Rubens's Landscapes Making And Meaning:

Rubens's Landscapes Christopher Brown, 1998-08 Christopher Brown takes a fresh look at the development of Rubens's landscape paintings re-examining their chronology and their construction and reconsidering the works in the context of Rubens's life and artistic concerns He begins his survey by placing the landscapes in the tradition of Flemish landscape painting in particular showing their relationship to the work of Pieter Bruegel the Elder whose Flight into Egypt was owned by Rubens He looks at Rubens's early landscapes completed in the years following his return from Italy in 1608 immediately raising one of the principal themes of the book how these paintings were made A chapter is devoted to Landscape with Het Steen in which he describes Rubens's life as a country gentleman his purchase of the estate of Het Steen and the time he spent there in the 1630s with his second wife and young family and discusses the composition of Landscape with Het Steen and its pendant the Landscape with a Rainbow now in the Wallace Collection London He also considers Rubens's pastoral landscapes of the 1630s showing how their mood was influenced by classical literature Rubens's working methods his drawing from nature his adaptation of landscape motifs in the studio his use of oil sketches are compared with contemporary landscape practice and in a chapter on the making of the landscapes Dr Brown describes the construction preparation and the ground of the panels Rubens used for his landscape paintings and the panelmakers who made them Finally he considers the last years at Het Steen and the ways in which Rubens's essentially private landscape paintings were made known during his lifetime and later for example through engravings and looks at the influence of these works on British painters particularly Gainsborough and Constable

Making and Meaning - Rubens's Landscapes Peter Paul Rubens, Christopher Brown, 1997 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577-1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547-1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600-08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter-long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close-looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker

Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age

"Rubens, Vel?uez, and the King of Spain " Larry Silver, 2017-07-05 This study provides a new analysis of the pictorial ensemble of the Torre de la Parada the hunting lodge of King Philip IV of Spain Created in the late 1630s by a group of artists led by Peter Paul Rubens this cycle of mythological imagery and hunting scenes was completed by Diego Vel uez Despite the lack of a written program surviving works provide eloquent testimony of several basic themes that embody Neostoic ideals of self restraint and prudent governance While Rubens set the moral tone through his serio comic Ovidian narratives Vel uez added an important grace note with his portraits of ancient philosophers and royals and fools of the court This study is the first to consider in depth their joint artistic contributions and shared ambition Through analysis of individual works the authors situate these pictorial inventions within broader intellectual currents in both Spanish Flanders and Spain especially in the advice literature and drama presented to the Spanish king Moreover they point to the lasting resonance of Torre de la Parada for Vel uez especially within his late masterworks Las Meninas and Las Hilanderas Ultimately this study illuminates the dialogical nature of this ensemble in which Rubens and Vel uez offer a set of complementary views on subjects ranging from the nature of classical gods to the role of art as a mirror of the prince

color chemistry Art History and Visual Studies in Europe ,2012-06-22 Reflection on the history and practice of art history has long been a major topic of research and scholarship and this volume builds on this tradition by offering a critical survey of many of the major developments in the contemporary discipline such as the impact of digital technologies the rise of visual studies or new initiatives in conservation theory and practice Alongside these methodological issues this book addresses the mostly neglected question of the impact of national contexts on the development of the discipline Taking a wide range of case studies this book examines the impact of the specific national political institutional and ideological demands on the practice of art history The result is an account that both draws out common features and also highlights the differences and the plurality of practices that together constitute art history as a discipline The Long Picturesque, or Unraveling the Rules of Art Patricia Emison,2024-10-16 This book provides a Renaissance art historian's view of how the picturesque aesthetic developed from roots in the sixteenth century mostly in painting but with ramifications for printmaking landscape design and architecture and further how the picturesque aesthetic fundamentally changed the relationship between art and nature between viewer and image The book's argument is based on wide reading of obscure yet piquant critical texts mostly of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries together with consideration of varied works of art ranging from Fra Angelico to Raphael and Michelangelo and from Rubens to Canaletto and from James Gibbs to Jacques Demy all of them studied not for their place in the history of style but for their spatial imagination The Collected Letters of Sir George and Lady Beaumont to the Wordsworth Family, 1803-1829 Jessica Fay,2021 This edition presents and fully contextualizes an archive of letters that reveal the creative and personal significance of the friendship between William Wordsworth and Sir George Beaumont Spanning twenty six years this inter familial correspondence comprises discussion of literature and painting gardening and theatre politics and religion grief hope and aspiration Painting the Word John Drury,2002-01-01 In this beautifully written book Drury an Anglican priest and theologian looks at religious paintings through the ages and presents them in a fresh way as works filled with passion stories and meaning 100 illustrations 70 in color Rubens and the Netherlands Jan de Jong,2006 The Flemish baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens was the most renowned northern European artist of his day and is now widely recognized as one of the foremost painters in Western art history By completing the fusion of the realistic tradition of Flemish painting with the imaginative freedom and classical themes of Italian Renaissance painting he fundamentally revitalized and redirected northern European painting Most accounts of Peter Paul Rubens represent the artist in his cosmopolitan European setting in line with his demonstrable interests and ambitions Although such interpretations are typically attentive to the ways in which political socioeconomic and cultural circumstances and traditions in the Netherlands affected his persona and work the interaction between Netherlandish contingencies and translocal ambition has rarely been the sustained object of Ruben's studies In Dutch and English The Art, Science, and Technology of Medieval Travel Robert Odell Bork,Andrea Kann,2008 This sixth volume in the AVISTA series considers medieval travel from a variety of interdisciplinary perspectives placing the physical practice of transportation in the larger context of medieval thought about the world and its meaning The papers included cover vehicle design and logistical management the practicalities of how travellers oriented themselves and the symbolism of the landscapes and maps created in the Middle Ages
