Blair,Jonathan M. Bloom,1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and motifs played a dominant role in the artistic life of most of the Muslim world the one exception was the Maghrib an area protected from the full brunt of the Mongol invasions where traditional models continued to inspire artists and patrons By the sixteenth century say the authors the eastern Mediterranean under the Ottomans and the area of northern India under the Mughals had become more powerful and the Iranian models of early Ottoman and Mughal art gradually gave way to distinct regional and imperial styles

Persian Art Yuka Kadoi,2019-07-31 An insightful picture of the expansion of Persian visual culture across wide swathes of Asia from the Indian Ocean to the Mediterranean      Afghanistan C. Heather Bleaney,María Ángeles Gallego,2006 Presents a thematically indexed bibliography devoted to Afghanistan Following the pattern established by one of its major data sources viz the acclaimed Index Islamicus both journal articles and book publications are included and indexed     Union in Separation Autori Vari,2016-01-14T00:00:00+01:00 Union in Separation presents a series of case studies on diasporic groups in the late medieval and early modern Mediterranean and Black Sea regions It explores how Armenian Byzantine Greek Florentine Genoese Hospitaller Jewish Mamluk and Venetian communities characterized by diasporic identities and inserted into local contexts navigated religious and socio ethnic boundaries as well as other categories of difference The volume draws on a wide range of historical and social scientific methods and offers new perspectives on the arbitration of difference in the wider eastern Mediterranean from Tana to Cairo and Marseille to Isfahan prior to the emergence of nation states It provides not only an analytical toolbox for historical diaspora studies but also reveals how under the looming threat of crusade and within the daily routines of trade diasporic groups and their hosts negotiated modes of coexistence that oscillated between cooperation and conflict integration and rejection union and separation     Oriental Carpet and Textile Studies Peter Andrews,ICOC.,1999     Out of the Stream Luís Urbano Afonso,Vítor Serrão,2021-02-19 The subject of this book arises from recent developments in the inventory preservation and study of mural paintings from the Middle Ages and the Renaissance particularly those from what can be considered the periphery of Europe The aim of this book is to demonstrate the vitality that the study of wall painting in peripheral regions can bring to the discipline of Art History The articles collected in this book are overwhelmingly about wall paintings that would be hard pressed to be considered part of the master narrative of Art History They are studies regarding regions and themes that are rarely present in the mainstream of the discipline but their common thread is their focus on the functional dimension of mural paintings and on the complex interrelation between image audience social context and everyday life From Denmark to Portugal from graffiti to secular painting from the orthodox monasteries of Moldavia to the noble residences of Tirol from Giotto to anonymous and sometimes almost amateur painters the studies gathered in this book place very distinct artistic realities side by side offering complementary perspectives and insights The book will make a valuable contribution to the literature on Medieval and Renaissance mural painting combining theoretical essays with others more descriptive As the eighteen studies collected in this book deal with paintings from a range of European regions from Denmark to Portugal and Romania the book will find its way in Europe and abroad both in the field of art history and that of Medieval and Early Modern history The wealth of plates and figures will make the book also accessible to a broad audience interested in the history of painting architecture and cultural heritage     The Arts of Persia Ronald W. Ferrier,1989-01-01 Shows and describes examples of Persian calligraphy glass tile pottery lacquer books paintings jewelry textiles sculpture and architecture     The Arts of the Mamluks in Egypt and Syria Doris Behrens-Abouseif,2012 Mamluk Studies is the first series that is exclusively dedicated to the history culture and society of the Mamluk Era 1250 1517 It contains source editions monographs collections of articles and conference proceedings in English French and German The Mamluk Empire is a historically unique model of a society A predominantly Arabic population was dominated by a purely Turkish born elite of manumitted military slaves who sought to regenerate themselves continuously through a self imposed fiat The only person who could become a Mamluk was a Turk who had been born free outside the Islamic territories as a non Muslim then enslaved brought to Egypt converted to Islam freed and finally trained as a warrior Only those who met these prerequisites were members of the ruling stratum with all the concomitant political military and economic advantages Patrons and companions provided the individual rootless Mamluk with a place and support in society

The Tribal Eye Peter Davies,1993 Describes the origins designs and techniques associated with the flat woven carpets of Anatolian Turkey

Symbol, Pattern and Symmetry Michael Hann,2013-11-21

Symbol Pattern and Symmetry The Cultural Significance of Structure investigates how pattern and symbol has functioned in visual arts exploring how connections and comparisons in geometrical pattern can be made across different cultures and how the significance of these designs has influenced craft throughout history The book features illustrative examples of symbol and pattern from a wide range of historical and cultural contexts from Byzantine Persian and Assyrian design to case studies of Japanese and Chinese patterns Looking at each culture s specific craft style Hann shows how the visual arts are underpinned with a strict geometric structure and argues that understanding these underlying structures enables us to classify and compare data from across cultures and historical periods Richly illustrated with both colour and black and white images and with clear original commentary the book enables students practitioners teachers and researchers to explore the historical and cultural significance of symbol and pattern in craft and design ultimately displaying how a geometrical dialogue in design can be established through history and culture
