Maias Veil:

Maia's Veil P. K. McAllister, 1995 A triumphant homecoming becomes a dangerous confrontation for Sailmaster Pov and the crew of the cloudship as they return from the dangers of space and find the enemy close to home From the author of Siduri's Net Original

The Symbolist Movement in the Literature of European Languages Anna Balakian, Anna Elizabeth Balakian, 1984 Edited by Anna Balakian this volume marks the first attempt to discuss Symbolism in a full range of the literatures written in the European languages The scope of these analyses which explore Latin America Scandinavia Russia Poland Hungary Serbia Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria as well as West European literatures continues to make the volume a valuable reference today As Ren Wellek suggests in his historiographic contribution the fifty one contributors not only make us think afresh about individual authors who are giants but also draw us to reassess schools and movements in their local as well as international contexts Reviewers comment that this copious and intelligently structured anthology divided into eight parts traces the conceptual bases and emergence of an international Symbolist movement showing the spread of Symbolism to other national literatures from French sources as well as the symbiotic transformations of Symbolism through appropriation and amalgamation with local literary trends Several chapters deal with the relationships between literature and the other arts pointing to Symbolism at work in painting music and theatre Other chapters on the psychological aspects of the Symbolist method connect in interesting ways to a vision of metaphor and myth as virtually musical notation and an experimental emphasis on the play afforded by gaps between words The volume is a major contribution to the most significant exponents and essential themes of Symbolism The theoretical historical and typological sections of the volume help explain why the impact of this important movement of the fin de siècle is still felt today

The Poetry of the Orient William Rounseville Alger, 1865

The Intellective Space Laurent Dubreuil, 2015-03-20 The Intellective Space explores the nature and limits of thought It celebrates the poetic virtues of language and the creative imperfections of our animal minds while pleading for a renewal of the humanities that is grounded in a study of the sciences According to Laurent Dubreuil we humans both say more than we think and think more than we say Dubreuil's particular interest is the intellective space a space where thought and knowledge are performed and shared For Dubreuil the term cognition refers to the minimal level of our mental operations But he suggests that for humans there is an excess of cognition due to our extensive processing necessary for verbal language brain dynamics and social contexts In articulating the intellective Dubreuil includes the productive undoing of cognition Dubreuil grants that cognitive operations take place and that protocols of experimental psychology new techniques of neuroimaging and mathematical or computerized models provide access to a certain understanding of thought But he argues that there is something in thinking that bypasses cognitive structures Seeking to theorize with the sciences the book's first section develops the intellective hypothesis and points toward the potential journey of ideas going beyond cognition after and before computation The second part Animal

Meditations pursues some of the consequences of this hypothesis with regard to the disparaged but enduring project of metaphysics with its emphasis on categories such as reality humanness and the soul The Maias Eça de Queirós, 2007
 Carlos heir to a great fortune becomes a doctor and drifts along spending time at the theater reading and having affairs until he falls deeply in love but has to hide a terrible secret The Poetry of the East William Rounseville Alger, 1856 The M.A.I.A. Journey Tamara, 2014-12-09 Alternating back and forth between spirit and matter between subject and object between the many levels of vibration this book is a fragment of my own never ending quest and of my experience alive and therefore limited and subject to change It is an attempt to share what I have discovered so far using the weapons of a seeker tired of dogmas opinions and impressions amongst truths hidden in old sayings or fragments of ancient texts by personal revelations based on understanding comparison and logic and by applying the Universal Laws to the nature of things The desire for knowledge is not a light burden it is not easy to want to know and hold on to your goal while going through times when the constant occultation of the answers generates a dose of frustration that goes beyond human endurance Moreover it is not easy to share your findings with the world without being considered at least a lunatic particularly when those findings tend to break well rooted patterns and tear away the ego The Maia Journey even though so amazing in its uniqueness for each individual has a pattern which I have tried to outline in this book To those on a personal quest it will be a useful tool to others just another reading To me it is Manifesting Awareness Inside the All Tamara The Poetry Of The East W. A. Rounseville, A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula César Domínguez, Anxo Abuín González, Ellen Sapega, 2016-10-20 Volume 2 of A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula brings to an end this collective work that aims at surveying the network of interliterary relations in the Iberian Peninsula No attempt at such a comparative history of literatures in the Iberian Peninsula has been made until now In this volume the focus is placed on images Section 1 genres Section 2 forms of mediation Section 3 and cultural studies and literary repertoires Section 4 To these four sections an epilogue is added in which specialists in literatures in the Iberian Peninsula as well as in the sub disciplines of comparative history and comparative literary history search for links between Volumes 1 and 2 from the point of view of general contributions to the field of Iberian comparative studies and assess the entire project that now reaches completion with contributions from almost one hundred scholars On the Knees of the Gods Anna Bowman Dodd, 1908 Truth and Interpretation Luigi Pareyson, 2013-09-04 Luigi Pareyson 1918 1991 was one of the most important Italian philosophers to emerge after World War II and stands shoulder to shoulder with fellow hermeneutic thinkers Hans Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur The product of a well developed theory of interpretation that stretches back to the late 1940s his 1971 masterpiece Truth and Interpretation provides the historical impetus and theoretical framework for the questions of existence art and politics that would motivate his most famous students Umberto Eco and Gianni Vattimo In a time when the meaning of truth as an interpretation is challenged by the chaotic din of media on the one side and the violent force of absolute claims from science religion and political economy on the other Pareyson's meditation on the value of thinking that is shaped by the traditions of philosophy and yet responds to contemporary demands remains timely and pressing more than forty years after its initial publication
