directory of organizations associations and government agencies and an annotated bibliography The Oxford Handbook of Social Class in Counseling William Ming Liu, 2013-04-26 Social class is a pervasive facet of all lives regardless of one's own social class and status. One would think its ubiquity would make it necessary for all helping professionals to understand social class and discuss it in therapy and research. Yet social class and classism are one of the most confusing and difficult concepts to understand and integrate into research and counseling practice, mostly due to the relative lack of psychological theories, research, and quantitative data. Fulfilling this need, this handbook summarizes and synthesizes available research on social class and classism in counseling practice and research areas. The 32 chapters included offer up-to-date fascinating and provocative applications of social class and classism as seasoned chapter authors provide an overview of theories related to social class and classism and its application toward research, education, training, and practice. Chapters include comprehensive coverage of lifespan issues related to social class, such as unique aspects of social class and classism in the lives of children, adolescents, and older adults; how social class is studied and empirically understood through research; assessment and practice implications of social class in career counseling, psychological assessment, and diagnosis; and the therapy relationship. How social class is implicated in positive psychology, career and work psychology, and health psychology; social class and classism and its connection to whiteness, racism, sexual orientation, religion, and spirituality; and social justice. This book offers the first compendium of counseling-related resources on social class and classism and will be a comprehensive must-have reference for professionals and academics in counseling psychology and related fields for years to come.

Land of Stark Contrasts Manuel Mejido Costoya, 2021-04-06 An important new volume showcasing a wide range of faith-based responses to one of today's most pressing social issues, challenging us to expand our ways of understanding. Land of Stark Contrasts brings together the work of social scientists, ethicists, and theologians exploring the profound role of religion in understanding and responding to homelessness and housing insecurity in all corners of the United States, from Seattle, San Francisco, and Silicon Valley to Dallas and San Antonio to Washington, D.C., and Boston. Together, the essays of Land of Stark Contrasts chart intriguing ways forward for future initiatives to address the root causes of homelessness. In this way, they are essential reading for practical theologians, congregational leaders, and faith-based nonprofit organizers exploring how to combine spiritual and material care for homeless individuals and other vulnerable populations. Social workers, nonprofit managers, and policy specialists seeking to understand how to partner better with faith-based organizations will also find the chapters in this volume an invaluable resource. Contributors include James V. Spickard, Manuel Mejido Costoya, and Margaret Breen, Michael R. Fisher Jr., Laura Stivers, Lauren Valk, Lawson Bruce, Granville Miller, Nancy A. Khalil, John A. Coleman, S. J. Jeremy Phillip Brown, Paul Houston, Blankenship, Mar, a Teresa D. Vila, Roberto Mata, and Sathianathan Clarke. Co-published with Seattle University's Center for Religious Wisdom and World Affairs.
