant texts are interpreted in more detail with commentary on metrical linguistic and stylistic features
