

The background of the book cover is a photograph of traditional Malanggan carvings. On the left, a large, light-colored carving of a bird-like creature with a long beak and a large, open mouth is visible. To its right, a tall, slender, light-colored carving of a human figure with a large, stylized head and a long, thin body stands prominently. The carvings are set against a dark, textured background, possibly a wall or a large rock.
