Magnificent Dreams Burne Jones And The Late Victorians:

Magnificent Dreams Frances Spalding, 1978 Edward Burne-Jones, Victorian Artist-dreamer Stephen Wildman, Edward Coley Burne-Jones, John Christian, Alan Crawford, Laurence Des Cars, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Birmingham Museums and Art Gallery, Musée d'Orsay, 1998 This publication is issued in conjunction with the 1998 exhibition of the same name held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and scheduled for venues in England and France Burne Jones 1833 1898 created a style that had widespread influence on both British and European art a narrative style derived from medieval legend and fused with the influence of Italian Renaissance masters a style that ceded popularity to a growing taste for abstraction at the end of the 19th century Now Burne Jones's star has risen again and this catalogue contains full discussion of his life and work and representation of his prodigious output of drawings and paintings 9 5x12 5 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Last Pre-Raphaelite Fiona MacCarthy, 2012-03-05 In Fiona MacCarthy's riveting account Burne Jones's exchange of faith for art places him at the intersection of the nineteenth century and the Modern as he leads us forward from Victorian mores and attitudes to the psychological sexual and artistic audacity that would characterize the early twentieth century Evelyn Pickering De Morgan and the Allegorical Body Elise

Lawton Smith, Evelyn De Morgan, 2002 This study of her work confirms that the idea of progress toward the afterlife is a recurrent motif arising from a personal involvement in the movement of Spiritualism and paralleling the automatic writing passages in The Result of an Experiment 1909 anonymously published by Evelyn and her husband William De Morgan

The Victorian Period Robin Gilmour, 2014-09-19 This is a thought provoking synthesis of the Victorian period focusing on the themes of science religion politics and art It examines the developments which radically changed the intellectual climate and illustrates how their manifestations permeated Victorian literature The author begins by establishing the social and institutional framework in which intellectual and cultural life developed Special attention is paid to the reform agenda of new groups which challenged traditional society and this perspective informs Gilmour's discussion throughout the book He assesses Victorian religion science and politics in their own terms and in relation to the larger cultural politics of the middle class challenge to traditionalism Familiar topics such as the Oxford Movement and Darwinism are seen afresh and those once neglected areas which are now increasingly important to modern scholars are brought into clear focus such as Victorian agnosticism the politics of gender Englishness and photography The most innovative feature of this compelling study is the prominence given to the contemporary preoccupation with time The Victorians time hauntedness emerges as the defining feature of their civilisation the remote time of geology and evolution the public time of history the private time of autobiography Pre-Raphaelite Masculinities Serena Trowbridge, 2017-07-05 Drawing on recent theoretical developments in gender and men's studies Pre-Raphaelite Masculinities shows how the ideas and models of masculinity were constructed in the work of artists and writers associated with the Pre-Raphaelite movement Paying particular attention to the representation of non normative or alternative masculinities the contributors take up the multiple versions of masculinity in Dante Gabriel Rossetti's paintings and poetry masculine violence in William Morris's late romances nineteenth century masculinity and the medical narrative in Ford Madox Brown's Cromwell on His Farm accusations of perversion directed at Edward Burne Jones's work performative masculinity and William Bell Scott's frescoes the representations of masculinity in Pre Raphaelite illustration aspects of male chastity in poetry and art Tannaher as a model for Victorian manhood and masculinity and British imperialism in Holman Hunt's The Light of the World Taken together these essays demonstrate the far reaching effects of the plurality of masculinities that pervade the art and literature of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood

Symbolism, Its Origins and Its Consequences Rosina Neginsky, 2010-08-11 The notion of the symbol is at the root of the Symbolist movement but this symbol is different from the way it was used and understood in the Middle Ages and Renaissance In the Symbolist movement a symbol is not an allegory The Belgian writer Maurice Maeterlinck defined its essence in an article that appeared on April 24 1887 in L'Art moderne He wrote that the notion of a symbol in the Symbolist movement is the opposite of the notion of the symbol in classical usage instead of going from the abstract to the concrete Venus incarnated in the statue represents love it goes from the concrete to the abstract from what is seen heard felt tasted and sensed to the evocation of the idea This volume attempts to give a glimpse into the power of the Symbolist movement and the nature of its fundamental and interdisciplinary role in the evolution of art and literature of the twentieth century It records the studies of a group of scholars who met and discussed these topics together for the first time in 2009 While illuminating the specificity of Symbolism in art architecture and literature in different European countries these articles also demonstrate the crucial role of French Symbolism in the development of the international Symbolist movement The authors hope that an expanding group a society of Art Literature and Music in Symbolism and Decadence ALMSD born out of the first meeting will continue to further this discussion at future conferences and in the printed conference proceedings

The Arthurian Revival in Victorian Art Debra N. Mancoff, 1990

Pre-Raphaelites Re-viewed Marcia R. Pointon, 1989 The Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood formed in 1848 by the young Millais Holman Hunt and Rossetti has long been recognised as a high point in Victorian artistic production But whilst we know much of the private lives of Pre Raphaelite artists and writers and their best known paintings are very familiar their work and particularly their visual imagery has attracted limited attention from art historians and critical theorists This collection redresses the situation with a series of detailed critical and historical studies of individual issues and productions artistic and literary relative to Pre Raphaelitism Using rigorous new critical analysis the book throws new light on the ways in which the Pre Raphaelites addressed philosophical religious political and social questions It will be essential reading for all students of Victorian art literature and ideas Back cover
