Louons Maintenant Les Grands Hommes Let Us Now Praise Famous Men In French:

The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth-Century French Literature Alison James, 2020-09-03 The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth Century French Literature identifies a documentary impulse in French literature that emerges at the end of the nineteenth century and culminates in a proliferation of factual writings in the twenty first Focusing on the period bookended by these two moments it highlights the enduring concern with factual reference in texts that engage either with current events or the historical archive Specifically it considers a set of ideas and practices centered on the conceptualization and use of documents In doing so it contests the widespread narrative that twentieth century French literature abandons the realist enterprise and argues that writers instead renegotiate the realist legacy outside or at the margins of the fictional space of the novel Analyzing works by authors including Gide Breton Aragon Yourcenar Duras and Modiano the book defines a specific documentary mode of literary representation that records assembles and investigates material traces of reality The document is a textual visual or material piece of evidence repurposed through its visual insertion textual transcription or description within a literary work It is a fact but it also becomes a figure standing for literature's confrontation with the real The documentary imagination involves a fantasy of direct access to a reality that speaks for itself At the same time it gives rise to concrete textual practices that open up new directions for literature by interrogating the construction and interpretation of facts

Travel and Ethics Corinne Fowler, Charles Forsdick, Ludmilla Kostova, 2013-12-13 Despite the recent increase in scholarly activity regarding travel writing and the accompanying proliferation of publications relating to the form its ethical dimensions have yet to be theorized with sufficient rigour Drawing from the disciplines of anthropology linguistics literary studies and modern languages the contributors in this volume apply themselves to a number of key theoretical questions pertaining to travel writing and ethics ranging from travel as commoditization to encounters with minority languages under threat Taken collectively the essays assess key critical legacies from parallel disciplines to the debate so far such as anthropological theory and postcolonial criticism Also considered and of equal significance are the ethical implications of the form's parallel genres of writing such as ethnography and journalism As some of the contributors argue innovations in these genres have important implications for the act of theorizing travel writing itself and the mode and spirit in which it continues to be conducted In the light of such innovations how might ethical theory maintain its critical edge

Strategies of Qualitative Inquiry Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, 2012-10-24 This book is the second of three paperback volumes taken from The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Fourth Edition This volume isolates the major strategies historically the research methods that researchers can use in conducting concrete qualitative studies The question of methods begins with questions of design and the matters of money and funding These questions always begin with the researcher who moves from a research question to a paradigm or perspective and then to the empirical world The history and uses of these strategies are explored extensively in this volume The chapters move from forms and problems with mixed methods inquiry to case study performance and narrative ethnography to constructionist analytics to grounded theory strategies testimonies participatory action research and clinical research

The Sociology of Howard S. Becker Alain Pessin, 2017-05-24 Howard S Becker is a name to conjure with on two continents in the United States and in France He has enjoyed renown in France for his work in sociology which in the United States goes back more than fifty years to pathbreaking studies of deviance professions sociology of the arts and a steady stream of books and articles on method Becker who lives part of the year in Paris is by now part of the French intellectual scene a street smart jazz pianist and sociologist who offers an answer to the stifling structuralism of Pierre Bourdieu French fame has brought French analysis including The Sociology of Howard S Becker written by Alain Pessin and translated into English by Steven Rendall The book is an exploration of Becker's major works as expressions of the freedom of possibility within a world of collaborators Pessin reads Becker's work as descriptions and ideas that show how society can embody the possibilities of change of doing things differently of taking advantage of opportunities for free action The book is itself a kind of collaboration Pessin and Becker in dialogue The Sociology of Howard S Becker is a meeting of two cultures via two great sociological minds in conversation

Walker Evans Judith Keller, 1995-11-02 Walker Evans is widely recognized as one of the greatest American photographers of the twentieth century and the J Paul Getty Museum owns one of the most comprehensive collections of his work including more of his vintage prints than any other museum in the world This lavishly illustrated volume brings together for the first time all of the Museum's Walker Evans holdings Included here are familiar images such as Evans's photographs of tenant farmers and their families made in the 1930s and later published in Let Us Now Praise Famous Men and images that are much less familiar such as the photographs Evans made in the 1940s of the winter quarters of the Ringling Brothers circus or his very late Polaroids made in the 1970s In addition many previously unpublished Evans photographs and variant croppings of classic images appear here for the first time Author Judith Keller has written a lively informative text that places these photographs in the larger context of Evans's life and career and the culture especially the popular culture of the time In so doing she has produced an indispensable volume for anyone interested in the history of photography or American culture in the twentieth century Also included is the most comprehensive bibliography on Walker Evans published to date hension et d'un rationnement comme permettant d'éviter la double réduction du concept au récit et de l'éthique de la technique. La démarche défendue dans ce livre assume que l'éthique n'est pas un savoir bien qu'elle repose sur un savoir. C'est une éthique intégrative de la science, une éthique relative parce qu'elle procède durablement mais non relativiste car elle repose sur des raisons et des alternatives sans cesse valables et discutées, une éthique qui prend le chemin des aventures conceptuelles de la science non pour se faire science elle-même mais pour être suffisamment informée en vue de décider les dilemmes que les choix humains affrontent tous les jours.

Ali Benmakhlouf, agrégé de philosophie, est professeur à l'Université Paris Est Créteil et membre senior de l'Institut universitaire de France. Le fil directeur de ses recherches est la logique ; il est notamment spécialiste de G. Frege et B. Russell auxquels il a consacré de nombreux ouvrages. Il est actuellement engagé dans les débats sur la bioéthique, notamment dans l'Académie nationale de pharmacie dont il est membre correspondant.
