Romance Of The University Of California:

The Romance of the University of California Robert Sibley, 1928 Romance Barbara Fuchs, 2004 Often derided as an inferior form of literature romance as a literary mode or genre defies satisfactory definition dividing critics scholars and readers alike Romance is a clear and wide ranging introduction for students of literary history comparative literature and modern literary forms It is also a convincing case for a literary concept too often set to one side BOOK JACKET The Routledge Handbook of Gender in Central-Eastern Europe and Eurasia Katalin Fábián, Janet Elise Johnson, Mara Lazda, 2021-07-25 This Handbook is the key reference for contemporary historical and political approaches to gender in Central Eastern Europe and Eurasia Leading scholars examine the region s highly diverse politics histories cultures ethnicities and religions and how these structures intersect with gender alongside class sexuality coloniality and racism Comprising 51 chapters the Handbook is divided into six thematic parts Part I Conceptual debates and methodological differences Part II Feminist and women s movements cooperating and colliding Part III Constructions of gender in different ideologies Part IV Lived experiences of individuals in different regimes Part V The ambiguous postcommunist transitions Part VI Postcommunist policy issues With a focus on defining debates the collection considers how the shared experiences especially communism affect political forces organization of gender through a broad variety of topics including feminisms ideology violence independence regime transition and public policy It is a foundational collection that will become invaluable to scholars and students across a range of disciplines including Women s Gender and Sexuality Studies and Central Eastern European and Eurasian Studies Bulletin [of] the Institute of International Education , 1923 Poetics of Love in the Middle Ages Moshe Lazar, Norris J. Lacy, 1989-05-23 This volume examines the treatment and expression of love in medieval literature and art These nineteen essays contributed by recognized authorities on medieval romantic expression consider a wide variety of texts from the following cultures French Arabic Latin Hispanic Hebrew Provencal and German Teachers and students of medieval literature will find in this well researched book cogent contemporary analyses of written expressions of love in the Middle Ages Report on the National Defense Education Act United States. Office of Education, 1960 Love and the Politics of Care Stanislava Dikova, Wendy McMahon, Jordan Savage, 2022-11-03 This edited volume offers a contemporary rethinking of the relationship between love and care in the context of neoliberal practices of professionalization and work Each of the book s three sections interrogates a particular site of care where the affective political legal and economic dimensions of care intersect in challenging ways These sites are located within a variety of institutionally managed contexts such as the contemporary university the theatre hall the prison complex the family home the urban landscape and the care industry The geographical spread of the case studies stretches across India Vietnam Sweden Brazil South Africa the UK and the US and provides broad coverage that crosses the divide between the Global North and the Global South To address this transnational interdisciplinary field of study the collection utilises insights from across the humanities and social sciences and includes contributions from literature sociology cultural and media studies philosophy feminist theory theatre art history and education These inquiries build on a variety of conceptual tools and research methods from data analysis to psychoanalytic reading Love and the Politics of Care delivers an attentive and widely relevant examination of the politics of care and makes a compelling case for an urgent reconsideration of the methods that currently structure and regulate it

Annual Register University of Chicago,1921 The University of Idaho Bulletin University of Idaho,1918 Seeking Love in Modern Britain Zoe Strimpel,2020-03-05 Seeking Love in Modern Britain charts the emergence of the modern British single through an account of the dating industry that sprang up to serve men and women It shows how amid a period of unprecedented sexual and social change the single became a key unisex identity and lifestyle From around 1970 a growing cottage style matchmaking industry in Britain was offering the romantically solo a choice between computer dating firms such as Dateline or Computate introduction agencies and the lonely hearts pages of Private Eye Time Out and others Zoe Strimpel reveals how this rapidly expanding landscape of services was catering to a new breed of single people and how by the late 1990s singleness had become the culturally mainstream wholly expected part of the romantic life cycle that it is today Refuting the widespread idea that the Internet invented modern dating this book uses an eclectic and engaging range of first person accounts and snapshots from the time to show that the story of contemporary romance mediated courtship and singleness began in a time long before Tinder Annual Catalogue University of Chicago,1917 Love Troubles Wanning Sun,2023-05-18 Four decades of economic reform have made China one of the most unequal countries in the world but the impact of this inequality is not just socioeconomic Love Troubles is the first book to examine the emotional cost of this inequality to the intimate and emotional lives of China s people Drawing on first hand ethnographic research among rural migrant factory workers in the Pearl River Delta in southern China Wanning Sun critically analyzes narratives about love romance and intimacy in contemporary Chinese public discourses Examining the impact of economic and cultural inequality on private life this book both embodies and facilitates an intimate turn in the study of China s social change and presents a significant intellectual intervention into worldwide debates on inequality

Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts Victor Karandashev,2016-12-24 This volume presents a conceptual historical anthropological and sociological review of how culture affects our experience and expression of romantic love What is romantic love and how is it different from and similar to other kinds of love How is romantic love related to sex and marriage in human history and across contemporary cultures What cultural factors mediate attraction in love These are some of the questions the volume explores through its interdisciplinary yet focused lens Much of the current research evidence suggests that love is a universal emotion experienced by a majority of people in various historical eras and in all the world s cultures Yet love displays in different ways because culture has an impact on people s conceptions of love and the ways they feel think and behave in romantic relationships This volume summarizes classical knowledge on love and culture while at the same time focusing sharply on recent studies and cutting edge research that has advanced the field Divided into three parts the volume begins by defining and analyzing the concept of romantic love and interdisciplinary approach to its study in cultural context Part II traces the origin and evolution of romantic love both in various places throughout the world and various time periods throughout history Part III presents the revolutionary expansion of romantic love ideas and practices in the late 20th and early 21st centuries in various parts of the world focusing particularly on the development of romantic love as a cultural ideal of the modern cultures Finally the book concludes by summarizing the major achievements in this field of study and predicts future development A timely and thoughtful addition to the literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts delivers thought provoking insights to researchers in relationship scholarship sociology anthropology and cultural studies and all those interested in the universal human concept of love Overall I find Dr Victor Karandashev is an excellent and fine scholar who has a firm grasp of both the fundamental principles of cross cultural research and of anthropology In our increasingly connected world Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts updates and adds to the descriptions and explanations of similarities and differences in romantic love across generations and cultures Romantic love encompasses the life span rather than being a phenomenon largely confined to youthful years The topic of this project concerns the deepest of our sentiments and pervades life from birth to death This book contributes to better knowledge of this phenomenon across generations Flix Neto Professor of Psychology Faculdade de Psicologia e de Ciências da Educação Universidade do Porto Portugal

Men, Masculinities, and Popular Romance Jonathan A. Allan, 2019-10-31 Men Masculinities and Popular Romance seeks to open a lively and accessible discussion between critical studies of men and masculinities and popular romance studies especially its continued interest in what Janice Radway has called the purity of his maleness Popular romance novels perhaps more than any other genre explore sexuality and gender creating an ideal space in which to consider and explore theoretical models that think seriously about gender The romance novel has long been criticized and celebrated by feminist critics How can these novels maintain according to some feminist ideals while also upholding what Raewyn Connell has long theorized as hegemonic masculinity This volume is an original and important contribution examining the previously underexamined nexus of masculinity and popular romance studies It will be of key interest to undergraduates and postgraduates in Masculinities Gender and Women's Studies and Literary Studies and highly relevant to courses in Masculinity Studies Pop Culture Studies Queer Studies and Sexuality Studies

Emotions in Culture and Everyday Life Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2022-08-15 This volume describes and analyses a series of emotions prevalent in everyday life and culture with each chapter exploring the main facets of a particular emotion and considering the ways in which it manifests itself in and informs our culture and lives Considering our expression conception management and sanctioning of emotions and the ways in which these have changed over time as well as the ways in which we can theorise particular emotional states authors ask how certain emotions are linked to culture and society and what roles they play in politics and contemporary life With examples and case studies taken from research into media culture and social life Emotions in Culture and Everyday Life will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology psychology media and cultural studies and philosophy with interests in the emotions Sex, Love and Money in Cambodia Heidi Hoefinger, 2013-07-04 Dealing with the complex and discomforting grey area where sex love and money collide this book highlights the general materiality of everyday sex that takes place in all relationships In doing so it draws attention to and destigmatizes the transactional elements within many normative partnerships be they transnational inter ethnic or otherwise Focusing on Cambodia and on a subculture of young women employed in the tourist bar scene referred to as professional girlfriends the book shows that the resulting transnational relationships between Cambodian women and their foreign partners are complex and multi layered It argues that the sex for cash prostitution framework is no longer an appropriate model of analysis Instead a new vocabulary of professional girlfriends and transactional sex is used with which the nuanced complexities of these transnational partnerships are analysed Interdisciplinary in nature the book inspires new understandings of gender power sex love desire political economy and materiality within everyday relationships around the globe It is a useful contribution for students and scholars of Anthropology Sociology Southeast Asian Studies Gender and Sexuality Studies and Cultural Studies Women and Romance Susan Ostrov Weisser, 2001-07 Weisser English Adelphi U writes that her anthology is for anyone who is interested in understanding the conflicted but powerful female urge to experience the pleasure and endure the pain of romantic love In particular she explores the collision of pervasive media images of romance with feminist values of independence and self assertion Several dozen historic and contemporary works of criticism personal essays and letters by feminist and anti feminist thinkers consider changing images of romantic love and whether romance fundamentally weakens or empowers women Contributors include Jean Jacques Rousseau Charlotte Bronte Karen Horney Simone de Beauvoir Rita Mae Brown bell hooks Vivian Gornick and Carolyn Heilbrun c Book News Inc The Psychology of Love Michele A. Paludi, 2012-03-09 From arranged marriages to online dating this four volume work presents everything from personal accounts to empirical evidence to document what creates love in our culture as well as around the world The field of biology views love as a hard wired mammalian drive akin to thirst and hunger In contrast psychology views love from a social and cultural perspective where our drive to find love and our responses to it are highly dependent on societal norms In The Psychology of Love esteemed author and educator Michele A Paludi examines love through all lenses thereby providing readers a deeper understanding of the ways we can express caring sensitivity empathy and respect toward one another Each chapter in this comprehensive four volume work includes a scholarly overview of empirical research and theories about the psychology of love In addition individuals own definitions of love are included Special attention is paid to accepted standards of love across a variety of cultures the ways individuals express liking and love across the lifecycle and patterns in dissolutions of friendships and romantic relationships making note of gender and race differences National Endowment for the Humanities ...
