Excerpt from Organon of the Rational Art of Healing The original suggestion that Hahnemann's Organon was worthy of a place in Everyman's Library came from the late Mr James Speirs and was supported by the British Homoeopathic Association of whose Council Mr Speirs was a member Mr J M Dent looked favourably on the proposal but was naturally anxious to make clear that the Organon is put forward here as a piece of history rather than as a contribution to polemics For this reason the original edition of 1810 was selected for presentation as it both constitutes a landmark in medical history and is less controversial than the later editions The name of Robert Dudgeon is inevitably bound up with the rendering of Hahnemann's works into English but inasmuch as Dr Dudgeon worked from the latest and fullest edition another translator had to be sought for this the original edition The association of Dr Dudgeon with Hahnemann is maintained however in Part II of this volume for the translations of the essays contained therein are from his pen About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
