Mahārāshtra Subi Subramanian, 2025-08-06 This book is inspired by the devotional legacy of the Mahārāshtrian saints and their timeless compositions. It seeks to offer readers a window into the lives of these revered spiritual figures sharing the wisdom and guidance that have profoundly influenced the author's own journey. Through these pages, the author hopes to deepen readers' understanding of Maharashtra's saintly tradition and inspire them to embrace its enduring lessons of devotion, humility, and inner fulfillment.

Mehera-Meher David Fenster, 2021-01-21 Mehera Meher is the story of an intimate Divine Romance between the Beloved and his closest disciple. The three-volume hardbound set draws deeply from Mehera's firsthand narrative gathered from over 200 hours of tape recordings made by the author David Fenster from the years 1974 to 1982. To this, he painstakingly researched and added other historical material from Mehera and those close to her to create an epic 1700-page biography of Avatar Meher Baba's foremost woman disciple. This is the latest revised edition and contains numerous corrections and additions to previous editions.

Taming the Oriental Bazaar Pushkar

Sohoni, 2023-01-31 Taming the Oriental Bazaar examines the public market hall as a key architectural feature of colonial South Asia. Representing a transition in the architectural programme, these buildings were meant to be monuments and markers of modernity in South Asia. The book explores how market halls became an essential feature of colonial settlements from the mid-nineteenth through the mid-twentieth centuries. It discusses public health policies and legislations central to the concerns of market hall sanitation. It reviews the elements of modernity, including institutions and systems established in the nineteenth century as India went from Company to Crown. It studies the specific circumstances and histories of market halls in the towns and cities of Bengaluru, Vadodara, Mumbai, Kolkata, Hyderabad, Karachi, Lahore, Chennai, Pune, and others. A key text in the study of colonial architecture, this book will be of interest to students, researchers, as well as general readers of architecture, colonialism, history of architecture, history of medicine, public health, urbanism, and South Asian studies.

1-800-Worlds Mathangi Krishnamurthy, 2018-01-02 Indian call centre employees work through the night, sleep during the day, and listen to foreign voices in accented tongues over transnational telephone connections. Through a description of the nightly and daily lives of call centre workers in the university town of Pune, India, 1-800-Worlds engages with the complex negotiations that underlie the ostensible success of new service economies. As the author shows, the call centre industry is neither insular nor singular but offers a set of symptoms that can help read changing forms of urban Indian middle-classness.

HOSTEL ROOM 131 R. Raj Rao, 2010-06-29 In the winter of 1978, Siddharth twenty-three meets Sudhir twenty in a friend's friend's room in Pune's Engineering College Hostel. He falls instantly in love. A man of unconventional views, he believes, for instance, that the two heroes in Sholay have the hots for each other rather than for the heroines. Siddharth becomes a full-time lover over the next seven years and stubbornly pursues the object of his lust and affection despite his job as a college lecturer in Bombay. There are many obstacles along the way, including Sudhir's family, against whom Siddharth files a police complaint, and Sudhir's classmates from Belgaum, led by the homophobic Ravi Humbe, who start an anti-Siddharth association.

But Siddharth gets support from Gaurav and Vivek a militant gay pair keen to ambush the enemy The author of Boyfriend returns with another irreverent look at India s gay subculture Deadpan humour and farce come together in this entertaining love story giving us a glimpse of what really goes on in a boys hostel Forbidden Love & Other Stories RAMAN SIVASHANKAR,2019-12-12 The book is a collection of three heartwarming stories 1 FORBIDDEN LOVE A handsome young business tycoon is smitten by a young middle class married woman in a chance meeting She bears a close resemblance to his deceased wife The tycoon has an affair with the woman oddly with the knowledge and consent of the husband The tragic end to the story will take the reader by surprise 2 THE MAN BESIDE ME Two strangers share adjacent seats in a 3 hour train journey Both have reason to hate their wives and both wish to eliminate them They hatch an ingenious plan each to eliminate the other s wife But will they succeed 3 THE PREDATOR A business genius is secretly a sexual predator But as fate has it he is halted in his tracks by two exceptional women one is very beautiful and the other her close buddy has a razor sharp brain The planning and execution of the murder of the predator is complex and will take the reader by surprise The Politics of Researching Multilingually Prue Holmes,Judith Reynolds,Sara Ganassin,2022-02-21 This book offers a unique understanding of how researchers linguistic resources and the languages they use in the research process are often politically and structurally shaped and constrained with implications for the reliability of the research The chapters are written by both experienced and novice researchers who examine how they negotiated the use of their own and others linguistic and communicative resources when undertaking their research in politically charged and linguistically and culturally diverse contexts The contributing authors are either from the Global South or engaged in work which is contextualised within the Global South or they face linguistic structural hegemonies in the Global North which challenge their research processes They utilise diverse theoretical methodological and disciplinary approaches to produce a collection of engaging and accessible accounts of researching multilingually in their contexts These accounts will help readers to make theoretically and methodologically informed choices about the political dimensions of languages in their own research when researching multilingually Another Love, Another Sky Aruna Jethwani,2004-03-01 Livable Cities from a Global Perspective Roger Caves,Fritz Wagner,2018-05-11 Livable Cities from a Global Perspective offers case studies from around the world on how cities approach livability They address the fundamental question what is considered livable The journey each city has taken or is currently taking is unique and context specific There is no such thing as a one size fits all approach to livability Some cities have had a long history of developing livability policies and programs that focus on equity economic and environmental concerns while other cities are relatively new to the game In some areas government has taken the lead while in other areas grassroots activism has been the impetus for livability policies and programs The challenge facing our cities is not simply developing a livability program We must continually monitor and readjust policies and programs to meet the livability needs of all people The case studies investigate livability issues in such cities as Austin Texas Helsinki Finland

London United Kingdom Warsaw Poland Tehran Iran Salt Lake City United States Rio de Janeiro Brazil Sydney Australia and Cape Town South Africa The chapters are organized into such themes as livability in capital city regions livability and growth and development livability and equity concerns livability and metrics and creating livability Each chapter provides unique insights into how a specific area has responded to calls for livable cities In doing so the book adds to the existing literature in the field of livable cities and provides policy makers and other organizations with information and alternative strategies that have been developed and implemented in an effort to become a livable city The Geography of India Kenneth Pletcher Senior Editor, Geography and History,2010-08-15 Describes the physical historical and cultural geography of India from its major physical features world heritage sites and cities to sites in the union territories and Kashmir region
