Magnum Opus The Story Of The Memorial Art Gallery:

Magnum Opus Elizabeth Brayer, 1988 Carl W. Peters Richard H. Love, Carl William Peters, 1999 Throughout his life Peters depicted the ordinary places and people of America From Rochester to Rockport Peters made an amazingly coherent group of fascinating masterful American pictures AngloModern Janet Wolff, 2018-05-31 Early twentieth century art and art practice in Britain and the United States were Janet Wolff asserts marginalized by critics and historians in very similar ways after the rise of post Cubist modern art In a masterly book on the sociology of modernism Wolff explores work that was primarily realist and figurative and investigates the social institutional political and aesthetic processes by which that art fell by the wayside in the postwar period Throughout she shows that questions of gender and ethnicity play an important role in critical curatorial and historical evaluations For example Wolff finds that the work of the artists central to the development of the Whitney Museum was relegated to a secondary status in the postwar period when realism was labeled feminine in contrast to the aggressive masculinity of abstract expressionism The three key periods considered in AngloModern are the early twentieth century when modernist art and existing and new realist traditions coexisted in a certain tension the postwar period in which modernism claimed superiority over realism and the late twentieth century when a retrieval of the realist and figurative traditions seemed to occur Wolff concludes by considering this re emergence as well as the limitations of earlier discussions of the struggles of realist and figurative art to endure the currents of modernism George Eastman Elizabeth Brayer, 2006 George Eastman transformed the world of photography In this revealing and informative biography Elizabeth Brayer draws a vivid portrait of this enigmatic and complex man Edward Ruscha Lisa Turvey, 2014-01-01 An immense contribution to scholarship on Ed Ruscha and his pioneering artistic practice offering thorough documentation of his works on paper This highly anticipated book the first in a series of three comprehensively chronicles the first two decades of Ed Ruscha's b 1937 work on paper which comprises the largest component of his production of original works Over 1 000 works on paper are documented all created between 1956 and 1976 and they encompass a wide range of formats materials themes and styles Included are collages ephemeral sketches preparatory studies for paintings oil on paper works and drawings executed in a variety of inventive materials including gunpowder and organic substances Ruscha came to prominence in the early 1960s as part of the Pop art movement although his work equally engages the legacies of Dada Surrealism and Abstract Expressionism as well as the Conceptual art that emerged later in the decade He has long enjoyed international standing and admiration and his work is widely known Despite this recognition this volume contains hundreds of works that have infrequently or never been exhibited or published Each work is catalogued with a color reproduction collection details full chronological provenance exhibition history and bibliographic references Essays by Lisa Turvey and Harry Cooper complete this extraordinary survey which expands and enriches our understanding of Ruscha's pioneering exploration of the written word as a subject for visual art and his witty assessment of the iconography of Los Angeles both real and imagined

Sculpture from the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery Karen O. Janovy, Daniel A. Siedell, 2005-01-01 All of the 90 pieces selected from more than 350 works in the collection are presented here in full color each accompanied by a brief discussion of the artist and his or her work by leading scholars in the field as well as authorities on the collection The essays examine the works of sculptors represented in the Sheldon's collection including Barlach Brancusi Calder Duchamp Moore and Rodin and present a concise yet comprehensive overview of pertinent scholarship that will be of value to both students and experts in the field BOOK JACKET

The Encyclopedia of New York State Peter Eisenstadt, 2005-05-19 The Encyclopedia of New York State is one of the most complete works on the Empire State to be published in a half century In nearly 2 000 pages and 4 000 signed entries this single volume captures the impressive complexity of New York State as a historic crossroads of people and ideas as a cradle of abolitionism and feminism and as an apex of modern urban suburban and rural life The Encyclopedia is packed with fascinating details from fields ranging from sociology and geography to history Did you know that Manhattan's Lower East Side was once the most populated neighborhood in the world but Hamilton County in the Adirondacks is the least densely populated county east of the Mississippi New York is the only state to border both the Great Lakes and the Atlantic Ocean the Erie Canal opened New York City to rich farmland upstate and to the west Entries by experts chronicle New York's varied areas politics and persuasions with a cornucopia of subjects from environmentalism to higher education to railroads weaving the state's diverse regions and peoples into one idea of New York State Lavishly illustrated with 500 photographs and figures 120 maps and 140 tables the Encyclopedia is key to understanding the state's past present and future It is a crucial reference for students teachers historians and business people for New Yorkers of all persuasions and for anyone interested in finding out more about New York State

Stained Glass Before 1700 in Upstate New York Meredith P. Lillich, 2004 The present volume catalogues and illustrates all the stained glass produced before 1700 in the collections of Upstate New York It includes the glass in the Albright Knox Art Gallery and the Memorial Art Gallery in Rochester in the Hyde Collection at Glen Falls in Ithaca College and predominantly in Corning where the Corning Glass Museum is well known for its exceptional collection and where also Christ Episcopal Church houses two interesting fifteenth century windows The catalogue covers a wide range of panels of French and English glass from the thirteenth fourteenth and fifteenth centuries and the collections are particularly strong in their holdings of later heraldic panels from the Lowlands and Switzerland In addition to a detailed examination of the glass Professor Lillich presents exhaustively researched histories of the individual panels and sheds much light on the formation of the different collections and the personalities who created them Every work catalogued is also illustrated accompanied by clearly presented restoration charts and many comparative illustrations
