Say The Sound Practice

Carla J. Maier

Say The Sound Practice:

Sound Practice Lyn Layton, Karen Deeny, 2013-08-16 The second edition of Sound Practice looks afresh at how young children can be helped to discover basic facts about an alphabetic spelling system within the context of their developing spoken language It examines why children might fail to understand letter sound links the origins of severe and persistent difficulties with achieving functional literacy skills and developmental processes underpinning the areas of learning identified in national initiatives for promoting children's learning The book also discusses the need for differentiation strategies to respond to individual children's learning needs within national initiatives and techniques and approaches that can be effectively applied to fulfil curriculum objectives Phonological awareness is the key to independent literacy and must be explicitly tackled in the classroom in order to promote early reading and writing and to address written language difficulties in older children This book is a suitable resource for initial and in service training for teachers and teaching assistants and includes photocopiable worksheets

Sound Practices in the Global South Budhaditya Chattopadhyay, 2022-08-01 This book develops a comprehensive understanding of the unique sound worlds of key regions in the Global South through an auto ethnographic method of self reflective conversations with prominent sound practitioners from South Asia Africa the Middle East and Latin America The conversations navigate various trajectories of sound practices illuminating intricate sonic processes of listening thinking through sounds ideating exposing and performing with sound This collection of conversations constitutes the main body of the book including critical and scholarly commentaries on aural cultures sound theory and production The book builds a ground up approach to nurturing knowledge about aural cultures and sonic aesthetics moving beyond the Eurocentric focus of contemporary sound studies Instead of understanding sound practices through consumption and entertainment they are explored as complex cultural and aesthetic systems working directly with the practitioners themselves who largely contribute to the development of the sonic methodologies Refocusing on the working methods of practitioners the book reveals a tension between the West s predominant colonial consumerist cultures and the collective desires of practitioners to resist colonial models of listening by expressing themselves in terms of their arts and craft and their critical faculties Conversations with Clarence Barlow Sandeep Bhagwati Rajesh K Mehta Sharif Sehnaoui Ximena Alarcón D az Hardi Kurda Mario de Vega Luka Mukhavele Khyam Allami Cedrik Fermont Khaled Kaddal David Velez Juan Duarte Youmna Saba Abdellah M Hassak Mariana Marcassa Amanda Gutierrez Syma Tariq Alma Laprida Siamak Anvari Mohamad Safa Debashis Sinha Zouheir Atbane Constanza Bizraelli Jatin Vidyarthi Joseph Kamaru Surabhi Saraf Isuru Kumarasinghe Hemant Sreekumar
