Baha'i and Globalisation Annika Hvithamar, Margit Warburg, Morten Warmind, 2005-12-01 Globalisation has become a buzzword that typically refers to the intensifying integration of the world economy especially as midwived by technological advances It also implies a growing political and cultural sense that all humanity is globally interdependent There have always been individuals of course who have advocated such awareness one of them being the founder of the Baha i faith who formulated a spiritual equivalent as the religion s central doctrine in the late 19th century Ye are the fruits of one tree and the leaves of one branch Its emphasis on global unification made Baha i an obvious candidate for a case study on new religions and globalisation The chapters in this volume fall into two sections diachronic and synchronic The first part is organised chronologically beginning with the emergence of the globalist tendency in the messianic vision of Babism the precursor to Baha i and concluding with an analytic history of its leaders changing attitudes to international politics The second part considers a variety of global themes in contemporary Baha i practice including global thought in Baha i writings the impact of the internet and the triumphalist and secular strains in Baha i identity Though five million members make it one of the world s most successful new religions Baha i has attracted little scholarly attention Most of the academics concentrating on Baha i have contributed to this volume which will appeal not only to students of modern religious movements but to anyone interested in the ways religions can adapt to and embrace the modern world

Citizens of the World Margit Warburg, 2018-08-14 Citizens of the World deals with the Baha is and their religion While covering the historical development in sufficient detail to serve as a general monograph on Baha i emphasis is laid on examining contemporary Baha i with the Danish Baha i community as a recurrent case The book discusses Baha i religious texts rituals economy everyday life demographic development mission strategies leadership and international activism in analyses based on primary material such as interview studies among the Baha is fieldwork data from the Baha i

World Centre in Israel and field trips around the world The approach is a combination of history of religions and sociology of religion within a theoretical framework of religion and globalisation Several general topics in the study of new religions are covered The book contributes to the theoretical study of globalisation by proposing a new model for analysing globalisation and transnational religions

Rethinking Religion and Politics in a Plural World Julia Berger, 2021-01-14 In this book Julia Berger examines internal meaning making structures and processes driving NGO behavior identifying constructs from within a religious tradition that forge new ways of pursuing social change She evaluates the operation of a distinct rationality arguing that action is guided not simply by beliefs and values but also by a combination of elements so intrinsic as to constitute an organizational DNA These hidden structures and rationalities manifest themselves in new modes of engagement and agency they help us to see the pivotal role of religion in shaping notions of peace progress and modernity To demonstrate the operation and salience of such a rationality Berger draws on the example of the worldwide Baha'i community Emerging in 19th century Iran the community's theological engagement with questions of justice the unity of humankind and the emerging global order constitute one of the most distinct and compelling yet least researched examples of religious engagement with the pressing questions of our time Analyzing events spanning a 75 year period from 1945 to 2020 this book provides a unique historical and contemporary perspective on the evolving role of religion and civil society in the modern world

Vanguard of the New Age Gillian McCann, 2012-05-03 Vanguard of the New Age unearths a largely ignored dimension of Canadian religious history Gillian McCann tells the story of a diverse group of occultists temperance leaguers and suffragettes who attempted to build a Utopian society based on spiritual principles Members of the Toronto Theosophical Society were among the first in Canada to apply Eastern philosophy to the social justice issues of the period from poverty and religious division to the changing role of women in society Among the most radical and culturally creative movements of their time the Theosophists called for a new social order based on principles of cooperation and creativity Intrigued by this compelling vision of a new age luminaries such as members of the Group of Seven feminist Flora MacDonald Denison Emily Stowe and anarchist Emma Goldman were drawn to the society Meticulously researched and compellingly written this careful reconstruction preserves Theosophist founder Albert Smythe's dream of a culturally distinct egalitarian and religiously pluralist nation

Countering the Global, 2025-01-23 Most great religious traditions are global in scope but they are often used to promote nationalist and isolationist ideas Why do politicians in Poland and Lithuania stress the strong bond between the Catholic Church and the national identities And how are ethno religious conflicts expressed in Norway In this book you will find new data and new insights providing explanations for these and other questions Fascinating case studies from Europe and China are the basis for analyses on how global interconnectedness sparks both unity and conflict within religious spheres demonstrating the interplay of local and global influences as well as the dynamics of glocalization Contributors are Milda Ali auskien Peter B Andersen Eileen Barker Peter Beyer Irena Borowik
