Matthew Hilton Furniture Of Our Time:

Matthew Hilton Catherine McDermott, 2000 Alongside a discussion of contemporary furniture design and manufacturing processes avant garde furniture designer Matthew Hilton responsible for the Flipper coffee table Wait chair and Balzac armchair also explains the inspiration behind the creation of his work The Persistence of Craft Paul Greenhalgh, 2003 In The Persistence of Craft contributors discuss the development of not only six specific crafts glass ceramics jewelry wood textiles and metal but also the trends and movements that have helped shape their developments Includes 180 full color illustrations The Furniture Machine Gareth Williams, 2006-10 When did sofas become so sexy and why Contemporary furniture design has enjoyed growing international popularity in the last fifteen years The Furniture Machine looks at the major trends and designers of this period including Philippe Starck Ron Arad and Marc Newson to unravel the workings of the furniture industry since 1990 Attention is also given to the innovations of Italian manufacturers such as Cappellini and B B Italia and the increasing influence of conceptual design from the theoretical proposals of Droog Design to the commercial products of Moooi Architectural Publications Index, 2000 Blueprint, 2008 House & Garden, 2001 Inspiring Designers Paul Rodgers, 2004 This sourcebook provides an insight into the minds of 18 of the world's most distinguished working today The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 The Design Encyclopedia Mel Byars, 2004 Design has an increasingly high profile figures like Philippe Starck are as venerated and well known as more traditional artists But where the literature on fine art is vast design is still comparatively ill served This encyclopedia provides an account of the still largely unknown story of design Products of Our Time David Redhead, 2000 A book about design in an age of technological revolution It explores our relationship with the objects which surround us arguing that contemporary design from plastic surgery to Prozac from landmines to Tamagotchis is instant cultural history a window through which we can observe ourselves and perhaps even make sense of our world Products of Our Time categorises design in the 1990s into a number of key themes It tracks the move from cheap no brand supermarket goods to the up market minimalism of much of today's packaging it examines the way in which design is used to create our own identity including the ways in which we pierce decorate and change the design of our own bodies and it looks at the design of electronic objects and the ways in which technology reflects a cultural drift towards violence and high speed Published to coincide with a major international touring exhibition starting in Glasgow from November 1999 to February 2000 Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 2001 RIBA Journal, 2000 Art Index Retrospective, 2000 Limited Edition Sophie Lovell, 2013-01-30 Limited Edition is the new buzzword in furniture design The demand for unique pieces is steadily increasing With prototypes one offs and limited product lines designers are celebrating a cult of individuality for all price classes Furniture prototypes have always been an element of the industrial design process but now they are being brought from the workshops and presented to the public as embodiments of one of the most exciting creative fields of our age In the global village with its standardized commodities exclusive one offs with an artisanal flavor are turning into coveted objects Limited edition series satisfy the collector's thirst for objects that dissolve the boundary between art and design Limited Edition pursues this new phenomenon and uncovers its background in meticulous investigative essays based on the author's ongoing interchange with key designers gallery owners auctioneers and manufacturers With a rich selection of magnificent images and an attractive layout it presents the best and most breathtaking pieces by the leading designers

The Politics of Expertise Matthew Hilton, James McKay, Nicholas Crowson, Jean-François Mouhot, 2013-04-25 The Politics of Expertise offers a challenging new interpretation of politics in contemporary Britain through an examination of non-governmental organisations Using specific case studies of the homelessness environment and international aid and development sectors it demonstrates how politics and political activism has changed over the last half century NGOs have contributed enormously to a professionalization and a privatization of politics emerging as a new form of expert knowledge and political participation They have been led by a new breed of non-party politician working in collaboration and in competition with government Skilful navigators of the modern technocratic state they have brought expertise to expertise and in so doing have changed the nature of grassroots activism As affluent citizens have felt marginalised by the increasingly complex nature of many policy solutions they have made the rational calculation to support NGOs the professionalism and resources of which make them better able to tackle complex problems Yet in doing so support rather than participation becomes the more appropriate way to describe the relationship of the public to NGOs As voter turnout has declined membership and trust in NGOs has increased But NGOs are very different types of organisations from the classic democratic institutions of political parties and the labour movement They maintain different and varied relationships with the publics they seek to represent Attracting mass support has provided them with the resources and the legitimacy to speak to power on a bewildering range of issues yet perhaps the ultimate victors in this new form of politics are the NGOs themselves

The Exmoor Files Liz Jones, 2009-08-06 Moving from Islington to Exmoor one small step for mankind but a very large one for MAIL ON SUNDAY columnist Liz Jones Liz Jones lived the perfect urban life The immaculate Georgian townhouse in a leafy London square The glamorous career The Italian wardrobe stuffed with designer bags and shoes The much younger novelist husband But then it all goes horribly wrong She discovers her husband has been having numerous affairs with women who are younger dimmer slimmer and realises that her pursuit of perfection has never made her happy and probably never will And so she decides to start all over again burying herself alive in the middle of the bleak unforgiving wilderness that is Exmoor National Park She buys a wreck of a farmhouse with an original stable block 46 acres an ancient wood and a lake She rescues a nervous and abused but breathtakingly beautiful racehorse and hopes to live out the rural dream The reality of course is much much harder THE EXMOOR FILES is a funny honest often brutal real life account of what it is like to start all over again in an alien environment It is about discovering that you cannot find peace just by moving somewhere peaceful It is about mourning for a relationship and letting go of the life you thought you deserved      Design & Applied Arts Index ,2001      The International Design Yearbook 2001 Michele De Lucchi,Jennifer Hudson,2001 The editor has grouped together objects in catagories which illuminate current developments in design such as home office furniture the work of leading architects ranging from Norman Foster and David Chipperfield to Zaha Hadid and Kazuyo Sejima new treatments of traditional forms like wickerware minimalist designs and innovations from leading companies like Apple Philips Sharp and Siemens
