Hinzle,2011-09-07 This study describes the lives of the twelve disciples called by Jesus Christ for training repentance and transformation into effective and spirit filled apostles They were charged with establishing the Church of Jesus Christ in the hostile world of Jewish Greek Roman and many other groups of intense unbelievers They were laymen untrained in deep Jewish doctrine but practiced as businessmen and filled with zeal for the Jewish Messiah to return They wanted to be a part of his new kingdom and expected major roles in ruling Israel They became the first of many converts to see that the Jews had missed the heart of Gods message and the new message was that they would die to their own minds wills and emotional structures and replace it with the will of their Father through the Holy Spirit Jesus taught them for more than ten thousand hours of practical ministry teaching and supernatural endowment during their time together This is considerably more hours than it takes to achieve a doctorate in theology today In this time they were still incapable of standing up to the Jewish authorities until endued with power from on high at Pentecost These secrets which the apostles found in their ministries will help the disciple who is serious about transforming his or her life and knowledge of the Gospel into effective ministry The Publishers Weekly, 1917

A Jewish Christmas Story Frank Straight,2010-01-15 In the first two chapters of his Gospel Matthew writes about the birth of the Messiah Did he intend for the narrative just to be used for childrens pagents and to provide ideas for lawn decorations Surely he had more serious purposes in mind but sadly this beginning part of his Gospel has been often trivialized down through the centuries What important information was he conveying What issues facing his readers did he confront Could Jesus of Nazareth a place thought to produce no good thing really be the Messiah Hadnt his birth actually been a scandal Why would wise men bring him gifts How many wise men were there anyway And that part about the star maybe it wasnt actually a star A Jewish Christmas Story is a study guide which brings new insights to a story with which many are familiar but one whose real meaning is seldom considered seriously Evangelism and Christian Apologetics

Steve Urick,2012-03-09 Evangelism and making disciples of Christ go together and make up the most important work on earth Why Because the eternal destiny of people depends upon hearing the gospel of Christ But many Christians lack basic training to be able to do soul winning work defend the faith and refute false teachings Evangelism and Christian Apologetics contains vital information that can give any Christian the knowledge and confidence to effectively explain the gospel one on one and gives clear answers to questions most commonly asked by skeptics and truth seekers alike Whether you are an older Christian or a new believer this powerful book will give you the nuts and bolts of evangelism training needed to equip and motivate you to go out and labor in the great harvest of souls while there is still time CHRIST-CENTERED
