Re-Configuring Romanian Culture on its Way Towards Modernity Alexandra Chiriac, 2022-09-26 As a direct result of an international conference organized in the year 2021 the volume tries to shed light on the way in which the translation activity contributed to the Romanian culture and language drawing from different traditions and cultures it came in contact with directly or indirectly and thus mingling the own Slavonic church tradition with the new and revolutionary ideas of the Western world and using this mix to modernise the society language and the politics in this region Furthermore this eclectic collection of articles highlights the fact that it was neither the exclusive merit of the Transylvanian scholars nor of the Moldavian or Wallachian ones to have contributed decisively to the formation of the national consciousness and to the standardisation of the language but it was rather the collaboration the circulation of people and ideas that furthered the modernity in all three Romanian Principalities Without disregarding the regional specificity of the Romanian Enlightenment the volume focuses on the interconnections of the agents involved in the cultural transfer on the networks they created for the dissemination of knowledge and political thought and on the common effort to render the new ideas and concepts of the foreign cultures in a national language that could be accessible to the Romanians Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians John-Paul Himka, 2018-10-11 Few subjects in Christianity have inspired artists as much as the last judgment Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians examines images of the last judgment from the fifteenth century to the present in the Carpathian mountain region of Ukraine Poland Slovakia and Romania as a way to consider history free from the traditional frameworks and narratives of nations Over ten years John Paul Himka studied last judgment images throughout the Carpathians and found a distinctive and transnational blending of Gothic Byzantine and Novgorodian art in the region Piecing together the story of how these images were produced and how they developed Himka traces their origins on linden boards and their evolution on canvas and church walls Tracing their origins with monks he follows these images increased popularity as they were commissioned by peasants and shepherds whose tastes so shocked bishops that they ordered the destruction of depictions of sexual themes and grotesque forms of torture A richly illustrated and detailed account of history through a style of art Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians will find a receptive audience with art historians religious scholars and slavists
