The Rural Primitive in American Popular Culture All Too Familiar studies how the mythology of the primitive rural other became linked to evolutionary theories both biological and social that emerged in the mid nineteenth century This mythology fit well on the imaginary continuums of primitive to civilized rural to urban normative backward to forward thinking and regress versus progress In each chapter of The Rural Primitive Karen E Hayden uses popular cultural depictions of the rural primitive to illustrate the ways in which this trope was used to set poor rural whites apart from others Not only were they set apart however they were also set further down on the imaginary continuum of progress and regress of evolution and devolution Hayden argues that small rural tight knit communities where everyone knows everyone and everyone is related came to be an allegory for what will happen if society resists modernization and urbanization The message of the rural close knit community is clear degeneracy primitivism savagery and an overall devolution will result if groups are allowed to become too insular too close too familiar The New Romanticism Eberhard Alsen,2014-02-04 The New Romanticism is an overview of the romantic trend taken up by American novelists in the twentieth century Includes three classic essays by Saul bellow Thomas Pynchon and Toni Morrison Violence in America Ted Robert Gurr,1989-06 Violence in America The History of Crime presents a wealth of new research on the long term dynamics of murder and other crimes of violence The contributors clearly identify and diagnose the painful circumstances of recurring epidemics of violent crime that have swept the American society over the past 150 years Among the possible causes discussed are waves of immigration the social dislocations of war and growing concentrations of urban poverty In addition this engaging volume offers an evaluation of the traits of political assassins and an assessment of the pros and cons of gun control and whether or not it will help to reduce crimes of violence Surprisingly the contributors to this compelling volume present the idea that the past and present dynamics of violent crime projected into the future suggest grounds for cautious optimism This outlook is based on recent increases in effective criminal justice policies and the widespread efforts to remedy the social disintegration that breeds violent crime Students and professionals in history criminology victimology political science and other related fields will find this volume to be essential reading For both volumes This is a major timely and immensely welcome addition to the literature on violence in American society With fresh scholarship and new insights it updates a classic study of violence first published in 1969 It would make a valuable addition to courses on American social history as well as classes specifically addressing violence and crime in this society John J Broesamle California State University Northridge Encyclopedia of Anthropology H. Neither Black Nor White Yet Both Werner Sollors,1999 Why can a white woman give birth to a black baby while a black woman can never give birth to a white baby in the United States What makes racial passing so different from social mobility Why are interracial and incestuous relations often confused or conflated in literature making miscegenation appear as if it were incest Werner Sollors examines these questions and others in Neither Black nor White yet Both a fully researched investigation of literary works that in the past have been read more for a black white contrast of either or than for an interracial realm of neither nor both and in between From the origins of the term race to the cultural sources of the Tragic Mulatto and from the calculus of color to the retellings of various plots Sollors examines what we know about race analyzing recurrent motifs in scientific and legal works as well as in fiction drama and poetry No Duty to Retreat Richard Maxwell Brown,1994 In 1865 Wild Bill Hickok killed Dave Tutt in a Missouri public square in the West's first notable walkdown One hundred and twenty nine years later Bernard Goetz shot four threatening young men in a New York subway car Apart from gunfire what do the two events have in common Goetz writes Richard Maxwell Brown was acquitted of wrongdoing in the spirit of a uniquely American view of self defense a view forged in frontier gunfights like Hickok's When faced with a deadly threat we have the right to stand our ground and fight We have no duty to retreat Queer Literature in the Sinosphere Hongwei Bao,Yahia Zhengtang Ma,2024-11-14 Queer Literature in the Sinosphere is the most up to date English language study of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer LGBTQ themed literature and culture in the Chinese speaking world From classical homoerotic texts to contemporary boys love fan fiction this book showcases the richness and diversity of queer Chinese literature across the full spectrum of genres styles topics and cultural politics The book features authors and literary works from mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan Singapore and the global Chinese diaspora Featuring chapters by leading scholars from around the world this book rewrites literature history and culture from a queer lens in China and globally

Maxine Hong Kingston's Broken Book of Life Maureen Sabine,2004-02-29 The numerous studies of Maxine Hong Kingston's touchstone work The Woman Warrior fail to take into account the stories in China Men which were largely written together with those in The Woman Warrior but later published separately Although Hong Kingston's decision to separate the male and female narratives enabled readers to see the strength of the resulting feminist point of view in The Woman Warrior the author has steadily maintained that to understand the book fully it was necessary to read its male companion text Maureen Sabine's ambitious study of The Woman Warrior and China Men aims to bring these divided texts back together with a close reading that looks for the textual traces of the father in The Woman Warrior and shows how the daughter narrator tracks down his history in China Men She considers theories of intertextuality that open up the possibility of a dynamic interplay between the two books and suggests that the Hong family women and men may be struggling for dialogue with each other even when they appear textually silent or apart Blood Work Shawn Salvant,2015-01-12 The invocation of blood as both an image and a concept has long been critical in the formation of American racism In Blood Work Shawn Salvant mines works from the American literary canon to explore the multitude of associations that race and blood held in the consciousness of late nineteenth and early twentieth century Americans Drawing upon race and metaphor theory Salvant provides readings of four classic novels featuring themes of racial identity Mark Twain's Pudd'nhead Wilson 1894 Pauline Hopkins's Of One Blood 1902 Frances Harper's Iola Leroy 1892 and William Faulkner's Light in August 1932 His expansive analysis of blood imagery uncovers far more than the merely biological connotations that dominate many studies of blood rhetoric the racial discourses of blood in these novels encompass the anthropological and the legal the violent and the religious Penetrating and insightful Blood Work illuminates the broad ranging power of the blood metaphor to script distinctly American plots real and literary of racial identity

Nineteenth-Century Narratives of Contagion Allan Conrad Christensen, 2007-04-11 This intriguing book examines the ways contagion or disease inform and shape a wide variety of nineteenth century texts and contexts Christensen dissects the cultural assumptions concerning disease health impurity and so on before exploring different perspectives on key themes such as plague nursing and the hospital environment and focusing on certain key texts including Dicken's Bleak House Gaskell's Ruth and Zola's Le Docteur Pascal
