Essays and Interviews on Contemporary American Poets, Poetry, and Pedagogy

Daniel Morris, 2024-09-10 In sixteen chapters devoted to avant garde contemporary American poets including Kenneth Goldsmith Adeena Karasick Tyrone Williams Hannah Weiner and Barrett Watten prolific scholar and Purdue University professor Daniel Morris engages in a form of cultural repurposing by learning twice about how to attend to writers whose aesthetic contributions were not part of his education as a student in Boston and Chicago in the 1980s and 1990s when new formalism and post confessional modes reigned supreme Morris s study demonstrates his interest in moving beyond formalism to offer what Stephen Fredman calls a wider cultural interpretation of literature that emphasizes the new historicist concerns with hybridity ethnicity power relations material culture politics and religion Essays address from multiple perspectives prophetic diasporic ethical the vexing problems and sublime potential of disseminating lyrics the ancient form of transmission and preservation of the singular private human voice across time and space to an individual reader in an environment in which e poetry and digitalized poetics pose a crisis understood as both opportunity and threat to traditional page poetry

My Improbable Journey to

America Jarvis Sankalan Mengarpuan, 2021-11-08 Author Sankalan was in the sixth grade when his guardians threw him out of their government owned house in the picturesque community of Germany Kakata Liberia West Africa Why Because he went to borrow a uniform from his friend to sit for the Liberian Government national examinations designed for sixth ninth and twelfth graders in the sixties and seventies Booker Washington Institute BWI campus was the site of the exams The old uniform he had showed his naked anatomy in public which was not only humiliating but embarrassingly inappropriate in such public arena How did he continue school as an independent homeless youth in his home country Liberia What difficult circumstances did he experience in Liberia during his formative years in the quest of education What propelled him to undertake this incredible journey to the United States of America a country in which many Africans or Liberians believe that Money grows on trees a country in which people are territorial by nature and protective of their personal space a country in which the culture values are diametrically opposed to the African or Liberian way of life How did he maintain his moral integrity to his family after he was pressured to engage in an illegal marriage proposal to obtain permanent resident status Green Card in his first year in the America And how did he successfully complete his educational journey with perseverance despite insurmountable problems along his path in the US Answers to these questions are chronicled in this riveting account of an intrepid Liberian in his book My Improbable Journey to America A Memoir of Reflections American Spirit ,2008
