An Ornithologists Guide to Life Ann Hood, 2005-07-12 A collection of short stories that makes it possible to be proud to be human Carolyn See Washington Post Looking at her characters as if through a pair of binoculars Ann Hood captures the extraordinary in the ordinary A pregnant woman left by her husband cooks obsessively to cope with her loss but never tastes a morsel In an attempt to stay sober a young alcoholic seduces her priest and embarks on a tour of caverns with him An adolescent girl picks up bird watching as a hobby and in her newfound habit of observing others discovers a budding romance between her mother and her neighbor These stories many published in The Paris Review Glimmer Train Story and The Colorado Review are full of characters seeking an escape from their lives while uncovering small moments of understanding that often have huge implications and consequences They discover that they can only find peace once they stop searching for a way out Through diverse voices and lively storytelling Hood creates authentic personal secret worlds full of eccentric detail

The Ornithologist's Field Guide to Love India Holton, 2024-07-23 So riotously clever it almost defies description an alchemy of romantic elements held in perfect harmony NPR Rival ornithologists hunt through England for a rare magical bird in this historical fantasy rom com reminiscent of Indiana Jones but with manners tea and helicopter parasols Beth Pickering is on the verge of finally capturing the rare deathwhistler bird when Professor Devon Lockley swoops in stealing both her bird and her imagination like a villain Albeit a handsome and charming villain but that s beside the point As someone highly educated in the ruthless discipline of ornithology Beth knows trouble when she sees it and she is determined to keep her distance from Devon For his part Devon has never been more smitten than when he first set eyes on Professor Beth Pickering She s so pretty so polite so capable of bringing down a fiery deadly bird using only her wits In other words an angel Devon understands he must not get close to her however since they re professional rivals When a competition to become Birder of the Year by capturing an endangered caladrius bird is announced Beth and Devon are forced to team up to have any chance of winning Now keeping their distance becomes a question of one bed or two But they must take the risk because fowl play is afoot and they can t trust anyone else for all may be fair in love and war but this is ornithology
