Silent Suffering & Unheard Agony In The Regional Writings On Women S. P. Sree, 2008 Papers presented at the International Seminar on Psycho Dynamics of Women in the Postmodern Literature of the East and West held at Visakhapatnam during 25 26 February 2006      Rootless But Green are the Boulevard Trees Uma Parameswaran, 2003

Contemporary Indian English Poetry and Drama Sajalkumar Bhattacharya, Himadri Lahiri, Arnab Kumar Sinha, 2019-07-29 This anthology of essays maps the divergent issues that have become relevant in contemporary Indian English poetry and drama By providing a clear idea about the new themes techniques and methods used by the Indian English poets and playwrights to address the issues emerging in the changing socio cultural scenario particularly during the post globalization period the essays offer insightful observations on canon formation and its reception It is high time to consider afresh whether the canons of Indian English poetry and drama have widened their scope to include innovative forms of writing or whether they have evolved significantly to generate novel perspectives These questions which are linked with the issue of canon formation and its reception are intricately woven into the fabric of these essays This anthology will respond to the scholarly interests of inquisitive students research scholars and academics in the field of Indian English literature      Critical Responses to Canadian Literature K. Balachandran, 2004      Living the Changes Joan Turner, 1990-12-01 Living the Changes explores the nature and extent of women s changing realities The contributors include writers artists academics street kids and social workers and range in age from nine to seventy three Their topics reflect the diversity and complexity of the concerns of contemporary women birthing and aging body image culture drugs violence sexual abuse prostitution reproductive technology and spirituality      Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet s major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet s critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Indian Diaspora Literature: A Critical Evaluation Dipak Giri, 2024-02-05 In this period of globalization many individuals are trying to upgrade the life and for that most of them are now migrating to other lands In the process of getting settle in new land they encounter many problems The issue of migration and immigration brings forward the question of exile identity assimilation memory nostalgia hopelessness uprootedness hybridity and so on Indian writers have beautifully picked up experiences of such people and penned them down Such writing is called Diaspora Literature wherein immigrant experiences have been shared through literature This type of literature includes expatriate stories refugee chronicles and immigrant narratives The present anthology Indian Diaspora Literature A Critical Evaluation covers as many as twenty articles where the authors have discussed innumerable issues and challenges as confronted by Indian immigrants due to their distance and dislocation from their familiar homeland to the alien hostland irrespective of what kind of exile they follow forced or voluntary Apart from bringing into surface the migratory problems the anthology also sheds light on the complexities that arise out of such migration Some of the notable Indian writers who have been given room in this book are V S Naipaul Amitav Ghosh Rohinton Mistry Jhumpa Lahiri Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Anita Desai and Kiran Desai to name a few Authors have tried to give their best outputs to reach this anthology to its intended goal Hopefully this book will be helpful to both students and scholars alike
