expect A Romance of Two Worlds to be so well received. She claims in the introduction to the second printing in 1887 that it was not only read but loved. Her scripture, The Electric Principle of Christianity, included in the novel is presented as something factual and after the publication of the book generated a cult following in which readers sought more information about her experience. Today New Age devotees hail Corelli as inspired. Many believe that the book is autobiographical something Corelli encouraged during her lifetime. In several chapters Corelli hints that Heliobas may be the Count of St Germain although Rosicrucian authors identify him as an Illuminati hierophant. Count A di Guinotti Heliobas appears in two other Corelli novels Ardath and The Soul of Lilith. Themes in A Romance of Two Worlds. Marie Corelli takes on an old argument between the creationists and the evolutionists. However her insights are futuristic including ideas about electricity, solar power and the properties of the atom. She explains in the introduction in this cultivated age a wall of skepticism and cynicism is gradually being built up by intellectual thinkers of every nation against all the treats of the Supernatural and Unseen. I am aware that my narration of the events I have recently experienced will be read with incredulity. At a time when the great empire of the Christian Religion is being assailed or politely ignored by governments and public speakers and teachers I realize to the fullest extent how daring is any attempt to prove even by a plain history of strange occurrences happening to one's self the actual existence of the Supernatural around us and the absolute certainty of a future state of being after the passage through that brief soul sleep in which the body perishes known to us as Death. The book is suffused with Pantheism. She also argues that Christ did not come to us as a sacrifice because God is a creator of love and beauty and could not desire a bleeding victim as sacrifice to appease His Anger. A romance of two worlds Marie Corelli, 1889. A Romance of Two Worlds Illustrated Marie Corelli, 2020-11-10. A Romance of Two Worlds was Marie Corelli's first novel published in 1886.
